Feminist mental health activism in England, c. 1968-95 Kate Mahoney, 2023-12-12 Feminist mental health activism in England c 1968 1995 provides the first in depth examination of feminist mental health activism in England employing original oral history interviews alongside detailed case studies of unexplored feminist initiatives It charts how feminist activists in the late 1960s initially rejected psychological approaches before employing a range of therapies to understand themselves and support one another This book charts the emergence of feminist mental health groups in the early 1970s the development of feminist therapy across the 1980s and the influence of feminist politics on national charity Mind in the 1990s It examines what participation in feminist activism felt like demonstrating how these emotions have influenced the construction of its history The book simultaneously forges a new direction in the history of mental healthcare in postwar England establishing how feminists grassroots support for women redefined community care

Eventful Bodies Michael Schillmeier, 2016-04-22 Disrupting questioning and altering the taken for granted cosmos of everyday life the experiences of illness challenge the different ways in which social normalcy is remembered maintained and expected This book explores the manifold experiences of life threatening infectious or non curable illnesses that trouble the practices and relations of human and social life Challenging a mere deficit model of illness it examines how the cosmopolitics of illness require and initiate an ethos that cares for difference and diversity Eventful Bodies presents rich qualitative and ethnographic data alongside print and on line media sources from Germany and North America exploring case studies involving Alzheimer's disease stroke and the global threat of infectious diseases such as SARS The book engages with debates in cosmopolitics and exposes the agency of those overlooked by contemporary discourses of cosmopolitanism thus developing a new theory of illness and delineating a novel empirical agenda and conceptual space for sociological and anthropological research A rigorous examination of the changes wrought in the social world by illness and the implications of this for social and political theory Eventful Bodies will appeal to sociologists anthropologists social and political theorists geographers and scholars of science and technology studies with interests in medical sociology health illness and the body

The Humble Story of Don Quixote Cesáreo Bandera, 2006 Don Quixote is often called the first modern novel many would argue it is the greatest novel ever written But compared with other world masterpieces from the Iliad to Paradise Lost or from Oedipus the King to Hamlet or Life is a Dream for example the storyline of Don Quixote is remarkably uninspiring and lowly a middle aged man becomes mad reading novels and makes a fool of himself by believing he is a hero The first great modern novel is a warning about the reading and the writing of novels In this original study by Cesáreo Bandera the intimate connection between the simplicity and humility of the story and its greatness is explored Other comparisons are also made the story of the picaresque rogue on the one hand and the psychological insights of the pastoral novel on the other Through these analyses the meaning and significance of Cervantes novel are developed The book takes into critical account Mikhail Bakhtin's theory of the novel as well as Michel Foucault's views about madness and civilization in order to bring into relief the modernity of Don Quixote From another angle the contrasting views on human desire of such critics as Unamuno and Ren Girard become central to a new understanding of Don Quixote's madness as well as to the development of the main connection between the humility of the story and its greatness ABOUT THE AUTHOR Cesáreo Bandera professor emeritus of Spanish literature at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is author of several books and numerous essays in English and Spanish including The Sacred Game The Role of the Sacred in the Genesis of Modern Literary Fiction PRAISE FOR THE BOOK The originality of Bandera's approach and the novelty of his focus are grounded not only on a solid knowledge of history and literary theory but also of philosophy history of religion anthropology etc Bandera's study attracts from its first pages by confronting the reader with concepts which are fundamental to an understanding of the culture and literature of the West in the 17th century Jos María Díaz Borque Madrid Universidad Complutense We are dealing with a book different from all others that have come out on the occasion of the Fourth Centenary It is full of intuitions accurate judgments and above all it is organized and written by an author ready to make tabula rasa of all Cervantine bibliography in order to reexamine ab ovo the state of questions that are still relevant to those who study the best classical novel Hector Briosio Universidad de Alcalá Bandera discusses the historical social and spiritual developments that in the Renaissance made a revival of the old epic an impossibility and paved the way to the invention of the modern novel He presents an immensely intelligent sensitive innovative and readable book on this immortal work Ren Girard Member of the French Academy Honorary President of the Colloquium on Violence and Religion Bandera offers an insightful analysis of Cervantes techniques including mimesis parody and irony Highly recommended M V Ekstrom Choice The book contains brilliant insights into the picaresque and the pastoral Julio Baena Renaissance Quarterly Professor Bandera enriches our understanding of the Foucault philosophy was a way of questioning the allegedly necessary truths that underpin the practices and institutions of modern society. He carried this out in a series of deeply original and strikingly controversial studies on the origins of modern medical and social scientific disciplines. These studies have raised fundamental questions about the nature of human knowledge and its relation to power structures and have become major topics of discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences. The essays in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of Foucault's major themes and texts from his early work on madness through his history of sexuality. Special attention is also paid to thinkers and movements from Kant through current feminist theory that are particularly important for understanding his work and its impact. This revised edition contains five new essays and revisions of many others and the extensive bibliography has been updated.

