eyes under black eyelashes that must have been beautiful enough in her youth but were now dimmed and worn as if the weight of the world's sorrow had been too much for the proud high spirit On the right of Lady Macleod sat the last of her six sons Keith by name a tall sparely built sinewy young fellow with a sun tanned cheek and crisp and curling hair and with a happy and careless look in his clear eyes and about his mouth that rather blinded one to the firm lines of his face About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
