Rhetorical Image Milena Kalinovska, 1990 Images That Injure Paul Martin Lester, 2011-04-19 This expanded collection of new and fully revised explorations of media content identifies the ways we all have been negatively stereotyped and demonstrates how careful analysis of media portrayals can create more beneficial alternatives Not all damaging stereotypes are obvious In fact the pictorial stereotypes in the media that we don't notice could be the most harmful because we aren't even aware of the negative false ideas they perpetrate This book presents a series of original research essays on media images of groups including African Americans Latinos women the elderly the physically disabled gays and lesbians and Jewish Americans just to mention a few Specific examples of these images are derived from a variety of sources such as advertising fine art film television shows cartoons the Internet and other media providing a wealth of material for students and professionals in almost any field Images That Injure Pictorial Stereotypes in the Media Third Edition not only accurately describes and analyzes the media's harmful depictions of cultural groups but also offers creative ideas on alternative representations of these individuals These discussions illuminate how each of us is responsible for contributing to a sea of meaning within our mass culture Visual Rhetoric Lester C. Olson, Cara A. Finnegan, Diane S. Hope, 2008-03-20 Visual Rhetoric A Reader in Communication and American Culture is the first collection of its kind essays rich in concepts from the diverse history of rhetoric are featured in their relationship to visual experiences in one or another medium or various media Images are symbols with meaning how these images are seen and the messages they communicate are the study of visual rhetoric Today's society is increasingly inundated with visual images symbols and messages The seminal essays in this collection reveal the workings the research and the effects of how what we see establishes and influences our perceptions our actions and our communication Modern Rhetoric in Culture, Arts, and Media Joachim Knape, 2012-12-19 The goal of this book is to formulate a modern theoretical approach for rhetorical studies in a variety of disciplines in the humanities media research and other cultural studies The discipline of rhetoric originally concerned itself with linguistic forms of communication and its basic theory was developed with such cases in mind With respect to this ancient tradition there are numerous books that provide a historical overview of the field There is also a wide array of introductory works and research contributions that deal with the practice of political rhetoric On the other hand only a few 20th century academics have attempted to theoretically rehabilitate rhetoric after its decline as an academic discipline in Europe in the 18th and 19th centuries and to give rhetorical theory a modern new and further reaching perspective Two notable examples have been Kenneth Burke and Brian Vickers The book begins with the assumption that rhetoric is not merely limited to linguistic action but rather is present everywhere in the communicative world Against this background this work develops a modern theory of rhetoric and demonstrates in twelve chapters how methodical rhetorical analysis can be done in selected practical fields of application Literature Music Images and Film Decoding Abortion Rhetoric Celeste Michelle Condit, 1990 Condit

provides a close look at how pro life and pro choice arguments have helped shape the development of public policy and private practice She offers readers an orderly way through the barrage of rhetoric and an opportunity to identify and clarify our own opinions on a very difficult subject

DiFuria, Walter Melion, 2021-12-20 In epideictic oratory ekphrasis is typically identified as an advanced rhetorical exercise that verbally reproduces the experience of viewing a person place or thing more specifically it often purports to replicate the experience of viewing a work of art Not only what was seen but also how it was beheld and the emotions attendant upon first viewing it are implicitly construed as recoverable indeed reproducible This volume examines how and why many early modern pictures operate in an ekphrastic mode such pictures claim to reconstitute works of art that solely survived in the textual form of an ekphrasis or they invite the beholder to respond to a picture in the way s he responds to a stirring verbal image or they call attention to their status as an image in the way that ekphrasis as a rhetorical figure makes one conscious of the process of image making or finally they foreground the artist s or the viewer s agency in the way that the rhetor or auditor is adduced as agent of the image being verbally produced Contributors Carol Elaine Barbour Ivana Bi ak Letha Ch ien James Clifton Teresa Clifton Karl Enenkel Arthur DiFuria Christopher Heuer Barbara Kaminska Annie Maloney Annie McEwen Walter Melion Lars Cyril N rgaard Dawn Odell April Oettinger Shelley Perlove Stephanie Porras Femke Speelberg Caecilie Weissert Elliott Wise and Steffen Zierholz
