Jones, Miguel Alberto Kiguel

Macroeconomic Policy In The Franc Zone:

Macroeconomic Policy in the Franc Zone D. Fielding, 2005-09-09 The fourteen members of the African CFA Franc Zone represent the largest monetary unions in the southern hemisphere predating the European Monetary Union by decades This book analyzes the recent economic experiences of the Franc Zone's member states and of its economic institutions It pays particular attention to the way this disparate group of countries exploit the advantages and manage the costs of adhering to a single currency It also analyzes the impact Franc Zone institutions have on poverty The Macroeconomics of Monetary Union David Fielding, 2005-11-04 This book applies contemporary macroeconomic theory and econometric modelling techniques in order to address policy issues relating to the CFA Franc Zone a group of francophone African Countries sharing a common currency that is linked to the French Franc Euro Within this methodological framework the author analyses the way in which the monetary institutions of the CFA influence macroeconomic development and policy formation

Macroeconomic Policy Formation in Africa - Country Cases Karl Wohlmuth, Achim Gutowski, Magda Kandil, Tobias Knedlik, Osmund O. Uzor, 2014 This Volume 17 of the African Development Perspectives Yearbook considers the following major issues the macroeconomic policies in post conflict countries especially reviews of growth social progress and public finance strategies in medium term frameworks with Sudan and South Sudan as the country cases and macroeconomic policy formation in West Africa with case studies presented on Senegal and Nigeria in the West African Monetary Zone and the CFA Zone In addition the book presents book reviews and book notes Series African Development Perspectives Yearbook Vol 17 Subject African Studies Economics Macroeconomic Reforms and Growth in Africa Lawrence Bouton, Christine Jones, Miguel Alberto Kiguel, 1994 The Macroeconomics of Adjustment in Sub-Saharan African Countries Ishrat Husain, 1994 The CFA Franc Zone Ali Zafar, 2021-05-11 This book provides an empirical analysis of economic and political structures impacting the CFA franc zone Concise and practical chapters explore the history of the CFA franc zone challenges to development geopolitical issues the importance of flexible exchange rates growth trends and the impact of the Covid crisis Policy reform is examined to detail economic approaches that could reduce poverty and increase the quality of life within the area This book aims to present a macroeconomic and exchange rate framework to promote development and post Covid recovery within the CFA franc zone It will be of interest to students researchers and policymakers involved in African economics the political economy and development economics Africa and Economic Policy Ferdinand Bakoup, 2014-08-01 Africa and Economic Policy Developing a Framework for Policymakers aims to fill an important gap in the current literature on economic policy in developing countries Despite its richness and sophistication the current economic literature has not yet succeeded in developing a framework for economic policy that is clear and intelligible to policymakers in developing countries and which is capable of effectively delivering a sustained increase in citizens well being This ground breaking study seeks to rectify this problem by suggesting a unique conceptual framework for designing and conducting economic policy in developing countries particularly those in Africa African Economic Outlook 2002 OECD,African Development Bank,2002-02-14 The African Economic Outlook reviews the recent economic situation and the short term likely evolutions of selected African countries using a unique analytical design It also contains a comparative synthesis of African country prospects and includes a statistical annex Monetary Economics in Developing Countries Subrata Ghatak,José R. Sánchez-Fung,2017-09-16 This book highlights the basic principles of monetary economics and their application to developing countries Fully illustrated the new edition includes four entirely new chapters with material on financial crises the debates surrounding inflation targeting and an examination of the role and future of financial institutions The Oxford Handbook of the Economy of Cameroon Célestin Monga,2022-10-10 Cameroon s suboptimal economic experience since independence 1960 sheds light on broader issues of Africa s development narrative and provides valuable economic and policy knowledge While Cameroon s large informal economy is diverse and resilient and rooted in old business traditions its formal economy has exhibited low productivity and employment growth for over 60 years This has brought anger disappointment and violent conflict in several regions of the country The Oxford Handbook of the Economy of Cameroon examines the reasons of Cameroon s unsatisfactory economic performance and draws lessons from successful development experience to help tackle these issues The Handbook provides a critical assessment of the history patterns and strategies of economic development in Cameroon and outlines new approaches to economic enquiry for prosperity and social change Through Cameroon s governance story the handbook analyzes the evolving conceptions of economic policy takes stock of intellectual progress documents the challenges of implementation and outlines the intellectual and policy agenda ahead For a developing country increases in per capita income arise from advances in technology arise from closing the knowledge and technology gap with those at the frontier And within any country especially one like Cameroon there is enormous scope for productivity improvement simply by closing the gap between best practices and average practices Standards of living can therefore be improved through the implementation of pertinent learning strategies In this Oxford Handbook of the Economy of Cameroon an international team of leading development economists and researchers address the wide range of issues facing Cameroon and provide guiding principles on how best the country and other developing nations could move human capital and financial resources from low to high productivity sectors in a constantly changing global economy Wealth through Integration Elias T. Ayuk,Samuel T. Kaboré,2012-11-28 Could regional integration be a first step toward joining the global market In a context where liberalizing trade has not produced the expected gains in developing countries and growth in global trade has not led to the expected economic growth an alternative solution has emerged This new paradigm suggests that trade liberalization should be accompanied by public investment However by its very nature trade liberalization leads to a reduction in revenues from duties and taxes which means that the available resources for public investments will also be reduced There are now solid arguments for encouraging the less developed countries to first emphasize regional integration before trying to access the global market This book explores the issues linked to regional integration in West Africa and presents empirical data about the experiences in West African Economic and Monetary Union WAEMU countries to converge their economies It also examines how these efforts which make a major contribution to regional integration influence poverty reduction in the economic and monetary community It will be of interest to researchers working in this area Elias T Ayuk is Director of the United Nations University Institute for Natural Resources in Africa in Accra Ghana and was formerly a senior program specialist at the International Development Research Centre Samuel T Kabor is a researcher lecturer at the Faculty of Economics and Management at the University of Ouagadougou II BurkinaFaso Canada s International Development Research Centre IDRC supports research in developing countries to promote growth and development IDRC also encourages sharing this knowledge with policymakers other researchers and communities around the world The result is innovative lasting local solutions that aim to bring choice and change to those who need it most Elias T Ayuk is Director of the United Nations University Institute for Natural Resources in Africa in Accra Ghana and was formerly a senior program specialist at the International Development Research Centre Samuel T Kabor is a researcher lecturer at the Faculty of Economics and Management at the University of Ouagadougou II Burkina Faso Canada s International Development Research Centre IDRC supports research in developing countries to promote growth and development IDRC also encourages sharing this knowledge with policymakers other researchers and communities around the world The result is innovative lasting local solutions that aim to bring choice and change to those who need it most

