Armstrong,2012-06-05 In fifty years of prosecuting and defending criminal cases in New York City and elsewhere Michael F Armstrong has often dealt with cops For a single two year span as chief counsel to the Knapp Commission he was charged with investigating them Based on Armstrong s vivid recollections of this watershed moment in law enforcement accountability prompted by the New York Times s report on whistleblower cop Frank Serpico They Wished They Were Honest recreates the dramatic struggles and significance of the Commission and explores the factors that led to its success and the restoration of the NYPD s public image Serpico s charges against the NYPD encouraged Mayor John Lindsay to appoint prominent attorney Whitman Knapp to chair a Citizen s Commission on police graft Overcoming a number of organizational budgetary and political hurdles Chief Counsel Armstrong cobbled together an investigative group of a half dozen lawyers and a dozen agents Just when funding was about to run out the blue wall of silence collapsed A flamboyant Madame a corrupt lawyer and a weasely informant led to

Egypt in the Eastern Mediterranean During the Old Kingdom Karin Sowada,2009 This study presents a revised view of Egyptian foreign relations in the eastern Mediterranean during the Old Kingdom 3rd 6th Dynasties based on an extensive analysis of old and new archaeological data and its relationship to the well known textual sources The material demonstrates that while Egypt s most important relationships were with Byblos and the Lebanese coast generally it was an active participant in the geo political and economic affairs of the Levant throughout much of the third millennium BCE The archaeological data shows that the foundation of these relationships was established at the beginning of the Early Dynastic Period and essentially continued until the end of the 6th Dynasty with ebbs flows and changes of geographical and political emphasis It is argued that despite the paucity of textual data the 4th Dynasty represents the apogee of Egypt s engagement in the region a time when the centralised state was at the height of its power and control of human and economic capital More broadly this study shows that Egyptian interaction in the eastern Mediterranean fits the pattern of state to state contact between ruling elites which was underpinned by official expeditions engaged in gift and commodity exchange diplomatic endeavours and military incursions
