Monastic Visions Elizabeth S. Bolman, Patrick Godeau, 2002-01-01 The book reproduces the cleaned paintings for the first time It also describes and analyzes their amalgam of Coptic Egyptian Christian Byzantine and Arab styles and motifs as well as the religious culture to which they belong In 1996 funded by the United States Agency for International Development and at the request of the Monastery of St Antony the Antiquities Development Project of the American Research Center in Egypt began the conservation of the paintings in the church The paintings revealed by the conservators are of extremely high quality both stylistically and conceptually While rooted in the Christian tradition of Egypt they also reveal explicit connections with Byzantine and Islamic art of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Some newly discovered paintings can even be dated back to the sixth or seventh century Emerging Iconographies of Medieval Rome Annie Montgomery

Labatt, 2019-10-23 Emerging Iconographies of Medieval Rome examines the development of Christian iconographies that had not yet established themselves as canonical images but which were being tried out in various ways in early Christian Rome This book focuses on four different iconographical forms that appeared in Rome during the eighth and ninth centuries the Anastasis the Transfiguration the Maria Regina and the Sickness of Hezekiah all of which were labeled Byzantine by major mid twentieth century scholars The trend has been to readily accede to the pronouncements of those prominent authors subjugating these rich images to a grand narrative that privileges the East and turns Rome into an artistic backwater In this study Annie Montgomery Labatt reacts against traditional scholarship which presents Rome as merely an adjunct of the East It studies medieval images with formal and stylistic analyses in combination with use of the writings of the patristics and early medieval thinkers The experimentation and innovation in the Christian iconographies of Rome in the eighth and ninth centuries provides an affirmation of the artistic vibrancy of Rome in the period before a divided East and West Labatt revisits and revives a lost and forgotten Rome not as a peripheral adjunct of the East but as a center of creativity and artistic innovation After the Text Liz James, Oliver Nicholson, Roger Scott, 2021-10-31 After the Text honours the work of renowned historian Margaret Mullett who since the 1970s has transformed the study of Byzantine literature Her work has been influential in demonstrating the strength and variety of Byzantine texts Byzantium is renowned for its achievements in architecture and the visual arts Byzantium is renowned for its achievements in architecture and the visual arts Professor Mullett's perceptive studies produced over more than 40 years have shown that the literature of the Byzantine Empire is of equal beauty and interest ranging as it does from high style poetry and rhetoric in the classical manner through letters to demotic writings such as fables and the lives of saints The collection of essays in this volume draws further attention to the wealth and diversity of Byzantine texts by exploring the Greek literature of Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages in all its variety These studies by going like Professor Mullett herself beyond the texts illustrate the value of Byzantine literature for interpreting Byzantine history and civilisation in all its richness This book is crucial reading for scholars and students of the

Byzantine world as well as for those interested in literary studies Chapter 16 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
