Fight the Good Fight: Voices of Faith from the First World War John Broom, 2015-10-30 The inspiring stories of a number of very different characters who used their Christian faith to cope with their experiences of the First World War Jacqueline Wadsworth author of Letters from the Trenches While a toxic mixture of nationalism and militarism tore Europe and the wider world apart from 1914 to 1919 there was one factor that united millions of people across all nations that of a Christian faith People interpreted this faith in many different ways Soldiers marched off to war with ringing endorsements from bishops that they were fighting a Godly crusade others preached in churches and tribunal hearings that war was fundamentally against the teachings of Christ Whether Church of England or Nonconformist Catholic or Presbyterian German Lutheran or the American Church of Christ in Christian Union men and women across the globe conceptualized their war through the prism of their belief in a Christian God This book brings together twenty three individual and family case studies some of well known personalities others whose stories have been neglected through the decades Although divided by nation social class political outlook and denomination they were united in their desire to Fight the Good Fight John Broom looks at such beliefs during the first world war the Tommies were always fighting for God the king and their country a fascinating study Books Monthly A detailed study of a usually hidden aspect of wartime social history the topic of Christian faith Fight the Good Fight has been meticulously researched and includes a wealth of previously unpublished material Come Step Back In Time Doughboys on the Great War Edward A. Gutiérrez, 2017-01-20 It is impossible to reproduce the state of mind of the men who waged war in 1917 and 1918 Edward Coffman wrote in The War to End All Wars In Doughboys on the Great War the voices of thousands of servicemen say otherwise The majority of soldiers from the American Expeditionary Forces returned from Europe in 1919 Where many were simply asked for basic data veterans from four states Utah Minnesota Connecticut and Virginia were given questionnaires soliciting additional information and remarks Drawing on these questionnaires completed while memories were still fresh this book presents a chorus of soldiers voices speaking directly of the expectations motivations and experiences as infantrymen on the Western Front in World War I What was it like to kill or maim German soldiers To see friends killed or maimed by the enemy To return home after experiencing such violence Again and again soldiers wrestle with questions like these putting into words what only they can tell They also reflect on why they volunteered why they fought what their training was and how ill prepared they were for what they found overseas They describe how they interacted with the civilian populations in England and France how they saw the rewards and frustrations of occupation duty when they desperately wanted to go home and perhaps most significantly what it all added up to in the end Together their responses create a vivid and nuanced group portrait of the soldiers who fought with the American Expeditionary Forces on the battlefields of Aisne Marne Argonne Forest Belleau Wood Chateau Thierry the Marne Metz Meuse Argonne St Mihiel Sedan and Verdun during the First World War The picture that emerges is often at odds with the popular notion of the disillusioned doughboy Though hardened and harrowed by combat the veteran heard here is for the most part proud of his service service undertaken for duty honor and country In short a hundred years later the doughboy once more speaks in his own true voice

Unraveling the Myth of Sgt. Alvin York James Patrick Gregory, 2023-01-20 On October 8 1918 seventeen soldiers from the 82nd Division American Expeditionary Force led by acting Sgt Bernard Early flanked a German machine gun nest that had inundated their unit with withering fire In this sneak attack they successfully surprised and captured more than 80 German soldiers before an unseen machine gun suddenly opened fire and killed six men Acting Cpl Alvin York a member of the patrol received the credit for taking control of the squad and single handedly killing 20 Germans capturing 132 prisoners and eliminating 35 machine guns all before leading the men back to Allied lines For this act of bravery York not only received the Medal of Honor and was promoted to sergeant but he also rose to fame and glory The 1941 movie Sergeant York starring Gary Cooper solidified York as a legend and one of the most well known military figures in American history In Unraveling the Myth of Sgt Alvin York historian James P Gregory Jr tells the story of the other sixteen soldiers who took part in the battle capture and return before fading into relative obscurity in the shadow of Sergeant York As the tale reached mythological proportions the other survivors began to speak out seeking recognition for their parts in the engagement only to be stymied by improper investigations cover ups and media misrepresentations Here Gregory recovers the story of these other men and the part they played alongside York while revealing the process of mythmaking in twentieth century America The Great War Thomas Herbert Russell, 1920
