Richard Leiterman Alison Reid, P. M. Evanchuck, 1978 The New Documentary in Action Alan Rosenthal, 1972
Interview with film makers Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film Wyndham Wise, 2001-12-15
Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film is the most exhaustive and up to date reference book on Canadian film and filmmakers combining 700 reviews and biographical listings with a detailed chronology of major events in Canadian film and television history. Compiled by Wyndham Wise the editor and publisher of Take One Canada's most respected film magazine with a foreword by Canadian director Patricia Rozema this is the only reference book of its kind published in English. Each film title is listed with credits, a mini review and significant awards. Biographical listings of directors, producers, actors, writers, animators, cinematographers, distributors, exhibitors and independent filmmakers are accompanied by date and place of birth, date of death if applicable, a brief career overview and a filmography. Wise celebrates Canadian achievement on both a national and an international scale and juxtaposes the distinctly Canadian with Canada's exports to Hollywood: Maury Chaykin and Jim Carrey, John Candy and William Shatner, Mon Oncle Antoine and Porky's Highway 61 and Meatballs. The Red Violin and The Art of War. From great early Hollywood stars like Walter Huston, Fay Wray, Mary Pickford, Norma Shearer and Marie Dressler to our current crop of star directors including Patricia Rozema, Atom Egoyan, David Cronenberg, Denys Arcand, Peter Mettler, Guy Maddin and Robert Lepage, Canadians have made an important but largely unrecorded contribution to the history of world cinema. Impressive for its breadth of coverage, refreshing in its opinionated informality, this comprehensive and lively look at Canadian film culture at the start of the twenty first century admirably fills the gap. Canadian Film and Video Loren R. Lerner, 1997-01-01
This extensive bibliography and reference guide is an invaluable resource for researchers, practitioners, students and anyone with an interest in Canadian film and video. With over 24,500 entries of which 10,500 are annotated, it opens up the literature devoted to Canadian film and video at last, making it readily accessible to scholars and researchers. Drawing on both English and French sources, it identifies books, catalogues, government reports, theses and periodical and newspaper articles from Canadian and non-Canadian publications from the first decade of the twentieth century to 1989. The work is bilingual; descriptive annotations are presented in the language(s) of the original publication. Canadian Film and Video: Film et vidéo canadiens provides an in-depth guide to the work of over 4000 individuals working in film and video and 5000 films and videos. The entries in Volume I cover topics such as film types, the role of government, laws and legislation, censorship, festivals and awards, production and distribution companies, education, cinema buildings, women and film and video art. A major section covers filmmakers, video artists, cinematographers, actors, producers and various other film people. Volume II presents an author index, a film and video title index and a name and subject index. In the tradition of the highly acclaimed publication Art and Architecture in Canada, these volumes fill a long standing need for a comprehensive reference tool for Canadian film and video. This bibliography guides and supports the work of film historians and practitioners.
