Say What I Am Called Dieter Bitterli, 2009-05-09 Perhaps the most enigmatic cultural artifacts that survive from the Anglo Saxon period are the Old English riddle poems that were preserved in the tenth century Exeter Book manuscript Clever challenging and notoriously obscure the riddles have fascinated readers for centuries and provided crucial insight into the period In Say What I Am Called Dieter Bitterli takes a fresh look at the riddles by examining them in the context of earlier Anglo Latin riddles Bitterli argues that there is a vigorous common tradition between Anglo Latin and Old English riddles and details how the contents of the Exeter Book emulate and reassess their Latin predecessors while also expanding their literary and formal conventions The book also considers the ways in which convention and content relate to writing in a vernacular language A rich and illuminating work that is as intriguing as the riddles themselves Say What I Am Called is a rewarding study of some of the most interesting works from the Anglo Saxon period

Questioning God John D. Caputo, Mark Dooley, Michael J. Scanlon, 2001-09-01 Jacques Derrida and other scholars explore postmodern thinking about God and consider the nature of forgiveness in relation to the paradoxes of the gift In fifteen insightful essays Jacques Derrida and an international group of scholars explore the implications of deconstruction for religion focusing on two topics God and forgiveness Among the themes addressed by contributors are the possibilities of imagining God as unthinkable imagining God as nonpatriarchal imagining a return to Augustine and imagining an age in which praise is far more important than narrative Questioning God moves readers beyond the parameters of metaphysical reason and modernist rationality as it attempts to think the questions of God and forgiveness in a postmodernist context Contributors include John D Caputo Jacques Derrida Mark Dooley Francis Sch ssler Fiorenza Robert Gibbs Jean Greisch Kevin Hart Richard Kearney Cleo McNelly Kearns John Milbank Regina M Schwartz Michael J Scanlon and Graham Ward What sets this work apart from the majority of other publications on the subject of postmodern theology and prevents it from descending into a sanctimonious hagiography of Derrida's genius is the presence among the contributors of Graham Ward and John Milbank two of the founding members of the movement known as radical orthodoxy This present work is the first to document supporters of radical orthodoxy critically engaging with proponents of Derridean deconstruction Perspectives

THE RAPTURE WILL BE CANCELED Nicklas Arthur, 2014-07-28 Exposing the Left Behind Rapture Deception Some may even regard as conspiratorial the mainstream re release of the Left Behind Movie with Actor Nicholas Cage portraying the main character as an attempt to further reinforce in the minds of all this perception of biblical prophecy in order to condition the masses for the play about to begin Because they see the world stage shaping to fulfill what they have been led to believe is sound Bible interpretation a Left Behind Rapture scenario this false view of prophecy is reinforced in the mind not only of its adherents but also includes those who have been merely exposed to the specific media through Popular movies such as Left Behind It seems that this great prophetic delusion has already overcome practically the entire American Evangelical and Christian World
