Revue Internationale De Philosophie Ferd:

Revue internationale de philosophie ,1987 Dialogue and Deconstruction Diane P. Michelfelder, Richard E.

Palmer, 1989-07-03 Before the encounter in 1981 between Hans Georg Gadamer and Jacques Derrida there had been virtually no confrontation or dialogue between hermeneutics in Germany and post structuralism in France nor has there been since then Part I of this book makes available for the first time in English the complete texts of the encounter at the Goethe Institute in Paris This exchange raised such issues as Gadamer's relation to psychoanalytic interpretation the questionability of texts Heidegger's reading of Nietzsche and the dialogical aspect of language Part II offers further reflections by Gadamer on the encounter itself and its relation of hermeneutics to deconstruction Among the issues covered are Derrida's interpretation of Destruktion in Heidegger Derrida's attack on logocentrism in Heidegger's interpretation of Nietzsche and the relation of Heidegger hermeneutics and deconstruction to dialectic Part III offers commentaries on the encounter from a variety of perspectives The authors assess the original encounter as well as Gadamer's subsequent reflections on it

Aristotle's 'Politics' Judith A. Swanson, C. David Corbin, 2009-07-21 An accessible introduction to Aristotle's Politics a classic of political theory widely considered to be the founding text of Western political science Music as Theology

Maeve Louise Heaney, 2012-09-01 The conversation between music and theology dormant for too long in recent years is at last gathering pace And rightly so There will always be theologians who will regard music as a somewhat peripheral concern too trivial to trouble the serious scholar and in any case almost impossible to engage because of its notorious resistance to words and concepts But an increasing number are discovering again what many of our forbears realized centuries ago that the kinship between this pervasive feature of human life and the search for a Christian intelligence of faith is intimate and ineradicable Maeve Heaney's ambitious wide ranging and energetic book pushes the conversation further forward still Her approach is unapologetically theological grounded in the passions and concerns of mainstream doctrinal theology And yet she is insisting that music must be given its due place in the ecology of theology Although convinced that music should not be set up as a rival to linguistic or conceptual articulation let alone swallow up traditional modes of theological language and thought she is equally convinced that music is an irreducible means of coming to terms with the world a unique vehicle of world disclosure and as such can generate a particular form of understanding there are things which God may only be saying through music If this is so it is incumbent on the theologian to listen Jeremy Begbie from the Foreword Political Responsibility for a Globalised World Ernst Wolff,2014-04-15 The aim of this book is to reflect on the complex practice of responsibility within the context of a globalised world and contemporary means of action Levinas exploration of the ethical serves as point of entry and is shown to be seeking inter cultural political relevance through engagement with the issues of postcoloniality and humanism Yet Levinas fails to realise the ethical implications of the inevitable instrumental mediation between ethical meaning and political practice With recourse to Weber Apel and Ricoeur Ernst Wolff proposes a theory of strategic co responsibility for the uncertain global context of practice The Reality of the Mind Ludger Hölscher,2013-05-02 Among the various approaches to the question of the nature of the mind or soul Augustine s philosophical arguments for the existence of an incorporeal and spiritual substance in man and against materialism are here thoroughly examined on their merits as a source of insight for contemporary discussion This book originally published in 1986 employs Augustine s method of introspection and argues that as a philosopher Augustine can teach the modern mind how to detect the reality of such a spiritual subject in and through basic human acts and faculties such as imagination memory knowledge free will and self knowledge It presents a critical dialogue with various materialistic anthropologies directly addressed by Augustine himself or those which have arisen at later periods including epiphenomenalism mind brain identity theory Marxism and others A transformational analysis of Turkish syntax Robert H. Meskill,2017-12-04 No detailed description available for A transformational analysis of Turkish syntax A typology of questions in Northeast Asia and beyond Andreas Hölzl,2018-08-29 This study investigates the distribution of linguistic and specifically structural diversity in Northeast Asia NEA defined as the region north of the Yellow River and east of the Yenisei In particular it analyzes what is called the grammar of questions GQ i e those aspects of any given language that are specialized for asking questions or regularly combine with these The bulk of the study is a bottom up description and comparison of GQs in the languages of NEA The addition of the phrase and beyond to the title of this study serves two purposes First languages such as Turkish and Chuvash are included despite the fact that they are spoken outside of NEA since they have ties to or even originated in the region Second despite its focus on one area the typology is intended to be applicable to other languages as well Therefore it makes extensive use of data from languages outside of NEA The restriction to one category is necessary for reasons of space and clarity and the process of zooming in on one region allows a higher resolution and historical accuracy than is usually the case in linguistic typology The discussion mentions over 450 languages and dialects from NEA and beyond and gives about 900 glossed examples The aim is to achieve both a cross linguistically plausible typology and a maximal resolution of the linguistic diversity of Northeast Asia
