Hyper-specializing in Saxophone Using Acoustical Insight and Deep Listening Skills Jonas Braasch, 2019-04-25 This book presents a novel method of grafting musical wind instruments by exchanging an instrument's standard mouthpiece with different tone generators Using the concrete example of the soprano saxophone it describes how with six other tone generators including brass double reed and free reed mechanisms the saxophone can be extended to nearly every wind instrument category in the von Hornbostel and Sachs classification system The book demonstrates how it is possible to play these instrument variations with high proficiency and describes the method of hyper specialization including acoustical insights conservatory training methods and the underlying philosophy The latter is based on the cultural traditions of the different wind instrument prototypes and the Deep Listening philosophy of cultivating internal diversity and

approach that leads to a new level of wind instrument virtuosity that offers great timbral variety combined with the flexibility of a regular acoustic wind instrument

The Silk Road of Adaptation Dr Laurence Raw, 2013-09-18 This anthology of cutting edge essays on adaptation studies adopts the metaphor of the Silk Road an historical site for transcultural as well as transnational exchange The Silk Road of Adaptation puts forward the idea of adaptation as a continuous process in which individuals continually have to adjust themselves to new material we should not only look at the ways in which texts have been transformed but the ways in which readers audiences and critics have responded to them at different points in time and space Adaptation is a psychological as well as a formal process only by coming to terms with others can individuals address issues of human rights or examine themselves and their existing beliefs The Silk Road of Adaptation stresses this point through a series of essays written by representatives of different disciplines film studies history literature communication studies and English as a foreign language Contributors include established names in the field of adaptation studies as well as newer names who together show how the act of adaptation should be approached as a transmedial as well as a transnational act assuming equal significance in the political and diplomatic as well as the literary and cinematic spheres
