Revolutions Of The Mind Cultural Studies In The African Diaspora Project 1996:

Revolutions of the Mind Dionne Bennett, Valerie Smith, Marcyliena H. Morgan, 2003 Soul Power Cynthia A. Young, 2006-11-01 A cultural history of activists of color who appropriated theories and strategies from Third World anticolonial struggles in their fight for social and economic justice in the United States during the long 1960s Music and Identity in Ireland and Beyond Mark Fitzgerald, John O'Flynn, 2016-04-29 Music and Identity in Ireland and Beyond represents the first interdisciplinary volume of chapters on an intricate cultural field that can be experienced and interpreted in manifold ways whether in Ireland The Republic of Ireland and or Northern Ireland among its diaspora s or further afield While each contributor addresses particular themes viewed from discrete perspectives collectively the book contemplates whether music in Ireland can be regarded as one interrelated plane of cultural and or national identity given the various conceptions and contexts of both Ireland geographical political diasporic mythical and Music including a proliferation of practices and genres that give rise to multiple sites of identification Arranged in the relatively distinct yet interweaving parts of Historical Perspectives Recent and Contemporary Production and Cultural Explorations its various chapters act to juxtapose the socio historical distinctions between the major style categories most typically associated with music in Ireland traditional classical and popular and to explore a range of dialectical relationships between these musical styles in matters pertaining to national and cultural identity The book includes a number of chapters that examine various movements and moments of traditional music revival from the late eighteenth century to the present day as well as chapters that tease out various issues of national identity pertaining to individual composers performers art music popular music and their audiences Many chapters in the volume consider mediating influences infrastructural technological political and or social categories class gender religion ethnicity race age in the interpretation of music production and consumption Performers and composers discussed include U2 Raymond Deane Afro Celt Sound System E J Moeran S amus Ennis Kevin O Connell Stiff Little Fingers Frederick May Arnold American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Reading 'The L Word' Kim Akass, Janet McCabe, 2006-02-24 The L Word captured international attention when it first appeared on American screens in January 2004 The groundbreaking primetime drama from Showtime is about a group of lesbian and bisexual friends living and loving in Los Angeles and challenges traditional notions of relationships queer life styles gender identities race and ethnicity and sex and sexuality Reading the L Word is the first book about this television phenomenon With an introduction by Sarah Warn the founder of premier lesbian entertainment website AfterEllen com and a foreword by Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick the collection brings together leading academics feminist critics scholars and award winning journalists to discuss The L Word There is also a complete episode guide as well as a series of interviews with the actors Erin Daniels Katherine Moennig and the writer Guinevere Turner Analytical often humorous and sometimes provocative Reading the L Word uncovers what makes this show both so compelling and groundbreaking Bunche Review ,2001 Bunche Review Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies for UCLA, 2001 Afro-Atlantic Dialogues Kevin A. Yelvington, 2006 This book breaks new theoretical and methodological ground in the study of the African diaspora in the Atlantic world. Leading scholars of archaeology, linguistics, and socio-cultural anthropology draw upon extensive field experiences and archival investigations of black communities in North America, the Caribbean, South America, and Africa to challenge received paradigms in Afro-American anthropology. They employ dialogic approaches that demand both an awareness of the historical fashioning of anthropology's categories and self-reflexive critical research and define a new agenda for the field. Paying close attention to power, politics, and the dynamism of never-finished, open-ended behavioral forms and symbolic repertoires, the contributors address colonialism, the slave trade, racism, ethnogenesis, New World nationalism, urban identity, politics, the development of artworlds, music, and their publics, the emergence of new religious and ritual forms, speech genres, and contested historical representations. The authors offer sophisticated interpretations of cultural change, exchange, appropriation, and re-appropriation that challenge simplistic notions of culture.

Third Wave Feminism and Television Merri Lisa Johnson, 2007-02-23 Jane Puts It in a Box Cultural Studies Chris Barker, 2007-12-27 Chris Barker's best-selling Cultural Studies has established itself as the leading undergraduate introduction to Cultural Studies. It takes the student through all they need to know: the theoretical foundations and developments of Cultural Studies and the questions that occupy the field today, from the multiple meanings of culture itself to ideology, language, subjectivity, sex, space, race, media, the urban youth, and resistance. With its concise, accessible definitions, stimulating activities, checked key points, chapter summaries, and an expanded glossary, it is an indispensable tool for students and lecturers alike. This third edition is fully updated with a new chapter on electronic media and digital culture, major additions of material on the creative industries, culture jamming, new feminism, and raunch culture, and globalization. All new photographs presented with pedagogic activities, biographical snapshots of key figures in cultural studies. This book is now even more the best value one-stop shop for Cultural Studies. Chris Barker is Associate Professor of Media and Cultural Studies at the University of Wollongong and author of The SAGE Dictionary of Cultural Studies.
