Madura Gazetteer:

Constructing the Colonial Encounter Niels Brimnes, 2019-05-08 This book offers a systematic analysis of the violent clashes between the South Indian right and left hand caste divisions that repeatedly rocked the European settlements on the Coromandel Coast in the early colonial period Whereas the Indian population expected the colonial authorities to intervene in the disputes the Europeans were reluctant to get involved in conflicts which they barely understood In the nineteenth century the significance of the divisions diminished a development that has long puzzled historians and anthropologists In addition this study addresses the larger issue of the nature of colonial encounters The rich material relating to these disputes convincingly demonstrates how Europeans and Indians as they sought to incorporate each other into their own social structure and conceptual universe participated in a dialogue on the nature of South Indian society Gazetteer of South India W. Francis, 1989 Madras District Gazetteers Madras (India : State), 1916 Salem Madras (India : State), 1918

Land and Caste in South India Dharma Kumar, 1965 South India Study of factors contributing to the growth of the landless rural worker force in the Madras area with particular reference to historical aspects and the role of UK agricultural policy during the 19th century covers the social structure social status forms of forced labour in agriculture land tenure agrarian reform population growth and its relationship to land ownership migrant workers wage structures etc References and bibliography pp 197 to 204 Guide to Kodaikāṇal and Its History E. L., 1909 Chaitanya's Life And Teachings Kṛṣṇadāsa Kavirāja Gosvāmi, 2022-09-04 DigiCat Publishing presents to you this special edition of Chaitanya's Life And Teachings From his contemporary Begali biography the Chaitanya charit amrita by K ad sa Kavir ja Gosv mi DigiCat Publishing considers every written word to be a legacy of humankind Every DigiCat book has been carefully reproduced for republishing in a new modern format The books are available in print as well as ebooks DigiCat hopes you will treat this work with the acknowledgment and passion it deserves as a classic of world literature Castes and Tribes of Southern India (Complete) Edgar Thurston, 2020-09-28 In 1894 equipped with a set of anthropometric instruments obtained on loan from the Asiatic Society of Bengal I commenced an investigation of the tribes of the Nilgiri hills the Todas Kotas and Badagas bringing down on myself the unofficial criticism that anthropological research at high altitudes is eminently indicated when the thermometer registers 100 in Madras From this modest beginning have resulted 1 investigation of various classes which inhabit the city of Madras 2 periodical tours to various parts of the Madras Presidency with a view to the study of the more important tribes and classes 3 the publication of Bulletins wherein the results of my work are embodied 4 the establishment of an anthropological laboratory 5 a collection of photographs of Native types 6 a series of lantern slides for lecture purposes 7 a collection of phonograph records of tribal songs and music The scheme for a systematic and detailed ethnographic survey of the whole of India received the formal sanction of the Government of India in 1901 A Superintendent of Ethnography was appointed for each Presidency or Province to carry out the work of the survey in addition to his other duties The other duty in my particular case the direction of a large local museum happily made an excellent blend with the survey operations as the work of collection for the ethnological section went on simultaneously with that of investigation The survey was financed for a period of five afterwards extended to eight years and an annual allotment of Rs 5 000 provided for each Presidency and Province This included Rs 2 000 for approved notes on monographs and replies to the stereotyped series of questions The replies to these questions were not I am bound to admit always entirely satisfactory as they broke down both in accuracy and detail I may as an illustration cite the following description of making fire by friction They know how to make fire i e by friction of wood as well as stone etc They take a triangular cut of stone and one flat oblong size flat They hit one another with the maintenance of cocoanut fibre or copper then fire sets immediately and also by rubbing the two barks frequently with each other they make fire

