Maelstrom Storytelling:

Story Engine Christian Aldridge, 1998-12 You're holding the cutting edge of roleplaying rules. The Story Engine is designed top to bottom for story games without the vestiges of wargaming that shackle so many other storytelling games. We've included Story Bones out free online introductory version of the rules to help you get started as quickly and easily as possible. Story Engine uses relative instead of linear scales fitting everything from super heroes and high fantasy to film noir and murder mysteries. The rules adapt seamlessly to any genre giving you fluid fun games that focus on the story and not the rules. Action is resolved as whole scenes through a bidding process: players spend their resources to increase their chances of turning crucial moments into dramatic scenes. Through the Maelstrom Борис Горбачевский, 2008 A junior officer in the Red Army provides one of the richest and most detailed memoirs of life and warfare on the Eastern Front from his combat training in early 1942 until the surrender and occupation of Germany.

Storytelling Organizations David M Boje, 2008-10-07 Boje does not reflect trends; he is among those who set them. Herv Corvellec, Department of Service Management, Lund University. How can I know what I think until I see what David Boje says? What he says about storytelling will forever change what we thought we knew about stories. With remarkable control over a complex argument, Boje recovers, re-punctuates and re-animates a world of narrative and sensemaking that we have previously taken for granted. Karl E Weick, Rensis Likert, Distinguished University Professor of Organizational Behavior and Psychology, Stephen M Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan. Few people understand stories and storytelling as well as David Boje. It is a measure of Boje's success as a theorist that the word story can never reclaim the innocence and simplicity it once enjoyed. Nor with the benefit of his work can organizations be viewed as spaces which occasionally or incidentally spawn stories. Boje's eagerly awaited book forces us to question many of our assumptions about storytelling; it also demands that we revise several of our assumptions about what organizations are. Yiannis Gabriel, The School of Management, Royal Holloway University of London. Our company is made up of lots of stories. We've found that stories get told and retold and become the fabric of an organization. Policies lay unread in the company handbook or training manual. David Boje taught me the value of stories in an organization. Stories are the oil that makes the gears work. How do you get your message heard in an organization with thousands of people? David Boje taught me the value of telling stories at Stew Leonard's. Stew Leonard Jr, Stew Leonard Organization. David Boje is one of the world's leading authorities on storytelling. His work has influenced a generation of organizational theorists and students. He not only provides new ways of understanding organizations but also provides fresh insights into the way in which stories function to provide meanings. Heather H pfl, University of Essex. The idea of organizations using storytelling to make sense of themselves and their environment has generated a lot of excitement. Written by the leading scholar in this field, David Boje explores how narrative and storytelling is an important part of an organization's strategy development and learning processes. With excellent examples from Nike, McDonald's and Disney, readers are shown how the theory that underpins organizational storytelling connects with storytelling in everyday organizational life David Boje's theories and ideas in relation to the study of storytelling in organizations are highly influential and this book will be a must have for any student or scholar interested in the area

Educating Religious Education Teachers Jenny Berglund, Bert Roebben, Peter Schreiner, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2023-07-10 International knowledge transfer in religious education RE is still a fairly new topic Many scholars in the field consider this discussion of prime importance for the future of both the academic discipline of religious education and the related school subject RE This book continues this discussion and specifies it in the direction of teacher education Its focus is on the challenges that teacher students and their trainers are facing in the light of RE in a pluralized and detraditionalized society The impact of these challenges on RE research is obvious However international exchange of research results for purposes of comparison and mutual enrichment is still rare This book provides insights that can encourage and facilitate this exchange

North of Everything William Beard, Jerry White, 2002-06 This is the first book to comprehensively examine the development of English Canadian cinema since 1980 previous books in English have dealt either with specific films or filmmakers with policy or with specific genres avant garde film documentary films by women etc It deals with regional and institutional questions with the new authors that are defining contemporary cinema in English Canada with avant garde work and work by Aboriginal people Bringing together a wide variety of contributors the book deals with an enormous amount of cinema that has helped transform North American culture of the last two decades

The Art of Storytelling Amy E. Levinas, Storytelling and Anti-Storytelling Will Buckingham, 2013-02-14 The telling of tales is always a troubling business and the way in which we tell stories about ourselves and about others always involves a degree of ethical risk Levinas Storytelling and Anti Storytelling explores the troubling nature of storytelling through a reading of the work of Emmanuel Levinas Levinas is a thinker who has a complex relationship with literature and with storytelling At times Levinas is a teller of powerful tales about ethics at other times on ethical grounds he disavows storytelling altogether Levinas Storytelling and Anti Storytelling explores the tensions between philosophy and storytelling that run throughout Levinas's work By asking about how Levinas tells and untells his stories and by risking the telling of tales that Levinas himself does not dare to tell this book opens up new ways of thinking about Levinas's ethics of responsibility It may be as Levinas often insists that storytelling presents us with ethical dangers but Levinas Storytelling and Anti Storytelling makes the case that an ethics of responsibility may demand that whilst mindful of these dangers we nevertheless continually seek out new stories to tell about ourselves about others and about the world

