Traveler, There Is No Road Lisa Jackson-Schebetta, 2017-06-15 Traveler There Is No Road offers a compelling and complex vision of the decolonial imagination in the United States from 1931 to 1943 and beyond By examining the ways in which the war of interpretation that accompanied the Spanish Civil War 1936 1939 circulated through Spanish and English language theatre and performance in the United States Lisa Jackson Schebetta demonstrates that these works offered alternative histories that challenged the racial gender and national orthodoxies of modernity and coloniality Jackson Schebetta shows how performance in the US used histories of American empires Islamic legacies and African and Atlantic trades to fight against not only fascism and imperialism in the 1930s and 1940s but modernity and coloniality itself This book offers a unique perspective on 1930s theatre and performance encompassing the theatrical work of the Cuban Puerto Rican and Spanish diasporas in the United States as well as the better known Anglophone communities Jackson Schebetta situates well known figures such as Langston Hughes and Clifford Odets alongside lesser known ones such as Erasmo Vando Franca de Armi o and Manuel Aparicio The milicianas female soldiers of the Spanish Republic stride on stage alongside the male fighters of the Lincoln Brigade They and many others used the multiple visions of Spain forged during the civil war to foment decolonial practices across the pasts presents and futures of the Americas Traveler conclusively demonstrates that theatre and performance scholars must position US performances within the Americas writ broadly and in doing so they must recognize the centrality of the hemisphere s longest lived colonial power Spain Gellhorn Caroline

Strategy And Defense Policy For Small States: Problems And Prospects Bernard F W Loo, 2021-11-08 For students of Strategic Studies in small countries with limited financial human and military resources the available literature on Strategic Studies in particular texts that seek to explain the key concepts and components of Strategic Studies can be very alien in its focus to the strategic conditions and issues that these countries face This book contains a collection of essays that seeks to discuss key concepts in Strategic Studies as well as contemporary challenges in strategy and defence policy from the perspective of small states It is based on the idea derived from the German philosopher of war Carl von Clausewitz that there is a distinction between logic and grammar while the field of Strategic Studies contains a number of key concepts such as geopolitics and geostrategy strategic culture arms dynamics and the phenomenon of military modernization that are universal in logic the grammar that is the specific manifestations of these concepts in the contexts of small states is necessarily different from larger more materially endowed states Related Links Modernist Commitments Jessica Berman, 2012-01-03 Jessica Berman demonstrates how modernist narrative connects ethical attitudes and responsibilities to the active creation of political relationships and the way we imagine justice She challenges divisions between modernist and committed writing arguing that a continuum of political engagement undergirds modernisms worldwide and that it is strengthened rather than hindered by formal experimentation In addition to making the case for a transnational model of modernism Berman shows how modernism s play with formal matters its challenge to the boundaries between fact and fiction its incorporation of vernacular and folkways and its engagement with embodied experience and intimacy offer not only an expanded account of modernist texts and commitments but a new way of thinking about what modernism is and can do
