Margaret

Laurence and Jack McClelland, Letters Laura K. Davis, Linda M. Morra, 2018-05-18 Margaret Laurence and Jack McClelland one of Canada's most beloved writers and one of Canada's most significant publishers enjoyed an unusual rapport. In this collection of annotated letters, readers gain rare insight into the private side of these literary icons. Their correspondence reveals a professional relationship that evolved into deep friendship over a period of enormous cultural change. Both were committed to the idea of Canadian writing in a very real sense; their mutual and separate work helped bring Canadian Literature into being. With its insider's view of the book business from the late 1950s to the mid 1980s, Margaret Laurence and Jack McClelland Letters presents a valuable piece of Canadian literary history, curated and annotated by Davis and Morra. This is essential reading for all those interested in Canada's literary culture. Encyclopedia of Heroism Studies

HUNTER KILLERS will follow the careers of four daring British submarine captains who risked their lives to keep the rest of us safe; their exploits consigned to the shadows until now. Their experiences encompass the span of the Cold War from voyages in WW2 era submarines under Arctic ice to nuclear-powered espionage missions in Soviet-dominated seas. There are dangerous encounters with Russian spy ships in UK waters and finally, as the communist facade begins to crack, they hold the line against the Kremlin's oceanic might, playing a leading role in bringing down the Berlin Wall. It is the first time they have spoken out about their covert lives in the submarine service. This is the dramatic untold story of Britain's most secret service. TEN MOVIES AT A TIME John
