Mirambo Of Tanzania 1840 1884:

Mirambo of Tanzania, 1840?-1884 Norman Robert Bennett,1971 This is the story of Mirambo the nineteenth century leader of the numerous Nyamwezi peoples of East Africa in what would become central Tanzania He occupied a central position in the affairs of the Arabs and Europeans active during the 1870s and 1880s in this area He was involved in the historical trends affection his region including the rise and decline of the Arab position among the Nyamwezi the success and failures of European missionaries the sluggish progress of Leopold II of Belgium and his International African Association and the efforts of the British Consul General in Zanzibar to spread influence Mirambo of Tanzania 1840?-1884. Norman Robert Bennett Norman R. Bennett,1971 Les Frontières du Burundi Jean-Pierre Chrétien,2025-04-24 Par del les clichés sur les frontières dites naturelles et sur les découpages abstraits de la colonisation présente comme une opération de la Conférence de Berlin de 1885 cette enquête sur la fabrication des frontières du Burundi montre la complexité d'un processus historique Tout commence avec les limites d'un royaume en expansion la fin du XIXe siècle L'impact de l'intrusion européenne partir des années 1890 s'est d'abord manifesté par des coups de crayon sur des cartes fantaisistes Une fois sur le terrain en 1896 les militaires de l'Afrique orientale allemande se trouvent confrontés ceux de l'Italie pendant du Congo Plus d'une centaine de dossiers des archives allemandes belges et britanniques clament les jeux de la force et de la diplomatie durant quinze ans Un territoire contesté est défini en 1899 entre un tracé colonial recoupant les montagnes et une délimitation hydrographique Au final le colonisateur allemand a utilisé un argumentaire la fois géographique et historique qui a débouché en 1910 après la mort du roi Léopold II sur une délimitation occidentale du Burundi largement conforme son histoire sur le lac Tanganyika et la vallée de la Rusizi Mais concrètement ces plaines de l'Imbo représentaient dans le vécu des Burundais un espace économique et culturel particulier en fonction des contacts politico commerciaux nous depuis les années 1850 avec les Arabes et les Swahili venus de la côte de l'Océan Indien l'issue de la Première Guerre mondiale une frontière internationale s'est établie le Burundi du Tanganyika britannique auquel la province du Bugufi au nord est est rattachée malgré les protestations de la monarchie burundaise jusqu'aux années 1940 Les frontières en Afrique comme en Europe sont les cicatrices d'une histoire

Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa Henri Médard,Shane Doyle,2007-11-16 Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa is a collection of ten studies by the most prominent historians of the region Slavery was more important in the Great Lakes region of Eastern Africa than often has been assumed and Africans from the interior played a more complex role than was previously recognized The essays in this collection reveal the connections between the peoples of the region as well as their encounters with the conquering Europeans The contributors challenge the assertion that domestic slavery increased in Africa as a result of the international trade Slavery in this region was not a uniform phenomenon and the line between enslaved and non slave labor was fine Kinship ties could mark the difference between free and unfree labor Social categories were not always clear cut and the status of a slave could change within a lifetime Contents

McDow, 2018-05-25 In Buying Time Thomas F McDow synthesizes Indian Ocean Middle Eastern and East African studies as well as economic and social history to explain how in the nineteenth century credit mobility and kinship knit together a vast interconnected Indian Ocean region That vibrant and enormously influential swath extended from the desert fringes of Arabia to Zanzibar and the Swahili coast and on to the Congo River watershed In the half century before European colonization Africans and Arabs from coasts and hinterlands used newfound sources of credit to seek out opportunities establish new outposts in distant places and maintain families in a rapidly changing economy They used temporizing strategies to escape drought in Oman join ivory caravans in the African interior and build new settlements The key to McDow s analysis is a previously unstudied trove of Arabic business deeds that show complex variations on the financial transactions that underwrote the trade economy across the region The documents list names genealogies statuses and clan names of a wide variety of people Africans Indians and Arabs men and women free and slave who bought sold and mortgaged property Through unprecedented use of these sources McDow moves the historical analysis of the Indian Ocean beyond connected port cities to reveal the roles of previously invisible people