Africa's Competitiveness in the Global Economy Ifedapo Adeleye, Mark Esposito, 2018-01-10 This book highlights the key issues opportunities and challenges facing African firms industries cities and nations in their quest to compete successfully in the global economy Exploring a topic which has grown in importance as Africa faces a period of subdued economic development this edited collection takes a unique multi disciplinary multi industry and multi country approach The authors provide insights into a broad range of issues including competitiveness measurement and evaluation sectoral competitiveness of declining and emerging industries threats of the Dutch Disease and talent competitiveness This timely book offers a response to the urgent need for the diversification of economies and the advancement of manufacturing in Africa appealing to scholars of international business and economics

When States Fail Robert I. Rotberg, 2010-07-28 Since 1990 more than 10 million people have been killed in the civil wars of failed states and hundreds of millions more have been deprived of fundamental rights The threat of terrorism has only heightened the problem posed by failed states When States Fail is the first book to examine how and why states decay and what if anything can be done to prevent them from collapsing It defines and categorizes strong weak failing and collapsed nation states according to political social and economic criteria And it offers a comprehensive recipe for their reconstruction The book comprises fourteen essays by leading scholars and practitioners who help structure this disparate field of research provide useful empirical descriptions and offer policy recommendations Robert Rotberg's substantial opening chapter sets out a theory and taxonomy of state failure. It is followed by two sets of chapters: the first on the nature and correlates of failure; the second on methods of preventing state failure and reconstructing those states that do fail. Economic jump starting, legal refurbishing, elections, the demobilizing of ex combatants and civil society are among the many topics discussed. All of the essays are previously unpublished. In addition to Rotberg, the contributors include David Carment, Christopher Clapham, Nat J. Colletta, Jeffrey Herbst, Nelson Kasfir, Michael T. Klare, Markus Kostner, Terrence Lyons, Jens Meierhenrich, Daniel N. Posner, Susan Rose Ackerman, Donald R. Snodgrass, Nicolas van de Walle, Jennifer A. Widner, and Ingo Wiederhofer.

Development Aid George Mavrotas, Mark McGillivray, 2009-01-15. This book addresses several gaps in knowledge of aid allocation and effectiveness and provides new analytical insights. Topics covered include the interface between aid allocation and perceptions of aid effectiveness, the year on year volatility of aid, and evaluation of the country level impacts of aid.