A Course in Miracles Foundation for Inner Peace, 2007. The only edition that contains in one place all of the writings that Dr. Helen Schucman, its scribe, authorized to be printed. P. 4 of cover.

Beyond Écriture Féminine Cathy Helen Wardle, 2007. Beyond Écriture féminine is the first book to be published exploring the work of the contemporary French author Jeanne Hyvrard. 1945 from her early novels of the 1970s up to some of her most recent texts. Moving critical accounts of Hyvrard beyond a focus upon écriture féminine, it identifies the patterns through which her writing repeats and transforms creation mythology, her own oeuvre and her own life, examining how intertextual repetitions bind her work together into a complex and ever-expanding web of allusions and resonances which engages the reader in a process of constant re-interpretation, challenging notions of linearity and reflecting the chaotic reality of life in the Hyvrardian world.

BOOK JACKET

Mad for Foucault Lynne Huffer, 2010. Contemporary critiques of sexuality have their origins in the work of Michel Foucault. While Foucault's seminal arguments helped to establish the foundations of queer theory and greatly advance feminist critique, Lynne Huffer argues that our interpretation of the theorist's powerful ideas remains flawed.

Neues vollständiges kritisches Wörterbuch der englischen und deutschen Sprache Thieme, 1856.

Bedlam on the Streets Caroline Knowles, 2005-11-28. What happens when the mad are let out of the asylum and there is nowhere for them to go? This hard-hitting and controversial new book traces the terms on which the mad occupy the city's streets, homeless shelters, shopping centres, and fast food outlets. This social geography of madness is situated within the broader parameters of systems of social welfare and globalization, arguing that the community mental health care system is actually a system of neglect. Bedlam on the Streets is a richly textured ethnography combining stark photographic images of people and places with an examination of city space and the voices of those that we label mad.

Given Time Jacques Derrida, 1992. Is giving possible? Is it possible to give without immediately entering into a circle of exchange that turns the gift into a debt to be returned? This question leads Jacques Derrida to make out an irresolvable paradox at what seems the most fundamental level of the gift's meaning: for the gift to be received as a gift, it must not appear as such, since its mere appearance as gift puts it in the cycle of repayment and debt. Derrida reads the relation of time to gift through a number of texts: Heidegger's Time and Being, Mauss's The Gift, as well as essays by Benveniste and Levi Strauss that assume Mauss's legacy. It is however a short tale by Baudelaire, Counterfeit Money, that guides Derrida's analyses throughout. At stake in his reading of the tale to which the second half of this book is devoted are the conditions of gift and forgiveness as essentially bound up with the movement of dissemination, a concept that Derrida has been working out for many years. For both readers of Baudelaire and students of literary theory, this work will prove indispensable.

Making Space for Indigenous Feminism, 3rd Edition Gina Starblanket, 2024-05-23T00:00:00Z The third edition of the iconic collection Making Space for Indigenous Feminism features feminist, queer, and two spirit voices from across generations and locations. Feminism has much to offer Indigenous women and all Indigenous Peoples in their struggles against oppression. Indigenous feminists in the first edition fought for feminism to be considered a valid and essential intellectual and activist position. The second edition animated Indigenous feminisms through real world applications. This third edition, curated by award-winning scholar Gina Starblanket, reflects and celebrates Indigenous feminism's intergenerational longevity through the changing landscape of anti-colonial struggle and theory. Diverse contributors examine Indigenous feminism's ongoing relevance to contemporary contexts and debates, including queer and two spirit approaches to decolonization, gendered and sexualized violence, storytelling and narrative, digital and land-based presence, Black and Indigenous relationalities, and more. This book bridges generations of powerful Indigenous feminist thinking to demonstrate the movement's cruciality for today.

The Message of a Course in Miracles Elizabeth A. Cronkhite, 2010-07-30 Mind Body Spirit

Philosophy of Communication Briankle G. Chang, Garnet C. Butchart, 2012-08-10 Classical, modern, and contemporary philosophical writings that address the fundamental concepts of communication. To philosophize is to communicate philosophically. From its inception, philosophy has communicated forcefully. Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle talk a lot and talk ardently. Because philosophy and communication have belonged together from the beginning, and because philosophy comes into its own and solidifies its stance through communication, it is logical that we subject communication to philosophical investigation. This collection of key works of classical, modern, and contemporary philosophers brings communication back into philosophy's orbit. It is the first anthology to gather in a single volume foundational works that address the core questions, concepts, and problems of communication in philosophical terms. The editors have chosen thirty-two selections from the work of Plato, Leibniz, Hegel, Husserl, Heidegger, Wittgenstein, Benjamin, Lacan, Derrida, Sloterdijk, and others. They have organized these texts thematically rather than historically in seven sections: consciousness, intersubjective understanding, language, writing, and context; difference and subjectivity; gift and exchange; and communicability and community. Taken together, these texts not only lay the foundation for establishing communication as a distinct philosophical topic but also provide an outline of what philosophy of communication might look like.
