Richard Danielpour toward The Splendid City:

Toward the splendid city Richard Danielpour, 2004 Full Score This 1992 composition is the composer's personal portrait of New York City. It was premiered by the New York Philharmonic with Leonard Slatkin conducting on January 4, 1996. The title is drawn from poet Pablo Neruda's 1974 Nobel Prize address. The piece was recorded on the Sony label by The Philharmonia Orchestra Zdenek Macal conducting. Orchestral "Pops" Music Lucy Manning, 2013-10-10 In this second edition of Orchestral Pops Music A Handbook Lucy Manning brings forward to the present her remarkable compendium of information about this form of orchestral music. Since the appearance of the first edition in 2008, this work has proven critical to successful pops concert programming. With changes in publishers and agents, the discontinuation of the publication of certain original material, or worst of all, presses going out of business, music directors, orchestra conductors, and professional instrumentalists face formidable challenges in tracking down accurate information about this vast repertoire. This revised handbook alleviates the time-consuming task of researching these changes by offering a list of works for orchestral pops concerts that is comprehensive, informative, and current. Manning's emphasis on clarity and accuracy gives users an indispensable tool for gathering vital information on the style, instrumentation, and availability of the repertoire listed, as well as notes on its performance. The user-friendly appendices include expanded instrumentation choices, easy-to-find durations, and handy title cross-references. In addition to corrections and updates, this new edition of Orchestral Pops Music includes at least 1,000 new title listings. Orchestral Pops Music A Handbook is the ideal tool for working conductors and orchestral librarians, as well as music program directors at colleges, conservatories, and orchestras. The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell, White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1999 Maestros in America Roderick L. Sharpe, Jeanne Koekkoek Stierman, 2008-05-30 Maestros in America Conductors in the 21st Century provides short biographical and critical essays of over 100 American conductors and conductors in America in the twenty-first century. Roderick L. Sharpe and Jeanne Koekkoek Stierman made their selections based on three categories of persons: American-born, naturalized US citizens, and foreign conductors holding a permanent appointment in the US. In addition, all individuals included had to have been active as conductors at the start of the new millennium. These criteria allowed the authors to incorporate up-and-comers as well as those more established, offering an extensive cross-section of the upper echelons of the conducting profession, focused on the present, recent past, and future. Each entry is a biographical essay containing essential facts of the conductor's life and work, as well as assessment and commentary gleaned from articles, interviews, reviews, and in some cases, personal observation. The entries conclude with the conductor's website, a list of further reading, and selected recordings. These sketches of currently or recently practicing conductors provide insight into the state of orchestral music making in the US as it has been and may become, highlighting the efforts these conductors made to ensure its survival. Complete with two appendixes and an index, this important reference will be beneficial to music students.
