The Palgrave Handbook on Rethinking Colonial Commemorations Bronwyn Carlson, Terri Farrelly, 2023-06-30. The Palgrave Handbook on Rethinking Colonial Commemorations explores global efforts, particularly from Indigenous and Black communities, to dismantle colonial commemorations, monuments, and memorials. Across the world, many Indigenous and Black communities have taken action to remove, rectify, and/or reimagine colonial commemorations. These efforts have had the support of some non-Indigenous and white community members, but very often they have faced fierce opposition. In spite of this, many have succeeded, and this work aims to acknowledge and honour these efforts. As a current and much-debated issue, this book will present fresh findings and analyses of recent and historical events, including Rhodes Must Fall, Anzac Day protests, and the transferral of confederate monuments to museums. Comprising chapters written by Indigenous, Black, and non-Indigenous authors from a wide variety of locations, backgrounds, and purposes, this topical volume is a timely and important contribution to the fields of memory studies, Indigenous Studies, and cultural heritage.
