Mad Masquerade Barbara Hazard, 1985-04      June Mathis Thomas J. Slater, 2025-04-08 Along with thousands of other girls who hoped to escape tedious employment and domesticity June Mathis 1887 1927 started acting as a young teen After more than a decade of stepping onto stages across the US she moved into the burgeoning film business and behind the camera to begin a prolific career as a screenwriter and producer for profound movies like The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse 1921 and Blood and Sand 1922 With her expert use of melodrama and masterful technique Mathis would eventually become the first female head writer at Metro Pictures In June Mathis The Rise and Fall of a Silent Film Visionary Thomas J Slater illuminates Mathis s important and complicated life and work not only detailing her discovery of the silent movie superstar Rudolph Valentino and her involvement on the original screenplay for Ben Hur 1925 but also her prowess in all aspects of production Slater pulls from historical records as well as letters never before studied scripts and Mathis s handwritten will to build a robust narrative for someone who always had to struggle for success even though Photoplay acknowledged her as the most powerful woman in the motion picture industry in 1923 Slater discusses Mathis s artistic and moral failings as well as how her efforts such as overlooked collaborations with writer Katharine Kavanaugh and actress Alla Nazimova consistently challenged male dominance militarism and greed Despite her talent and achievements Mathis was pushed to the margins when the industry began removing women from spheres of influence Following a few months of freelancing she suffered a heart attack during a Broadway show and died at the age of forty Very quickly this woman whose ideas shaped American film for more than a decade was forgotten June Mathis portrays the cinematic legacy of this million dollar girl whose complex story ended too soon but remains relevant today      By Order of the Company Mary

Johnston, 1923      A Perfect Loss Harry Clark, 2025-07-15 This fictional memoir is the author s effort to recapture the kaleidoscopic impressions of his childhood his neighborhood his school family and friends and the loss of each Returning to Tucson his familial home some forty years past Clark begins to dream of B Street the solitary block where he lived and attended both junior and senior high school This was his universe before an abrupt departure the summer of 1965 never again to see his friends left in his wake Not one to readily recall dreams his vivid nightly recollections are due in great part to intimations of his mortality brought on by a battle with Stage III melanoma He first deals with B Street and the abandonment in his play The Combination This however does not delve into his entering the existential abyss the ebon void his sophomore and junior year nor assuage his guilt about his seemingly indifferent interactions with friends who lost family due to suicide or murder And why those repeated dreams about a B Street murderer Mitch B who lived but a few doors up on the same side of the street And why does his family not talk of the deaths and suicides happening about B Street And why does he spend more time with the one kid on the street he really cannot tolerate Roy huddled over their coin collections their bullfighting memorabilia conjecturing on levitating canary cages obsessing over imperfect baseball cards and perfect games And whatever happened to Roy's brother Mikey his best friend his inseparable All these figures come back nightly to inhabit him as does this once small town of alley and desert freedoms And because he cannot explain all that transpires he seeks out an attorney who once defended murderer Mitch B and who lived but a block or two from B Street The attorney too has his say about Mitch B B Street the author The author and the attorney never to their recollection know of one another as kids only adding another why the improbability of such another near perfect loss     The Broadway ,1869     Hideous Progeny Angela Smith,2012-01-24 Twisted bodies deformed faces aberrant behavior and abnormal desires characterized the hideous creatures of classic Hollywood horror which thrilled audiences with their sheer grotesqueness Most critics have interpreted these traits as symptoms of sexual repression or as metaphors for other kinds of marginalized identities yet Angela M Smith conducts a richer investigation into the period's social and cultural preoccupations She finds instead a fascination with eugenics and physical and cognitive debility in the narrative and spectacle of classic 1930s horror heightened by the viewer's desire for visions of vulnerability and transformation Reading such films as Dracula 1931 Frankenstein 1931 Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde 1931 Freaks 1932 and Mad Love 1935 against early twentieth century disability discourse and propaganda on racial and biological purity Smith showcases classic horror's dependence on the narratives of eugenics and physiognomics She also notes the genre's conflicted and often contradictory visualizations Smith ultimately locates an indictment of biological determinism in filmmakers' visceral treatments which take the impossibility of racial improvement and bodily perfection to sensationalistic heights Playing up the artifice and conventions of disabled monsters filmmakers exploited the fears and yearnings of their audience accentuating both the perversity of the medical and scientific gaze and the debilitating experience of watching horror Classic horror films therefore encourage empathy with the disabled monster offering captive viewers an unsettling encounter with their own impairment Smith's work profoundly advances cinema and disability studies in addition to general histories concerning the construction of social and political attitudes toward the Other     Hollywood Cauldron

