Boots on the Ground by Dusk ,2008 Pat Tillman was seen by many as an American hero A star college football player turned pro he walked away from a multimillion dollar NFL contract after the 9 11 attacks choosing to enlist in the U S Army He graduated from their elite Ranger school and was deployed to Iraq in 2003 On April 22 2004 Pat Tillman was killed in Afghanistan The administration and the Pentagon immediately portrayed his death as the result of a dramatic gun battle with the enemy and Pat was posthumously awarded the Silver Star and a promotion in recognition of his bravery But as would later emerge Army officials were all along hiding the truth Pat was killed by his fellow Rangers The Tillmans discovered this fact five weeks after Pat's death and six separate investigations have since been launched largely due to the family's passionate insistence But even now the true circumstances remain murky and fraught with contradictions Here is Mary Tillman's story as she describes her attempts to uncover the truth about what happened to Pat and why the government went to such great lengths to keep the circumstances secret In the process she paints an indelible portrait of her son a man of remarkable character who followed a set of guiding principles that ultimately led him to Afghanistan and in death into the hearts and minds of people all over the world

The Strange Tale of Egor, The Fleetwinged Filagreed Flyspecker, and His Virtual-Guided Tour through the Garden of Evil John Condon, 2021-08-12 This booklet describes the conflict between individual freedom good and collective force evil The author defines the Collective to be an assembly of elitists people at the top of their fields in politics academia media and the arts and sciences Two characteristics define these elitists greed and need greed for never enough wealth and need for never enough power Their prominence and prestige makes them feel entitled to rule They write the laws and want sameness obedience and conformity This flies in the face of the Bill of Rights which protects us from the government Elitists have nothing but contempt for the individual The group is everything That belief makes it easier to rationalize murder Likewise elitists dismiss the Ten Commandments the morality guide for millions

When the end justify the means is adopted by our leaders morality goes away Elitists reside in the Democrat Party and live on Hypocrisy Highway Democrats used to speak for the average citizen We have been betrayed Democrats now wrap their arms around Marxism and one world globalist government Being good Marxists they have become good liars and they lie like sidewalks How do we cope with this sickening realization A healthy sense of skepticism is required Let s borrow some advice from Peter Finley Dunn A century ago when asked who we can trust he said paraphrasing The answer to that question is simple Trust everyone But cut the cards
