Made For Tv A Novel:

The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre: i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

Made for TV Richard Breen, 1982 Make It Bigger Paula Scher, 2002-08 Scher reveals her thoughts on design practice drawing on her experiences as a leading designer in the USA. The book includes a survey of Scher's work from her designs as art director at Columbia Records to her identity for New York's Public Theater.

A Siberian History of Soviet Film Caroline Damiens, 2024-09-05 In A Siberian History of Soviet Film Caroline Damiens explores how the depictions of the indigenous Peoples of the North in Soviet cinema and television evolved between 1920 and 1980. Damiens combines a detailed analysis of key works such as Forest People 1928, Igdenbu 1930, Dersu Uzala 1961, 1975, Tymancha's Friend 1969, and The Most Beautiful Ships 1972 with primary sources like press articles, archives, and interviews to reveal how these cinematic portrayals were created and negotiated, providing insight into the concepts of progress and authenticity in the Soviet context. She emphasises the role of indigenous individuals in shaping their cinematic image both in front of and behind the camera, highlighting the works of lesser known figures like Suntsai Geonka, Zinaida Pikunova, and Iurii Rytkheu. In doing so, Damiens emphasises the multifaceted nature of film where interpretations differ based on the perspectives of those involved. Using a decolonial approach and drawing from extensive archival materials, Damiens prompts a re-evaluation of the Soviet cinematic past and present by centring indigenous voices in the narrative. In doing so, she provides a thorough exploration of the intricate relationship between culture, representation, and identity in Soviet cinema.

An American Love Story Rona Jaffe, 2014-11-26 Four smart women and their foolish choice. In love with the same man. The wrong man. Women found him so easy to love. Clay Bowen had it all: charisma, good looks, and power in the glamorous world of television. Laura, the delicate dancer, gave up her dazzling career to marry him and have his child. Nina excelled at everything except capturing her father's complete attention. Bambi, his ruthless young assistant, thought she was using him.