The Fortunes of Africa Martin Meredith, 2014-10-14 Africa has been coveted for its riches ever since the era of the Pharaohs In past centuries it was the lure of gold ivory and slaves that drew fortune seekers merchant adventurers and conquerors from afar In modern times the focus of attention is on oil diamonds and other valuable minerals Land was another prize The Romans relied on their colonies in northern Africa for vital grain shipments to feed the population of Rome Arab invaders followed in their wake eventually colonizing the entire region More recently foreign corporations have acquired huge tracts of land to secure food supplies needed abroad just as the Romans did In this vast and vivid panorama of history Martin Meredith follows the fortunes of Africa over a period of 5 000 years With compelling narrative he traces the rise and fall of ancient kingdoms and empires the spread of Christianity and Islam the enduring quest for gold and other riches the exploits of explorers and missionaries and the impact of European colonization He examines too the fate of modern African states and concludes with a glimpse of their future His cast of characters includes religious leaders mining magnates warlords dictators and many other legendary figures among them Mansa Musa ruler of the medieval Mali empire said to be the richest man the world has ever known I speak of Africa Shakespeare wrote and of golden joys This is history on an epic scale

Fortunes of Africa Martin Meredith, 2014-09-11 In this vast and vivid panorama of history Martin Meredith bestselling author of The State of Africa follows the fortunes of Africa over a period of 5 000 years With compelling narrative he traces the rise and fall of ancient kingdoms and empires the spread of Christianity and Islam the enduring quest for gold and other riches the exploits of explorers and missionaries and the impact of European colonisation He examines too the fate of modern African states and concludes with a glimpse into their future This is history on an epic scale

Africa's Development in Historical Perspective Emmanuel Akyeampong, Robert H. Bates, Nathan Nunn, James Robinson, 2014-08-11 Why has Africa remained persistently poor over its recorded history Has Africa always been poor What has been the nature of Africa's poverty and how do we explain its origins This volume takes a necessary interdisciplinary approach to these questions by bringing together perspectives from archaeology linguistics history anthropology political science and economics Several contributors note that Africa's development was at par with many areas of Europe in the first millennium of the Common Era Why Africa fell behind is a key theme in this volume with insights that should inform Africa's developmental strategies

Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century Mark Lawrence, 2020-12-17 Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century examines insurgency and counterinsurgency across the globe in the nineteenth century The volume includes chapters from distinguished and rising historians from Europe North and South America and covers irregular wars in Spain Ireland France Latin America China USA Africa Central Asia and Burma The authors explore links between insurgencies and nationalism including learning curves and emulation in counterinsurgency With a special emphasis on non Western warfare this volume includes case studies such as the Katanga and White Lotus rebellions largely unknown to Western readers The military history of the nineteenth century thus reveals much more than the symmetrical warfare of Napoleon Grant and Moltke This volume shows the commonalities of responses more than their differences and refracts these through themes which crop up repeatedly in different times and places These themes include common problems and solutions the challenge of commanding local intelligence networks public opinion millenarianism magic and religion technology hearts and minds the legal framework of state violence racial stereotypes and patterns of forgetting and remembering guerrilla conflicts The first recent study to examine Western and non Western warfare in equal measure stressing the prevalence of commonalities between guerrilla warfare and counterinsurgency across the globe Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century will be of great interest to scholars of military and strategic studies as well as modern military history It was originally published as a special issue of Small Wars Insurgencies Managing Motherhood, Managing Risk Denise Allen,2004-08-13 An investigation of the consequences resulting from fertility related development interventions in Tanzania Interpreting the Ethiopian Revolution Etana H. Dinka,2025-10-16 Fifty years after the 1974 Ethiopian revolution Etana H Dinka brings together a who s who of modern Ethiopian studies in order to offer this long overdue analysis of the revolution and its legacies With contributions both from seasoned academics many of whom wrote about the revolution as it developed and from representatives of a younger generation this six part collection offers new insights not only into the revolution itself but also into issues such as the Red Terror the EPRDF revolution of 1991 and Abiy Ahmed s repositioning of Ethiopia after 2018 Such wide ranging analyses cumulatively cast Ethiopia s three successive post revolution regimes not as separate entities but rather as successive attempts to fulfil the promise of the revolution surrounding issues such as ethnicity the nationalities question economic development and the land tenure question In developing this model the collection captures the defining developments and issues in Ethiopia the Horn and the Red Sea region over the past fifty years and it speaks directly to a global body of knowledge about revolutions state making projects and empires and warfare and military interventions in politics A unique collection that expands the historical revolutionary analyses of Ethiopian politics and society to the present in order to suggest new ways of ensuring social economic and environmental justice for all this book is a must read for researchers and upper level students interested in Ethiopia the Horn of Africa African Studies and revolutionary politics and land economics in general Islamic Societies to the Nineteenth Century Ira M. Lapidus,2012-10-29 First published in 1988 Ira Lapidus A History of Islamic Societies has become a classic in the field enlightening students scholars and others with a thirst for knowledge about one of the world's great civilizations This book based on fully revised and updated parts one and two of this monumental work describes the transformations of Islamic societies from their beginning in the seventh century through their diffusion across the globe into the challenges of the nineteenth century The story focuses on the organization of families and tribes religious groups and states showing how they were transformed by their interactions with other religious and political communities The book concludes with the European commercial and imperial interventions that initiated a new set of transformations in the Islamic world and the onset of the modern era Organized in narrative sections for the history of each major region with innovative analytic summary introductions and conclusions this book is a unique endeavour A History of Islamic Societies Ira M.