 Gregory William Mank,2010-06-21 Thirteen of Hollywood's horror classics in detail Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde 1931 The Old Dark House 1932 The Mask of Fu Manchu 1932 Mark of the Vampire 1935 Mad Love 1935 The Black Room 1935 The Walking Dead 1936 Cat People 1942 Bluebeard 1944 The Lodger 1944 The Picture of Dorian Gray 1945 Hangover Square 1945 and Bedlam 1946 From original interviews and research the styles of the various studios from giant M G M to Poverty Row's PRC along with the performers directors and backstage events are examined     To Have and to Hold Mary Johnston,2019-11-21 In her groundbreaking novel To Have and to Hold Mary Johnston delves into the intricate dynamics of love loyalty and the complexities of human relationships set against the backdrop of the early 20th century Utilizing a rich evocative prose style Johnston crafts a narrative that intertwines historical authenticity with poignant emotional depth The novel captures the essence of a rapidly evolving America as societal norms clash with personal desires illuminating the struggles of women in a patriarchal society The themes of sacrifice and the quest for independence resonate throughout making it a compelling exploration of personal agency and moral dilemmas Mary Johnston a prominent author of her time was deeply influenced by her experiences as a suffragist and her observations of the shifting societal landscapes Born in Virginia in 1870 Johnston was not only a novelist but also an advocate for women s rights and education utilizing her literary platform to address the challenges faced by her contemporaries Her background and commitment to social issues infuse her work with authenticity and urgency reflecting the aspirations and frustrations of early 20th century women For readers seeking a blend of historical insight and emotional resonance To Have and to Hold is a must read Johnston s masterful storytelling invites reflection on the sacrifices made for love and the pursuit of autonomy making it a timeless commentary on the enduring struggle for identity and fulfillment

Transforming Faces for the Screen Karen Randell, Alexis Weedon, 2023-11-09 This book brings together research from medical and film archives to illustrate the cultural impact of film and literature in its relationship to the discourse of plastic surgery in the 1920s This different take on reading the body after the First World War enables students of multiple disciplines and readers interested in both Hollywood and post war culture to understand some of the complexities of medical interventions gained after the First World War and the way in which they filtered into the world of Hollywood film making It also allows readers who may not be familiar with these two 1920s stars to access the films of Lon Chaney and the books and films of Elinor Glyn and gain new insights into 1920s visual culture For ease of readership the book is organised so that each of the main chapters focuses on a particular film either Lon Chaney or Elinor Glyn This is particularly useful for use in the classroom or for online education Readers can refer to the film directly aided by illustrations of frames from the films This book tells the story of how two stars of Hollywood film transformed their character s faces on screen through a close reading of three films in the 1920s It reveals how they applied their embodied knowledge of surgery and surgical procedures to broaden their audience s emotional and intellectual understanding of the treatment of deformity and disability The Dark Side of G.K. Chesterton John C. Tibbetts,2021-10-08

This is a critical study of the great British man of letters G K Chesterton devoted to the novels stories and essays that explore the darker fringes of his wild imagination Everything is different in the dark wrote Chesterton perhaps you don t know how terrible a truth that is Chesterton s use of the theme of gargoyles provides the thematic structure of the book It covers the detective stories of Father Brown and others the locked rooms and miracle crimes in his writing his status as a science fiction writer and the riddles and paradoxes of three works Job The Man Who Was Thursday and the play The Surprise This volume also includes an interlude about Chesterton and Jorge Luis Borges and a robust appendix including interviews about the formation of Ignatius Press s Collected Chesterton Douglas Fairbanks and the American Century John C.

