Madame C J Walker Black American Series:

Madam C.J. Walker Cookie Lommel,1993 A biography of the Afro American businesswoman whose invention of facial creams and other cosmetics led to great financial success and who throughout her life devoted herself to many social and political causes Madam C. J. Walker Erica L. Ball,2021-01-29 An exhaustively detailed account of the life of Madam C J Walker Booklist Starred Review Madam C J Walker reputed to be America s first self made woman millionaire has long been celebrated for her rags to riches story Born to former slaves in the Louisiana Delta in the aftermath of the Civil War married at fourteen and widowed at twenty Walker spent the first decades of her life as a laundress laboring in conditions that paralleled the lives of countless poor and working class African American women By the time of her death in 1919 however Walker had refashioned herself into one of the most famous African American figures in the nation the owner and president of a hair care empire and a philanthropist wealthy enough to own a country estate near the Rockefellers in the prestigious New York town of Irvington on Hudson In this biography Erica Ball places this remarkable and largely forgotten life story in the context of Walker s times Ball analyzes Walker s remarkable acts of self fashioning and explores the ways that Walker and the Walker brand enabled a new generation of African Americans to bridge the gap between a nineteenth century agrarian past and a twentieth century future as urban dwelling consumers Forgotten African American Firsts Hans Ostrom,J. David Macey Jr.,2023-03-16 Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world Madame C. J. Walker Katie Marsico,2007-08-01 Madam C J Walker s business skills motivation and determination helped her to develop a hair product and become the first African American woman millionaire Readers will learn how those same skills also helped her reach out and help people living in poverty and speak out against injustice Black America, Body Beautiful Eric J. Bailey,2008-07-30 Despite all the medical and media attention focused on the rate of overweight and obesity in the African American population African American images and body types are greatly influencing changes in the fashion fitness advertising television and movie industries This is because overweight like beauty can be in the eye of the beholder Most research studies investigating attitudes about body image and body type among African Americans have shown they are more satisfied with their bodies than are their white counterparts and that there appears to be a wider range of acceptable body shapes and weights and a more flexible standard of attractiveness among black Americans as compared to whites That fact is not being lost on leaders of industries that might profit from understanding this wider range of beauty as well as playing to it In this book medical anthropologist Eric Bailey introduces and explains the self acceptance and body image satisfaction of African Americans and traces how that has spurred changes in industry His book fills the void of scientific evidence to enhance the understanding of African Americans perceptions related to body image and beauty and is the first to document these issues from the perspective of an African American male Despite all the medical and media attention focused on the rate of overweight and obesity in the African American population African American images and body types are greatly influencing changes in the fashion fitness advertising television and movie industries This is because overweight like beauty can be in the eye of the beholder Most research studies investigating attitudes about body image and body type among African Americans have shown they are more satisfied with their bodies than are their white counterparts Most black women for example are of course concerned with how they look but do not judge themselves in terms of their weight and do not believe they are valued mostly on the basis of their bodies Black teen girls most often say being thick and curvaceous with large hips and ample thighs is seen as the most desirable body shape Thus there appears to be a wider range of acceptable body shapes and weights and a more flexible standard of attractiveness among black Americans as compared to whites That fact is not lost on leaders of industries that might profit from understanding this wider range of beauty as well as playing to it Voluptuous supermodel Tyra Banks is just one African American who s broken the mold in that industry The effects have been seen right down to department and local clothes stores where lines of larger and plus size fashions are expanding becoming more colorful and more ornate In the fitness industry health gurus Madonna Grimes and Billy Blanks have been revolutionizing how people get fit and how fitness needs to be redeveloped for the African American population Advertising has taken a similar turn not the least manifestation of which were the major campaigns Dove and Nike ran in 2005 with plus sized actresses who continue to appear in promotions for both companies In movies and on television shows the African American beautiful body image has followed suit In this book medical anthropologist Eric Bailey introduces and explains the self acceptance and body image satisfaction of African Americans and traces how that has spurred changes in industry His book fills the void of scientific evidence to enhance the understanding of African Americans perceptions related to body image and beauty and is the first to document these issues from the perspective of an African American male Madam C. J. Walker's Gospel of Giving Tyrone McKinley Freeman, 2020-10-12 Winner of the AFP Skystone Partners Prize for Research on Fundraising and Philanthropy Association of Fundraising Professionals 2021 Terry McAdam Book Award given by the Alliance for Nonprofit

Management 2023 Peter Dobkin Hall History of Philanthropy Prize from the Association for Research on Nonprofit and Voluntary Action ARNOVA Founder of a beauty empire Madam C J Walker was celebrated as America's first self-made female millionaire in the early 1900s Known as a leading African American entrepreneur Walker was also devoted to an activist philanthropy aimed at empowering African Americans and challenging the injustices inflicted by Jim Crow Tyrone McKinley Freeman's biography highlights how giving shaped Walker's life before and after she became wealthy Poor and widowed when she arrived in St Louis in her twenties Walker found mentorship among black churchgoers and working black women Her adoption of faith racial uplift education and self-help soon informed her dedication to assisting black women's entrepreneurship financial independence and activism Walker embedded her philanthropy in how she grew her business forged alliances with groups like the National Association of Colored Women funded schools and social service agencies led by African American women and enlisted her company's sales agents in local charity and advocacy work Illuminating and dramatic Madam C J Walker's Gospel of Giving broadens our understanding of black women's charitable giving and establishes Walker as a foremother of African American philanthropy Advertising in America Danielle Sarver
