Madonna as Postmodern Myth Georges-Claude Guilbert, 2002-11-11 Madonna has long been accepted as a pop culture icon but this text postulates a greater cultural importance by analyzing her as a postmodern myth This work examines how Madonna methodically discovered and constructed herself often rewriting her past the nature and extent of her ambition and the means she used to reach her goals It also details the way in which she organized her own cult borrowing from the gay community devised her artistic output and cunningly targeted different audiences It also studies the fundamental contradiction virgin or vamp saint or prostitute that fuels Madonna's career and describes how Madonna reflects today's society its contradictions and its attitudes toward sexuality and religion The Encyclopedia of Popular Music Colin

Larkin, 2011-05-27 This text presents a comprehensive and up to date reference work on popular music from the early 20th century to the present day The Ruby Slippers, Madonna's Bra, and Einstein's Brain Chris Epting, 2006-03-01

There are few places where mobility has shaped identity as widely as the American West but some locations and populations sit at its major crossroads maintaining control over place and mobility labor and race In Collisions at the Crossroads Genevieve Carpio argues that mobility both permission to move freely and prohibitions on movement helped shape racial formation in the eastern suburbs of Los Angeles and the Inland Empire throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By examining policies and forces as different as historical societies Indian boarding schools bicycle ordinances immigration policy incarceration traffic checkpoints and Route 66 heritage she shows how local authorities constructed a racial hierarchy by allowing some people to move freely while placing limits on the mobility of others Highlighting the ways people of color have negotiated their place within these systems Carpio reveals a compelling and perceptive analysis of spatial mobility through physical movement and residence

Strobel, 2023-11-30 The Art of Mary Linwood is the first book on Leicester textile artist Mary Linwood 1755 1845 and catalogue of her work When British textile artist and gallery owner Mary Linwood died in 1845 just shy of 90 years old her estate was worth the equivalent of 5 199 822 in today s currency As someone who made but did not sell embroidered replicas of famous artworks after artists such as Gainsborough Reynolds Stubbs and Morland how did she accumulate so much money A pioneering woman in the male dominated art world of late Georgian Britain Linwood established her own London gallery in 1798 that featured copies of well known paintings by these popular artists Featuring props and specially designed rooms for her replicas she ensured that her visitors had an entertaining educational and kinetic tour similar to what Madame Tussaud would do one generation later The gallery s focus on picturesque painters provided her London visitors with an idyllic imaginary journey through the countryside Its emphasis on quintessentially British artists provided a unifying focus for a country that had recently emerged from the threat of Napoleonic invasion This book brings to the fore Linwood s gallery guides and previously unpublished letters to her contemporaries such as Birmingham inventor

Matthew Boulton and Queen Charlotte It also includes the first and only catalogue of Linwood's extant and destroyed works. By examining Linwood's replicas and their accompanying objects through the lens of material culture, the book provides a much needed contribution to the scholarship on women and cultural agency in the early 19th century.
