Social Environmental Conflicts in Mexico

Darcy Tetreault, Cindy McCulligh, Carlos Lucio, 2018-03-10 What are the political economic conditions that have given rise to increasing numbers of social environmental conflicts in Mexico Why do these conflicts arise in some local and regional contexts and not in others How are social environmental movements constructed and sustained And what are the alternatives These are the questions that this book seeks to address It is organized into three parts The first provides a panoramic view of social environmental conflicts in Mexico and of alternatives that are being constructed from below in rural areas It also provides an analysis of the recent reforms to open the country's energy sector to private and foreign investment The second is comprised of local level case studies of conflict and no conflict in diverse geographic locations and cultural settings particularly in relation to the construction of wind farms hydraulic infrastructure industrial water pollution and groundwater overdraft The third explores alternatives from below in the form of community based ecotourism and traditional mezcal production A concluding chapter engages comparative and global analysis

Environment, Social Justice, and the Media in the Age of the Anthropocene Elizabeth G. Dobbins, Luigi Manca, Maria Lucia Piga, 2020-02-17 Environment Social Justice and the Media in the Age of Anthropocene addresses three imminent challenges to human society in the age of the Anthropocene The first challenge involves the survival of the species the second the breakdown of social justice and the third the inability of the media to provide global audiences with an adequate orientation about these issues The notion of the Anthropocene as a geological age shaped by human intervention implies a new understanding of the human context that influences the physical and biological sciences Human existence continues to be affected by the physical and biological reality from which it evolved but in turn it affects that reality as well This work addresses this paradox by bringing together the contributions of researchers from very different disciplines in conversation about the complex relationships between the physical biological world and the human world to offer different perspectives and solutions in establishing social and environmental justice in the age of the Anthropocene
