Richard Pousette Dart Paperback:

Richard Pousette-Dart Richard Pousette-Dart, 2005 This groundbreaking volume on Richard Pousette Dart is the most comprehensive publication on his painting to be published since the artist's death. It provides fresh insights into his oeuvre by five outstanding contemporary art historians who have interpreted the artist's creative output from the 1930s to 1992. Richard Pousette Dart, one of the founding members of the New York School, created paintings, drawings, sculptures, and journals for over sixty years. The youngest member of the first generation of American Abstract Expressionists, Pousette Dart shared with his fellow artists interests in psychology, myth making, anthropology, and both African and American tribal art. Along with Pollock, Rothko, de Kooning, Motherwell, and others, Pousette Dart created the art movement known as The New York School. This book presents the evolution of Richard Pousette Dart's styles and philosophy and provides an in-depth look at his ever-evolving painting techniques. The essays focus on his major themes and periods and include his contributions to the complexity of the intellectual and stylistic language of the Abstract Expressionist movement. Richard Pousette-Dart Richard Pousette-Dart, James K. The son of Nathaniel Pousette, a painter, art director, educator, and art writer, and Flora Louise Dart, a poet and musician, Pousette Dart was raised in an environment surrounded by music, poetry, and the visual arts and began drawing and painting by the age of eight. Introduced to African, Oceanic, and Native American art by his father, Pousette Dart made frequent visits to the Museum of Natural History as a young man. In 1938, he forged a close friendship with John Graham, whose writings were closely aligned with his own interests in spiritual concerns and so-called primitive art. Throughout the 1930s, Pousette Dart was most entranced by the work of Henri Gaudier-Brzeska, whose abstract sculptures, drawings, and forms in brass greatly informed the orientation of the young American artist. Published to accompany an exhibition at The Drawing Center, this volume is the first in-depth consideration of Richard Pousette Dart's drawings from the 1930s a period when the artist pursued directly carved sculpture yet also painted experimented with photography and created numerous works on paper These early drawings explore Pousette Dart's concerns about sculpture and working three dimensionally and many reference the figure through full frontal or profile views as they consider space orientation and volume Additionally numerous studies allude to dance animal forms masks and heads and many examples offer an accumulation of abstract and geometric forms particularly for his brasses small sculptures meant to be held in the hand The exhibition includes approximately 80 works from the 1930s including drawings notebooks and brasses Absence/Presence Charles H.
