Subject to Display Jennifer A. Gonzalez, 2011-03-04 An exploration of the visual culture of race through the work of five contemporary artists who came to prominence during the 1990s Over the past two decades artists James Luna Fred Wilson Amalia Mesa Bains Pep n Osorio and Ren e Green have had a profound impact on the meaning and practice of installation art in the United States In Subject to Display Jennifer Gonz lez offers the first sustained analysis of their contribution linking the history and legacy of race discourse to innovations in contemporary art Race writes Gonz lez is a social discourse that has a visual history The collection and display of bodies images and artifacts in museums and elsewhere is a primary means by which a nation tells the story of its past and locates the cultures of its citizens in the present All five of the American installation artists Gonz lez considers have explored the practice of putting human subjects and their cultures on display by staging elaborate dioramas or site specific interventions in galleries and museums in doing so they have created powerful social commentary of the politics of space and the power of display in settings that mimic the very spaces they critique These artists installations have not only contributed to the transformation of contemporary art and museum culture but also linked Latino African American and Native American subjects to the broader spectrum of historical colonialism race dominance and visual culture From Luna s museum installation of his own body and belongings as artifacts and Wilson s provocative juxtapositions of museum objects to Mesa Bains s allegorical home altars Osorio s condensed spaces bedrooms living rooms barbershops prison cells and Green s genealogies of cultural contact the theoretical and critical endeavors of these artists demonstrate how race discourse is grounded in a visual technology of display Artists from Latin American Cultures Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2002-10-30 Latin Americans have long been relegated to the cultural background obscured by the dominant European culture This biographical dictionary profiles 75 artists from the United States and 13 nations of Central and South America and the Caribbean including painters sculptors photographers muralists printmakers installation artists and performance artists Some of their works recall pre Columbian times others confront the cultural imperialism of the U S over Latin America and many explore how the dominant elements of culture can affect identities of class gender and sexuality Profiled artists range from the renowned to the little known Frida Kahlo Tina Modotti Diego Rivera Myrna Baez Raquel Forner Patrocino Barela and many more Color photographs are provided for many of the works Each entry includes information about the artist s childhood schooling creative growth and artistic styles and themes Exemplary artworks and influences are described along with a look at popular and critical responses Supplemental features include artist cross references a glossary of essential terms from the art world and a number of vivid photos portraying the artists in their creative environments Pepón Osorio Jennifer A. González, 2013 Pep n Osorio is an internationally recognized artist whose installations challenge the stereotypes and misconceptions that shape our view of social institutions and human relationships This book shows that although Osorio draws on his Puerto Rican background and the immigrant experience for inspiration his artistic statements bridge geographical barriers and class divides St. James Guide to Hispanic Artists Thomas Riggs, 2002 Arranged alphabetically from Eduardo Abela to Francisco Zuniga this volume provides biographical and career information as well as critical essays on prominent Hispanic artists American Kaleidoscope Jacquelyn Days Serwer, 1996 American Kaleidoscope Themes and Perspectives in Recent Art features fourteen contemporary artists who live and work in the United States The book's three major themes Spiritual Expressions Shared Concerns and Historical Perspectives are discussed in an insightful introductory essay by Jacquelyn Days Serwer chief curator at the National Museum of American Art Building on these themes brief essays on each of the artists by Serwer and other members of the NMAA curatorial staff illuminate the chosen works in the context of the careers of these artists Forty one of their paintings sculptures and installations are illustrated in color supplemented by eighty six black and white reproductions
