1. The first of these is the fact that the majority of the population of the United States is now living in urban areas. This is a result of the process of urbanization, which has been going on since the beginning of the 19th century. The population of the United States has increased from about 4 million in 1790 to over 200 million in 1990. At the same time, the proportion of the population living in urban areas has increased from about 10% to over 80%.

1. The first of these is the fact that the system is not a simple one. It is a complex system, and the results of the analysis are not always straightforward. The system is not a simple one, and the results of the analysis are not always straightforward.
