Becoming

Carole Lombard Olympia Kiriakou,2020-02-20 Becoming Carole Lombard Stardom Comedy and Legacy is a historical critique of the development and reception of Carole Lombard's stardom from the classical Hollywood period to present day. Based on original archival research, Olympia Kiriakou combines theoretically informed textual analyses of Lombard's performances and star image across different media: biographies, publicity materials, photography, and film, with a critical engagement of the cultural, economic, social, and industrial conditions that shaped her stardom. Sitting at the intersection of feminist film theory, star studies, and comedy theory, this work presents Lombard as a case study to challenge the screwball canon and existent academic discourse about female physical comedy and the alleged delicate female body. In doing so, it formulates a new historical approach to understanding gender, femininity, and identity in Hollywood comedies of the 1930s. Moreover, this is the first research of its kind to offer a comprehensive understanding of Lombard's stardom beyond her associations with the screwball comedy genre.

Maple Grove Daniel Scherschel,2006-11 This book was written while living in the Maple Grove neighborhood. It is about the people and work in the Maple Grove area north of Bloomington and some of the events on my dad's farm. Dad called it the Showers Hedgerow Farm because the farm was owned by the Showers furniture company and the many rows of large hedge trees. Osage Orange. The chapters Blanche and James are of my parents and some family history. They are also about the time our family moved from Lawrence County, Indiana, to our farm in the Maple Grove area. The farm was once owned by the Showers family, who cropped and sold hardwood from this and surrounding farms. The neighbor women cooked in the summer home, and the men worked in the fields and the woods before going home to their own farms. The Showers Company also had a factory in Bloomington which sold furniture world wide starting about 1869.