Storytelling in Alcoholics Anonymous George H. Jensen, 2000 When drinkers attend Alcoholics Anonymous and their spouses attend Al Anon says Jensen English Southwest Missouri State U dramatic changes occur that cannot be accounted for simply by the absence of alcohol He explains how being a member can contribute to the formation of a new identity through the transformative effect of storytelling within its structure Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Intermediality and Storytelling Marina Grishakova, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010 The narrative turn in the humanities which expanded the study of narrative to various disciplines has found a correlate in the medial turn in narratology Long restricted to language based literary fiction narratology has found new life in the recognition that storytelling can take place in a variety of media and often combines signs belonging to different semiotic categories visual auditory linguistic and perhaps even tactile The essays gathered in this volume apply the newly gained awareness of the expressive power of media to particular texts demonstrating the productivity of a medium aware analysis Through the examination of a wide variety of different media ranging from widely studied such as literature and film to new neglected or non standard ones such as graphic novels photography television musicals computer games and advertising they address some of the most fundamental questions raised by the medial turn in narratology how can narrative meaning be created in media other than language how do different types of signs collaborate with each other in so called multi modal works and what new forms of narrativity are made possible by the emergence of digital media

Technology and Sustainability Peter Denton, 2014-11-14 Provocative passionate and populist RMB Manifestos are short and concise non fiction books of literary critical and cultural studies The developed world is increasingly obsessed with two things electronic gadgets and our changing climate We stand in open mouthed awe of our technological achievements while dejectedly shrugging our shoulders at the state of the planet on which we live Our choice is clear we need to reimagine the way we engage with the technology we create if we hope to make the world a better place Peter Denton's first RMB manifesto Gift Ecology Reimagining a Sustainable World focused on interpersonal relationships as the foundation for a vibrant and ecologically sustainable society In his second thought provoking book in the series the author challenges readers to think of our devices not merely as better rocks and sharper spears but as profound extensions of our hearts and minds that we can use to make the world a more livable place through enlightened social media interaction crowdfunding and other positive online engagements

Fractured Fables Brandielle Ryan, 2024-11-21 Unlock a world where stories come alive and unravel When David Finch spins the dial of a mysterious antique clock he is plunged from a dusty attic into the bustling marketplace of Agrabah He is not dreaming He is landed inside the Arabian Nights and nothing is as it should be The Chronarium the device responsible for David's unexpected journey is a portal to the Narratorium the realm of all stories His impulsive act has torn its fabric causing beloved fables to fracture Characters forget their lines plots twist into chaos and the very essence of fiction hangs in the balance Amelia Hayes a steely Guardian of the Narratorium is tasked with retrieving David and repairing the damage She finds him bewildered a fish out of water in a world he only thought he knew But as they navigate the shifting sands of Agrabah the melancholic moors of Wuthering Heights and the increasingly mad tea party in Wonderland Amelia discovers that David is more than a trespasser He is a reluctant hero and his dormant creativity holds the key to mending the fractured fables Their journey is a whirlwind of distorted tales and unexpected encounters A forgetful Genie a confused Heathcliff a Queen of Hearts whose pronouncements grow ever more absurd each encounter underscores the growing crisis As David confronts these unraveling narratives his writer's block begins to crumble replaced by a newfound purpose But a rogue Guardian lurks in the shadows a figure from Amelia's past who believes chaos is the key to true storytelling As David and Amelia's bond deepens amidst the unfolding chaos they must face not only the fracturing narratives but also the ghosts of Amelia's past Can they save the Narratorium or will the stories we cherish fade into oblivion Dive into Fractured Fables and discover a world where love and storytelling collide in a battle for the very soul of fiction

Ceilings and Dreams Paul Emmons, Federica Goffi, Jodi La Coe, 2019-07-08 Where is the space for dreaming in the twenty first century Lofty thoughts like dreams are born and live overhead just as they have been represented in Renaissance paintings and modern cartoons Ceilings are often repositories of stories events and otherwise invisible oneiric narratives Yet environments that inspire innovative thinking are dwindling as our world confronts enormous challenges and almost all of our thinking debating and decision making takes place under endless ceiling grids Quantitative research establishes that spaces with taller ceilings elicit broader more creative thoughts Today ceilings are usually squat conduits of technology they have become the blind spot of modern architecture The twenty essays in this book look across cultures places and ceilings over time to discover their potential to uplift the human spirit Not just one building element among many the ceiling is a key to unlock the architectural imagination Ceilings and Dreams aims to correct this blind spot and encourages architects and designers researchers and students to look up through writings organized into three expansive categories reveries suspensions and inversions The contributors contemplate the architecture of levity and the potential of the ceiling once again as a place for dreaming

Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim,2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics

Sandplay and Storytelling

Barbara A. Turner,Kristin Unnsteinsdottir,2012-12-31 Combining the fields of child psychology and child education this groundbreaking work explores how engaging children in Jungian sandplay therapy and imaginative storytelling can improve classroom performance and to increase intelligence scores Written by child specialists it makes a solid argument for the necessary consideration of the unconscious and the inner world of the individual child in learning and advocates that curriculum design for children must include both imaginative therapeutic play and active attention to children's emotional needs Educators psychotherapists and concerned parents alike will find this book informative and useful
