Richard Lindner Paintings And Watercolors 19481977:

Richard Lindner Judith Zilczer, Peter Selz, 1996 Richard Lindner 1901 1978 a German born refugee from Nazi oppression who settled in New York created a bold and deeply disturbing body of work completely at odds with that city's vanguard of the 1950s A former commercial artist Lindner drew on personal memory and his emigre cultural heritage to fashion images of a bizarre and lurid humanity Grotesque children automaton couples and denizens of the urban underworld populate his canvases While his bold precision tooled figurative paintings found an appreciative audience in the 1960s with the advent of Pop Art Lindner nonetheless remained a resolutely independent artist whose paintings speak to the alienation and moral crises of this century and evoke the absurdity of the human condition Richard Lindner Paintings and Watercolors 1948 1977 includes 73 oil paintings and watercolors in full color some of which have never before been exhibited or published The book is based on the first exhibition of Lindner's work in a generation organized by the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden which reexamines Lindner's life and traces the unfolding thematic content of his art from the late 1940s until his death in 1978 Essays are by organizing curator Judith Zilczer Curator of Paintings at the Hirshhorn Museum and Peter Selz Professor Emeritus of the University of California Berkeley Dr Zilczer explores the biographical and cultural sources for Lindner's figurative symbolism while Professor Selz analyzes Lindner's controversial images of women The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1998: Justification of the budget estimates, Indian Health Service United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1997 Engaging Smithsonian Objects through Science, History, and the Arts Mary Jo Arnoldi, 2016-01-05 How do we come to know the world around us What about worlds apart from our own outer space distant cultures or even long past eras of history Engaging Smithsonian Objects through Science History and the Arts explores these questions and suggests an answer we come to know our world and worlds apart through the objects that represent them Objects are a window and by looking through them we can learn and understand more about the people who made them and the time and place they came from In the pursuit of this understanding museums are invaluable they are repositories not just of things but also of past present and future knowledge Engaging Smithsonian Objects puts these ideas into practice using objects to bring us to new knowledge and showing how museums support us in the endeavor The book is organized around ten objects from the Smithsonian's vast collections Some of the objects are iconic the Ruby Slippers from the The Wizard of Oz or three Stradivarius string instruments while others are more ordinary though no less interesting an Iron Lung or a Hawaiian gourd drum Two different authors with expertise in different academic disciplines write about each object from their unique professional and personal perspective Both the authors and the ten featured objects represent a range of academic disciplines from art to anthropology to geology Taken together the twenty essays in the book demonstrate just how much we can learn from objects by considering their kaleidoscopic meaning and significance from a variety of viewpoints The book s interdisciplinary engagement with objects was inspired by the Smithsonian Material Culture Forum now in its twenty sixth year For students of material culture and museum studies this book illustrates the vitality and value of exploring material culture through the lens of intersecting disciplinary perspectives For students of curiosity and lifelong learning this book offers a lively and thoughtful look into the Smithsonian s collection and the many vibrant worlds it represents Richly illustrated with color plates and photographs throughout Engaging Smithsonian Objects through Science History and the Arts is a beautiful and stimulating answer to the question How do we know our world and how can we know more The New Criterion ,1996
