Sentimental Modernism Women Writers And The Revolution Of The World:

Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement Jody Cardinal, Deirdre E. Egan-Ryan, Julia Lisella, 2019-03-15 Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement explores the role of social and political engagement by women writers in the development of American modernism Examining a diverse array of genres by both canonical modernists and underrepresented writers this collection uncovers an obscured strain of modernist activism Each chapter provides a detailed cultural and literary analysis revealing the ways in which modernists politically and socially engaged interventions shaped their writing Considering issues such as working class women's advocacy educational reform political radicalism and the global implications for American literary production this book examines the complexity of the relationship between creating art and fostering social change Ultimately this collection redefines the parameters of modernism while also broadening the conception of social engagement to include both readily acknowledged social movements as well as less recognizable forms of advocacy for social change

Modernist Women Writers and War Julie Goodspeed-Chadwick, 2011-01-01 In Modernist Women Writers and War Julie Goodspeed Chadwick examines important avant garde writings by three American women authors and shows that during World Wars I and II a new kind of war literature emerged one in which feminist investigation of war and trauma effectively counters the paradigmatic war experience long narrated by men In the past Goodspeed Chadwick explains scholars have not considered writings by women as part of war literature They have limited war writing to works by men such as William Butler Yeats's poem An Irish Airman Foresees His Death 1919 which relies on a male perspective a pilot contemplates his forthcoming flight his duty to his country and his life in combat But works by Djuna Barnes H D and Gertrude Stein set in wartime reveal experiences and views of war markedly different from those of male writers They write women and their bodies into their texts thus creating space for female war writing insisting on female presence in wartime and perhaps most significantly critiquing war and patriarchal politics often in devastating fashion Goodspeed Chadwick begins with Barnes who in her surrealist novel Nightwood 1936 emphasizes the actual perversity of war by placing it in contrast to the purported perverse and deviant behavior of her main characters In her epic poem Trilogy 1944 1946 H D validates female suffering and projects a feminist spiritual worldview that fosters healing from the ravages of war Stein for her part in her experimental novel Mrs Reynolds 1952 and her long love poem Lifting Belly 1953 captures her experience of the everyday reality of war on the home front within the domestic economy of her household In these works the female body stands as the primary textual marker or symbol of female identity an insistence on women's presence in both the text and in the world outside the book The strategies employed by Barnes H D and Stein in these texts serve to produce a new kind of writing Goodspeed Chadwick reveals one that ineluctably constructs a female identity within and authorship of the war narrative

expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US Cuba Spain the Balkans China Japan India Vietnam and Nigeria

Sentimental Modernism Suzanne Clark, 1991 Modern Sentimentalism Lisa Mendelman, 2019-12-17 Modern Sentimentalism examines how American female novelists reinvented sentimentalism in the modernist period Just as the birth of the modern woman has long been imagined as the death of sentimental feeling modernist literary innovation has been understood to reject sentimental aesthetics Modern Sentimentalism reframes these perceptions of cultural evolution Taking up icons such as the New Woman the flapper the free lover the New Negro woman and the divorcee this book argues that these figures embody aspects of a traditional sentimentality while also recognizing sentiment as incompatible with ideals of modern selfhood These double binds equally beleaguer the protagonists and shape the styles of writers like Willa Cather Edith Wharton Anita Loos and Jessie Fauset Modern sentimentalism thus translates nineteenth century conventions of sincerity and emotional fulfillment into the skeptical self-conscious modes of interwar cultural production Reading canonical and under examined novels in concert with legal briefs scientific treatises and other transatlantic period discourse and combining traditional and quantitative methods of archival research Modern Sentimentalism demonstrates that feminine feeling far from being peripheral to twentieth century modernism animates its central principles and preoccupations An Ethic of Innocence Kristen L. Renzi, 2019-09-01 Offers a feminist theory of ignorance that sheds light on the misunderstood or overlooked epistemic practices of women in literature An Ethic of Innocence examines representations of women in American and British fin de siècle and modern literature who seem not to know things These naïve fools Pollyannaish dupes obedient traditionalists or regressive anti feminists have been dismissed by critics as conservative backward and out of sync with even threatening to modern feminist goals Grounded in the late nineteenth century's changing political and generic representations of women this book provides a novel interpretative framework for reconsidering the epistemic claims of these women Kristen L. Renzi analyzes characters from works by Henry James Frank Norris Ann Petry Rebecca West Edith Wharton Virginia Woolf and others to argue that these feminine figures who choose not to know actually represent and model crucial pragmatic strategies by which modern and contemporary subjects navigate survive and even oppose gender oppression An Ethic of Innocence recalibrates the critical landscape revealing blind spots in contemporary models for thinking about knowledge and agency within a feminine context The author builds a persuasive case from powerful close readings of texts which invite readers to question their assumptions I cannot now imagine the field of feminist modernist studies without the interventions of this project Barbara Green author of Feminist Periodicals and Daily Life Women and Modernity in British Culture This is a fascinating and very interesting intervention about the construction of knowledge innocence within the field of literary studies Anyone teaching or studying this period will find it of great use Stephanie A. The Sentimental Mode Jennifer A. Williamson, Jennifer Larson, Ashley Reed, 2014-02-28 This collection of new essay examines how authors of the 20th and 21st centuries continue the use of sentimental forms and tropes of 19th century literature Current literary and cultural critical consensus seems to maintain that Americans engaged in a turn of the century refutation of the sentimental mode an analysis of 20th and 21st century narratives however reveals an ongoing use of sentimental expression that draws upon its ability to instruct and influence readers through their emotions While these later narratives employ aspects of the sentimental mode many of them also engage in a critique of the failures of