Castes and Tribes of Southern India Edgar Thurston, 1909 Trichinopoly Madras (India : Presidency), F. R. Hemingway, 1907 The Imperial Gazetteer of India William Wilson Hunter, 1887 'How Best Do We Survive?' Kenneth McPherson, 2012-12-06 This book traces the social and political history of the Muslims of south India from the later nineteenth century to Independence in 1947 and the contours that followed It describes a community in search of political survival amidst an ever changing climate and the fluctuating fortunes it had in dealing with the rise of Indian nationalism the local political nuances of that rise and its own changing position as part of the wider Muslim community in India The book argues that Partition and the foundation of Pakistan in 1947 were neither the goal nor the necessarily inescapable result of the growth of communal politics and sentiment and analyses the post 1947 constructions of events leading to Partition Neither the fact of Muslim communalism per se before 1947 nor the existence of separate Muslim electorates provide an explanation for Pakistan The book advances the theory that micro level studies of the operation of the former and the defence of the latter in British India can lead to a better understanding of the origins of communalism The book makes an important contribution to understanding and dealing with the complexities of communalism be it Hindu Muslim or Christian and its often tragic consequences

Madras District Gazetteers: Ramanathapuram Madras (India : State), B. S. Baliga (Rao Bahadur.), 1957 Castes and Tribes of Southern India. Vol. 5 of 7 Edgar Thurston, 2020-03-06 Excerpt The Marakk yars are described in the Madras Census Report 1901 as a Tamil speaking Musalman tribe of mixed Hindu and Musalman origin the people of which are usually traders They seem to be distinct from the Labbais q v in several respects but the statistics of the two have apparently been confused as the numbers of the Marakk yars are smaller than they should be Concerning the Marakk yars of the South Arcot district Mr Francis writes as follows 1 The Marakk yars are largely big traders with other countries such as Ceylon and the Straits Settlements and own most of the native coasting craft They are particularly numerous in Porto Novo The word Marakk yar is usually derived from the Arabic markab a boat The story goes that when the first immigrants of this class who like the Labbais were driven from their own country by persecutions landed on the Indian shore they were naturally asked who they were and whence they came In answer they pointed to their boats and pronounced the word markab and they became in consequence known to the Hindus as Marakk yars or 2 the people of markab The Musalmans of pure descent hold themselves to be socially superior to the Marakk ayars and the Marakk yars consider themselves better than the Labbais There is of course no religious bar to intermarriages between these different sub divisions but such unions are rare and are usually only brought about by the offer of strong financial inducements to the socially superior party Generally speaking the pure bred Musalmans differ from those of mixed descent by dressing themselves and their women in the strict Musalman fashion and by speaking Hindust ni at home among themselves

Historical Dictionary of the Tamils Vijaya Ramaswamy, 2017-08-25 The Tamils have an unbroken history of more than two thousand years Tamil the language they speak is one of the oldest living languages in the world The only people comparable to the Tamils in terms of their hoary past and vibrant present would be the Jews with one marked difference The Tamils have always had their homeland Tamilaham alternately pronounced and spelt Tamizhaham known today as Tamil Nadu which to them represents their mother and is revered by them as Tamizh Tai literally Tamil Mother This is in striking contrast to the Jews who have been through a long and arduous struggle to gain their homeland a deeply contested site to this day with Hebrewisation of Israel being a key marker of Jewish identity in the region Tamils by contrast have a clear numerical majority in the region that now comprises Tamil Nadu and the language unites rather than divides adherents of different faiths The second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Tamils contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Tamils

PREFACE Tourism in Tamil Nadu Growth and Development is a captivating theme Man has been fascinated by travel and tourism from the earliest historical period He always has had the urge to discover the unknown to explore new and strange places to seek changes of environment and to undergo new experiences Travelling to achieve these ends is not new but tourism is of a relatively modern origin Tourism is distinguishable by its mass character from the travel undertaken in the past This is largely a post second world war phenomenon Until recently only affluent people participated in tourism Increased leisure higher incomes and greatly enhanced mobility have combined to enable more people to participate in Tourism Revolution in transport technological progress and the emergence of a middle class with time and money to spare for recreation has led to the growth of tourism the modern holiday industry Thus tourism is no longer the prerogative of a few but is an accepted part of life of a large number of people India is one of the oldest civilizations with a kaleidoscopic variety and rich cultural heritage

For centuries India has been a centre of attraction for different people for different reasons The ancient invaders viewed it as a goldmine with unlimited wealth to plunder the learned were fascinated by its mystic spiritualism and profound philosophy the uninitiated saw it as a land of naked fakirs and snake charmers while the others were simply charmed by the sheer beauty of its natural attractions and amazing variety of its flora and fauna The Gazetteer's Or, Newsman's Interpreter.
