Ride On The Political Merrygoround:

No Middle Ground Seth Masket, 2011-01-25 This is a fascinating book It is one of the best studies of the ways that parties and politics get conducted in any American state Masket shows that legislators can be perfectly content without parties that control agendas and does a terrific job of explaining the transition from free wheeling legislators to rigidly partisan voting blocs Sam Popkin University of California at San Diego No Middle Ground makes a significant contribution to the study of American parties and legislative politics Matthew Green Catholic University of America Despite concerns about the debilitating effects of partisanship on democratic government in recent years political parties have gained strength in state governments as well as in Washington In many cases these parties function as machines Unlike machines of the past that manipulated votes however today's machines determine which candidates can credibly compete in a primary Focusing on the history and politics of California Seth E Masket reveals how these machines evolved and how they stay in power by directing money endorsements and expertise to favored candidates who often tend toward the ideological extreme In a provocative conclusion Masket argues that politicians are not inherently partisan Instead partisanship is thrust upon them by actors outside the government with the power to manipulate primary elections The Collected Works of Langston Hughes: Essays on art, race, politics, and world affairs Langston Hughes, Dolan Hubbard, Leslie Catherine Sanders, 2001 The sixteen volumes are published with the goal that Hughes pursued throughout his lifetime making his books available to the people Each volume will include a biographical and literary chronology by Arnold Rampersad as well as an introduction by a Hughes scholar lume introductions will provide contextual and historical information on the particular work Gendered Politics Linda Van Ingen, 2017-02-07 This book explores women's campaign strategies when they ran for state and national office in California from their first opportunity after state suffrage in 1911 to the advent of modern feminism in 1970 Although only 18 won nearly 500 women ran on the primary ballots changing the political landscape for both men and women while struggling against a collective forgetfulness about their work Mostly white and middle class until the 1960s the women discussed in this book are notable for their campaign innovations which became increasingly complex even if not consciously connected to a usable past They re gendered politics as political firsts pursued high hopes for organizational support from their women's clubs accommodated to opportunities created through incumbency and issue politics and explored both separatist and integrationists politics with their parties In bringing these campaigns to light this study explores the history of California women legislators and the ways in which women on the ballots sought to transcend gendered barriers supporting women's equality while also recognizing the political value of connections to men in power Organized in a loose chronology with the state's governors this study shows the persistent nature of women's candidacies despite a recurring historical amnesia that complicated their progress Remembering this history deepens our understanding of women running for office today and solidifies their credibility in a long history of women politicians Another Sunday In Horton Bay volume two GT

Long, 2017-11-23 Most every Sunday Jesus continues to stop by Horton Bay to converse with GT Long sharing his take on spirituality religion politics and wild turkeys Deviating drastically from common Christian teachings these conversations shed new light on old accepted dogma The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art and Literature, 1909 The Politics of Contemporary Art Biennials Panos Kompatsiaris, 2017-03-31 Contemporary art biennials are sites of prestige innovation and experimentation where the category of art is meant to be in perpetual motion rearranged and redefined opening itself to the world and its contradictions They are sites of a seemingly peaceful cohabitation between the elitist and the popular where the likes of Jeff Koons encounter the likes of Guy Debord where Angela Davis and Frantz Fanon share the same ground with neoliberal cultural policy makers and creative entrepreneurs Building on the legacy of events that conjoin art critical theory and counterculture from Nova Convention to documenta X the new biennial blends the modalities of protest with a neoliberal politics of creativity This book examines a strained period for these high art institutions a period when their politics are brought into question and often boycotted in the context of austerity crisis and the rise of Occupy cultures Using the 3rd Athens Biennale and the 7th Berlin Biennale as its main case studies it looks at how the in built tensions between the domains of art and politics take shape when spectacular displays attempt to operate as immediate activist sites Drawing on ethnographic research and contemporary cultural theory this book argues that biennials both denunciate the aesthetic as bourgeois category and simultaneously replicate and diffuse an exclusive sociability across social landscapes I Told You So Kate Clinton, 2009 I Told You So is a hilarious bittersweet politically acute survival guide in which Clinton gleefully details personal coping techniques tested over a lifetime The Politics of Popular Representation Kenneth MacKinnon, 1992 These together with the emphasis on individual responsibility for health and material security not to mention resurgent machismo and a restored belief in the natural and unnatural help to explain the health disaster experienced in the United States United Kingdom and elsewhere A review of English language cinematic entertainment of the eighties reveals that the health crisis was scarcely alluded to although such values as those of militarism masculinity and family loyalty were addressed whether supportively or critically It is the argument of this book that the HIV virus and AIDS are approached if at all only obliquely particularly within the genre of the horror film and especially through those films dealing with corporeality or with lethal challenges to the traditional nuclear family Community Politics and the Peace Process in Contemporary Northern Irish Drama Eva Urban, 2011 This book examines theatre within the context of the Northern Ireland conflict and peace process with reference to a wide variety of plays theatre productions and community engagements within and across communities The author clarifies both the nature of the social and political vision of a number of major contemporary Northern Irish dramatists and the manner in which this vision is embodied in text and in performance The book identifies and celebrates a tradition of playwrights and drama practitioners who to this day challenge and question all Northern Irish ideologies and propose alternative paths The author's analysis of a selection of Northern Irish plays written and produced over the course of the last thirty years or so illustrates the great variety of approaches to ideology in Northern Irish drama while revealing a common approach to staging the conflict and the peace process with a distinct emphasis on utopian performatives and the possibility of positive change Box Office ,1934