Lapidus,2014-10-13 This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty five years Ira Lapidus history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion The history is divided into four parts Part I is a comprehensive account of pre Islamic late antiquity the beginnings of Islam the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious artistic legal and intellectual cultures Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present The African Revolution Richard Reid,2025-01-28 A panoramic global history of Africa in the age of imperialism Africa's long nineteenth century was a time of revolutionary ferment and cultural innovation for the continent's states societies and economies Yet the period preceding what became known as the Scramble for Africa by European powers in the decades leading up to World War I has long been neglected in favor of a Western narrative of colonial rule The African Revolution demonstrates that the Scramble and the resulting imperial order were as much the culmination of African revolutionary dynamics as they were of European expansionism In this monumental work of history Richard Reid paints a multifaceted portrait of a continent on the global stage He describes how Africa witnessed the emergence of new economic and political dynamics that were underpinned by forms of violence and volatility not unlike those emanating from Europe Reid uses a stretch of road in what is now Tanzania one of the nineteenth century's most vibrant commercial highways as an entry point into this revolutionary epoch weaving a broader story around characters and events on the road He integrates the African experience with new insights into the deeper currents in European societies before and after conquest and he shows how the Africans themselves created opportunities for European expansion Challenging the portrayal of Africa's transformative nineteenth century as a mere prelude to European colonialism The African Revolution reveals how this turbulent yet hugely creative era for Africans intersected with global intrusions to shape the modern age

Post-Colonial Nations in Historical and Cultural Context Dmitri M. Bondarenko, 2023-05-30 Using historical and anthropological analysis in Post Colonial Nations in Historical and Cultural Context Dmitri M Bondarenko examines nation building in Tanzania Uganda and Zambia He examines the nation and state as concepts and how these are changing globally particularly in regard to the idea that the fundamental characteristic of a nation is a culturally homogeneous community This feature became a cornerstone of the concept of the nation at its formation in the West by the end of the eighteenth century but post colonial migration flows from the Global South to the Global North are increasing multi culturalism in the North In contrast liberated states of Asia and Africa have been multi cultural from earlier on as they inherited the colonial borders in which typically many peoples were united Throughout the book Bondarenko argues that this history of multi culturalism is an advantage to development in the Global South and that it s necessary to depart from the classical Western concept of the nation to simultaneously support citizen unity while preserving cultural diversity
