Reward And Punishment Love And Grace:

Reward and Punishment-Love and Grace David Cox,1986-01-01 Redeeming the Gospel David A. Brondos, For many people today the Christian gospel as traditionally articulated has become irrelevant and meaningless making it necessary to rethink our understanding of the gospel Redeeming the Gospel examines the central themes traditionally associated with Lutheran theology including especially law and gospel the work of Christ and the doctrine of justification by grace through faith in order to deconstruct and reconstruct our understanding of the gospel so that it may be proclaimed in a way that responds to the needs and concerns of our world today A Future Judgement-rewards and punishments eternal. The substance of a sermon preached October 26, 1800 ... With several notes explanatory, etc John DEVOTION,1801

A Companion to Marsilius of Padua Gerson Moreno-Riano,Cary Nederman,2011-10-14 Containing the latest scholarship by an international group of scholars this book provides an essential guide both to the life and works of Marsilius of Padua as well as to the leading interpretive debates surrounding one of the greatest thinkers of the Latin Middle Ages Homiletics Johann Michael Reu,1924 Amor Dei John Burnaby,2007-07-01 Amor Dei A Study of the Religion of St Augustine was first published as the Hulsean Lectures for 1938 when John Burnaby was a classics Fellow of Trinity College Cambridge Love in Children and Its Aberrations Oskar Pfister,1924 Love of a God of Love Hugo Strandberg,2011-09-15 Traditionally religious belief has in the philosophy of religion been understood along more or less epistemological lines Love of a God of Love develops another understanding of belief where the moral concept of love is central In this context what is distinctive about the concept of love is that it is both the what and the how of belief for the one who loves a God of love the concept of love characterizes both the content side and the act side of the belief In that respect this understanding of religious belief makes it possible to avoid certain formalist difficulties arising when the what and the how of belief are sharply distinguished

The Judgment of Love James M Matarazzo,2018-10-19 This book seeks to explore the concept of divine judgment in Christian eschatology It contends that this judgment is salvific rather than destructive This notion can be described aphoristically as iudicandus est salvandus to be judged is to be saved The provocation to Christian eschatology is that human beings are not saved from judgment but are saved within it The exploration begins defining the context and moves into a review of the symbols and problems of judgment through a reappraisal of De novissimis concerning the last things the last section found in traditional works of Christian dogmatics This is followed by a critical engagement with the soteriological optimism posited by four twentieth and twenty first century theologians Sergei Bulgakov Hans Urs von Balthasar J A T Robinson and Marilyn McCord Adams The event of the judgment is then defined as the event of absolute recognition that it is within the eschatic recognition of God the self and the other that transformation and glorification of human persons occur in a way that avoids a dual outcome of salvation and damnation The book concludes by proposing that we may approach divine judgment with faith hope and love not only for ourselves but for the human race as a whole Judaism Is About Love Shai

Held, 2024-03-26 A profound startling new understanding of Jewish life illuminating the forgotten heart of Jewish theology and practice love A dramatic misinterpretation of the Jewish tradition has shaped the history of the West Christianity is the religion of love and Judaism the religion of law In the face of centuries of this widespread misrepresentation Rabbi Shai Held one of the most important Jewish thinkers in America today recovers the heart of the Jewish tradition offering the radical and moving argument that love belongs as much to Judaism as it does to Christianity Blending intellectual rigor a respect for tradition and the practices of a living Judaism and a commitment to the full equality of all people Held seeks to reclaim Judaism as it authentically is He shows that love is foundational and constitutive of true Jewish faith animating the singular Jewish perspective on injustice and protest grace family life responsibilities to our neighbors and even our enemies and chosenness Ambitious and revelatory Judaism Is About Love illuminates the true essence of Judaism an act of restoration from within