Tibbetts,James M. Welsh,2014-06-02 Douglas Fairbanks and the American Century brings to life the most popular movie star of his day the personification of the Golden Age of Hollywood At his peak in the teens and 1920s the swashbuckling adventurer embodied the new American century of speed opportunity and aggressive optimism The essays and interviews in this volume bring fresh perspectives to his life and work including analyses of films never before examined Also published here for the first time in English is a first hand production account of the making of Fairbanks s last silent film The Iron Mask Fairbanks 1883 1939 was the most vivid and strenuous exponent of the American Century whose dominant mode after 1900 was the mass marketing of a burgeoning democratic optimism at home and abroad During those first decades of the twentieth century his satiric comedy adventures shadow boxed with the illusions of class and custom His characters managed to combine the American easterner s experience and pretension and the westerner s promise and expansion As the masculine personification of the Old World aristocrat and the New World self made man tied to tradition yet emancipated from history he constructed a uniquely American aristocrat striding into a new age and sensibility This is the most complete account yet written of the film career of Douglas Fairbanks one of the first great stars of the silent American cinema and one of the original United Artists comprising Fairbanks Mary Pickford Charlie Chaplin and D W Griffith John C Tibbetts and James M Welsh s text is especially rich in its coverage of the early years of the star s career from 1915 to 1920 and covers in detail several films previously considered lost      The Horror Film Stephen Prince, 2004-02-09 In this volume Stephen Prince has collected essays reviewing the history of the horror film and the psychological reasons for its persistent appeal as well as discussions of the developmental responses of young adult viewers and children to the genre The book focuses on recent postmodern examples such as The Blair Witch Project In a daring move the volume also examines Holocaust films in relation to horror Part One features essays on the silent and classical Hollywood eras Part Two covers the postWorld War II era and discusses the historical aesthetic and psychological characteristics of contemporary horror films In contrast to horror during the classical Hollywood period contemporary horror features more graphic and prolonged visualizations of disturbing and horrific imagery as well as other distinguishing characteristics Princes introduction provides an overview of the genre contextualizing the readings that follow Stephen Prince is professor of communications at Virginia Tech He has written many film books including Classical Film Violence Designing and Regulating Brutality in Hollywood Cinema 1930-1968 and has edited Screening Violence also in the Depth of Field Series      Luigi Pirandello Walter Starkie, 1926      Luigi Pirandello, 1867 - 1936, 3rd Edition Walter Starkie, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1965      The Address Fiona Davis, 2018-07-10 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Lions of Fifth Avenue comes the compelling national bestselling novel about the thin lines between love and loss success and ruin passion and madness all hidden behind the walls of The Dakota New York City s most famous residence When a chance encounter with Theodore Camden one of the architects of the grand New York apartment house the Dakota leads to a job offer for Sara Smythe her world is suddenly awash in possibility no mean feat for a servant in 1884 The opportunity to move to America The opportunity to be the female manager of the Dakota And the opportunity to see more of Theo who understands Sara like no one else and is living in the Dakota with his wife and three young children One hundred years later Bailey Camden is desperate for new opportunities Fresh out of rehab the former interior designer is homeless jobless and penniless Bailey s grandfather was the ward of famed architect Theodore Camden yet Bailey won t see a dime of the Camden family s substantial estate instead her cousin Melinda Camden s biological great granddaughter will inherit almost everything So when Melinda offers to let Bailey oversee the renovation of her lavish Dakota apartment Bailey jumps at the chance despite her dislike of Melinda s vision The renovation will take away all the character of the apartment Theodore Camden himself lived in and died in after suffering multiple stab wounds by a former Dakota employee who had previously spent seven months in an insane asylum a madwoman named Sara Smythe A century apart Sara and Bailey are both tempted by and struggle against the golden excess of their respective ages for Sara the opulence of a world ruled by the Astors and Vanderbilts for Bailey the nightlife s free flowing drinks and cocaine and take refuge in the Upper West Side's gilded fortress But a building with a history as rich and often as tragic as the Dakota's can't hold its secrets forever and what Bailey discovers inside could turn everything she thought she knew about Theodore Camden and the woman who killed him on its head      Luigi Pirandello, 1867-1936 [by] Walter Starkie Walter Starkie, 1967
