The grimly fascinating new book from the UK's leading criminologist David Wilson uncovers the dangers that exist where we least expect them. Perfect for fans of The Dark Side of the Mind and The Mind of a Murderer. The home is the place where murder most commonly occurs. In England and Wales, each year on average 75 per cent of female murder victims and 39 per cent of murdered men are killed at home. This gripping new title from the author of My Life with Murderers and A Plot to Kill explores the tragic prevalence of domestic murder and how for so many victims their own home is the place they are most in danger. David Wilson is the UK's leading criminologist and his knowledge of murder is unparalleled. By walking through each part of the house, he explains how each room's purpose has changed over time, the weapons they contain and ultimately how these things combine in murder. Delving into infamous as well as lesser known true crime cases, this examination of the tragic, ordinary nature of murder is both a chilling read and a startling insight into the everyday impact of violence and how it can touch us all. Sequels Janet G. Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place, Roger M. Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented. He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre. Mr. Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume. Much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected. Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form. Several others have been unavailable for a number of years. Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year, Boucher, one of the major mystery reviewers of all time, reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle, Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times. From these resources, Mr. Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider, lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968. This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors. Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction. The Lawless Decade Paul Sann, Howard V.
