Revolutionary Heroes, and Other Historical Papers James Parton, 1890 Mr Adams relates an amusing story of his sleeping one night with Doctor Franklin when they were on their way to hold their celebrated conference with Lord Howe on Staten Island. It was at Brunswick in New Jersey where the tavern was so crowded that two of the commissioners were put into one room which was little larger than the bed and which had no chimney and but one small window. The window was open when the two members went up to bed, which Mr Adams seeing and being afraid of the night air, shut it close. Revolutionary
