Girls Will Be Boys Laura Horak, 2016-02-26 2016 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Finalist for 2016 Richard Wall Memorial Award by the Theatre Library Long listed for the 2017 Kraszna Krausz Best Photography Book Award from the Kraszna Krausz Foundation Marlene Dietrich Greta Garbo and Katharine Hepburn all made lasting impressions with the cinematic cross dressing they performed onscreen What few modern viewers realize however is that these seemingly daring performances of the 1930s actually came at the tail end of a long wave of gender bending films that included more than 400 movies featuring women dressed as men Laura Horak spent a decade scouring film archives worldwide looking at

American films made between 1908 and 1934 and what she discovered could revolutionize our understanding of gender roles in the early twentieth century Questioning the assumption that cross dressing women were automatically viewed as transgressive she finds that these figures were popularly regarded as wholesome and regularly appeared onscreen in the 1910s thus lending greater respectability to the fledgling film industry Horak also explores how and why this perception of cross dressed women began to change in the 1920s and early 1930s examining how cinema played a pivotal part in the representation of lesbian identity Girls Will Be Boys excavates a rich history of gender bending film roles enabling readers to appreciate the wide array of masculinities that these actresses performed from sentimental boyhood to rugged virility to gentlemanly refinement Taking us on a guided tour through a treasure trove of vintage images Girls Will Be Boys helps us view the histories of gender sexuality and film through fresh eyes The Practice of Love Teresa De Lauretis,1994 Between 1970 and now in conjunction with earlier and contemporaneous social movements feminism and poststructuralism have made way for the rise of minority discourse and gay and lesbian studies as fields of scholarly and theoretical research Conceived from the vantage point of the latter this book returns to Freudian psychoanalysis and semiotics to the questions of representation subjectivity desire and their relations to social signification and material reality Cinematic Modernism Susan McCabe,2005-01-13 Publisher Description Su Friedrich Sonia Misra,Rox Samer,2022-03-08 Su Friedrich b 1954 has been described as an autobiographical filmmaker an experimental filmmaker a documentary filmmaker an independent filmmaker a feminist filmmaker and a lesbian filmmaker labels that she sprucely dodges insisting time and again she is quite simply a filmmaker Nevertheless the influences of the experimental film culture and of the feminist and lesbian political ethos out of which she emerged resonate across her films to the present day Su Friedrich Interviews is the first volume dedicated exclusively to Friedrich and her work The interviews collected here highlight the historical theoretical political and economic dimensions through which Friedrich s films gain their unique and defiantly ambiguous identity The collection seeks to give a comprehensive view of Friedrich s diverse body of work the conditions in which her films were made and how they have circulated and become understood within different contexts The volume contains fifteen interviews two previously unpublished along with three autobiographical writings by Friedrich Included are canonical early interviews but a special focus is given to interviews that address her less studied film production in the twenty first century Echoing across these various pieces is Friedrich s charmingly sardonic and defiant personality familiar from her films Her occasional resistance to an interviewer s line of questioning opens up other unexpected lines of inquiry as it also provides insight into her distinct philosophy The volume closes with a new interview conducted by the editors which illuminates areas that remain latent or underdiscussed in other interviews including Friedrich s work as a film professor and projects that supplement Friedrich s filmmaking such as Edited By an online historical resource dedicated to collecting information about and honoring the contributions of women film editors Novels Into Film George Bluestone,1971 Deviant Eyes, Deviant Bodies Chris