Adjustment in Africa World Bank, 1994. This is the second title in the World Bank Policy Research Reports. The first was the headline making The East Asian Miracle, which discusses the economic situation in Africa as it has evolved over the past several decades. To reverse the economic decline that began in the 1970s, many sub-Saharan African countries have undertaken efforts to restructure their economies. This has included liberalizing trade, deregulating markets and prices, privatizing public enterprises, and strengthening management of the financial and public sectors. Implementation has been uneven in different countries, and even those countries that have attempted major reforms have not achieved policies that are considered sound by international standards. A key finding is that improving policies paid off in higher GDR and sectoral growth rates, which are vital to reducing poverty, but in countries where policies deteriorated, economic performance worsened. The report also shows that despite the importance of reforming economic policies, countries need to invest more in human capital and infrastructure, expand their institutional capacity, and develop better governance.

Regions and Development Sheila Page, 2020-12-15. At the 1996 EADI Conference, the papers presented in the World Trade and Trade Policy workshop looked at the new trends in regionalism from a variety of points of view for different institutions. They considered the effects of regions, their implications for policy and performance in the developing countries, and for international economic institutions, and tried to interpret them in terms of economic and political theory.

The CFA Franc Zone Ms. Anne Marie Gulde, Mr. Charalambos G. Tsangarides, 2008-04-02. About one third of countries covered by the IMF's African Department are members of the CFA franc zone. With most other countries moving away from fixed exchange rates, the issue of an adequate policy framework to ensure the sustainability of the CFA franc zone is clearly of interest to policymakers and academics. However, little academic research exists in the public domain. This book aims to fill this void by bringing together work undertaken in the context of intensified regional surveillance and highlighting the current challenges and the main policy requirements if the arrangements are to be carried forward. The book is based on empirical research by a broad group of IMF economists with contributions from several outside experts.

NBER Macroeconomics Annual 1991

Olivier Blanchard, Stanley Fischer, 1991 This is the sixth in a series of annuals from the National Bureau of Economic Research that are designed to stimulate research on problems in applied economics to bring frontier theoretical developments to a wider audience and to accelerate the interaction between analytical and empirical research in macroeconomics Olivier Blanchard and Stanley Fischer are both Professors of Economics at MIT Contents Pitfalls and Opportunities What Macroeconomists Should Know about Unit Roots John Y Campbell and Pierre Perron Markups and the Business Cycle Julio Rotemberg and Michael Woodford Privatization in Eastern Europe Incentives and the Economics of Transition Jean Tirole The EMS the EMU and the Transition to a Common Currency Kenneth A Froot and Kenneth S Rogoff Growth Macroeconomics and Development Stanley S Fischer Recessions as Reorganizations Robert E Hall Developing a Sustainable Economy in Cameroon Aloysius Ajab Amin, 2008 Developing a Sustainable Economy in Cameroon is an ambitious effort as the authors try to set a blue print for Cameroon's economy In the 1980s facing economic crisis and as dictated by the structural adjustment programme Cameroon sharply cut public investment expenditures before later cutting government consumption which were followed by privatisation liquidation of public companies and reduction in the size of the public sector All these measures are believed to have had devastating effects on the economy Given the performance of the economy so far the authors suggest that much more effort with a strong commitment of the main stakeholders is required to guarantee sustainable economic development in Cameroon Truly very few countries in Africa possess such enormous human and natural resources as Cameroon does This volume brings out the challenges Cameroon faces in its quest for development as well as for designing appropriate strategies for addressing those development challenges Alternative Exchange Rate Strategies and Fiscal Performance in Sub-Saharan Africa Mrs. Stefania Bazzoni, Mr. Karim A. Nashashibi, 1993-08-01 This paper investigates the relationship between fiscal performance in 28 sub Saharan African countries over the 1980-91 period with movements in the exchange rates the terms of trade and other macroeconomic aggregates It finds that the tax base in most of these countries is heavily dependent on imports and import substitutes Consequently an overvaluation of the exchange rate in countries which adopted a fixed exchange rate strategy undermines the tax base and results in a widening of the fiscal deficit when the purpose of the strategy is to restore the real exchange rate to its equilibrium through fiscal contraction Those countries which pursued a variable exchange rate strategy failed in attaining price stability but exchange rate adjustment was critical in contributing to other macroeconomic objectives particularly fiscal balance competitiveness and growth
