An Imaginary Cinema Dustin Condren, 2024-12-15 An Imaginary Cinema is the first systematic study of Sergei Eisenstein's unrealized films as well as a deeply informed historical and theoretical inquiry into the role and meaning of the unmade in his oeuvre Eisenstein directed some of the twentieth century's most important films from the early classic of montage Battleship

Potemkin to his late masterpiece Ivan the Terrible. Alongside these however the Soviet filmmaker also toiled over a compelling array of unrealized projects from ideas that never grew beyond complex passionate notebook scrawls and sketches to productions that were mounted and shot to some degree of completion without ever being finished. Working from the archival remnants of several of the director's most fascinating unrealized projects from his bold vision to film Marx's Das Kapital to his time in Hollywood struggling to adapt Dreiser's An American Tragedy Dustin Condren's book reveals new aspects of Eisenstein's genius showing the filmmaker in a constant state of process open to working toward impossible and sometimes utopian ends and committed to the pursuit of creative and theoretical discovery. Condren's analysis of these unrealized projects in An Imaginary Cinema reveals Eisenstein at crucial moments of his personal and artistic biography and it also tells the wider story of a canonical artist negotiating the political labyrinths of Stalinist Russia, the economic pitfalls of Hollywood and the technological shifts of early cinema.

aesthetics more generally and reveal him as one of the most significant philosophers of art of the twentieth century Death Day John Passfield,2011-09-21 On March 19 1937 world renowned Soviet film maker Sergei Eisenstein appears before the All Union Creative Conference of Workers in Soviet Cinematography accused of having failed to create films which reflect the social and political orthodoxy of the Stalinist regime Reeling from an unrelenting barrage of questions accusations and threats the film maker struggles to respond to the dilemma which is faced by all artists in totalitarian states how to reconcile ones freedom of imagination and creativity with the conformity to the artistically stifling orthodoxy which is demanded by the rulers of society His response is an example of the ingenuity which is often displayed by artists in repressive societies
