Maestro Life Of Arturo Toscanini:

The Maestro, the Life of Arturo Toscanini Howard Taubman, 1951 For twenty years Howard Taubman music editor of the New York Times has been collecting material for a biography of Arturo Toscanini Last spring accompanying the maestro on his transcontinental tour of several weeks he had the opportunity to crystallize and complete his research For Mr Taubman s reports on that tour he received the 1950 prize of the Music Lovers League For the present book he should receive some sort of prize from the public at large It is based on attendance at hundreds of the maestro s concerts and dozens of his rehearsals the reading of everything that has been written about him the examination of many scores in which Toscanini made his own notes the interviewing both here and in Italy of dozens of men and women who had worked with Toscanini and the close friendship and co operation of several of the maestro s immediate family Finally came the weeks of the transcontinental trip during which Mr Taubman asked hundreds of questions This book quotes verbatim the answers to many of them The story begins with the boy Toscanini and how he left his famiy to enter the Musical Conservatory at Parma at the age of nine It then goes on to show how he wanted more than anything else to become a pianist how the rigid monastic discipline of the Conservatory forced him to become a cellist and how he gradually evolved without specific plan into becoming the greatest conductor that the world has ever known We see in these pages how he prepares his concerts how he fought with impresarios boards of governors fellow musicians and even politicians to maintain the highest possible standards in music He has always been a fighter and even today at the age of eighty four he can become first the despair of those who work with him and then their god As the long musical career unrolls magnificently before us as we trace his relationships with Italy and America with his family and his friends we come into contact with a great man and a great personality We are able to gauge his courage his convictions his sense of humor and of proportion For the first time we see the man Toscanini as a whole Music is the most important part of that whole but one must see the rest to appreciate what his music means to him and through him to us Dust jacket Toscanini Marco Capra, 2017-03-14 A rare glimpse into the life of the conductor considered to be the greatest of all time Arturo Toscanini is one of the most acclaimed musicians of the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries beginning his career as a cellist then becoming world renowned as a conductor Known for his intensity perfectionism ear for orchestral detail and photographic memory he could conduct 160 operas from memory he was appointed music director of La Scala in Milan the Metropolitan Opera in New York and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra at different stages in his career Published on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of Toscanini s birthday March 25 1867 this book provides insight into the legendary conductor s genius through never before seen photos focusing on key moments of his extraordinary private and public life Toscanini is a celebrity beloved both in the United States and overseas and this book is a celebration of his integrity talent and relentless pursuit of perfection The Maestro, the Life of Arturo Toscanini Hyman Howard Taubman, 2003-01-01 Arturo Toscanini Mortimer H. important as the morning of Sunday April 9 1939 when Marian Anderson sang before a throng of thousands lined up along the Mall by the Lincoln Memorial She had been banned from the Daughters of the American Revolution s Constitution Hall because she was black When Eleanor Roosevelt who resigned from the DAR over the incident took up Anderson s cause however it became a national issue The controversy showed Americans that discrimination was not simply a regional problem As Arsenault shows Anderson s dignity and courage enabled her like a female Jackie Robinson but several years before him to strike a vital blow for civil rights Today the moment still resonates Postcards and CDs of Anderson are sold at the Memorial and Anderson is still considered one of the greats of 20th century American music In a short but richly textured narrative Raymond Arsenault captures the struggle for racial equality in pre WWII America and a moment that inspired blacks and whites alike In rising to the occasion he writes Marion Anderson consecrated the Lincoln Memorial as a shrine of freedom In the 1963 March on Washington Martin Luther King would follow literally in her footsteps LIFE ,1946-05-27 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use LIFE ,1950-05-22 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use
