Glickman, 1998 An esteemed veteran of numerous school reform efforts tackles education's most urgent questions Educator Carl D Glickman shows how to narrow the gap between democratic aspirations and practice and what schools must do day to day to teach and carry out the ideals of Jeffersonian democracy

The Institutions of American Democracy Susan Fuhrman, Marvin Lazerson, 2005-05-26 From curriculum standards and testing to school choice and civic learning issues in American education are some of the most debated in the United States The Institutions of American Democracy a collection of essays by the nation's leading education scholars and professionals is designed to inform the debate and stimulate change In association with the Annenberg Foundation Trust at Sunnylands and the Annenberg Public Policy Center at the University of Pennsylvania The Institutions of American Democracy is the first in a series of books commissioned to enhance public understanding of the nature and function of democratic institutions A national advisory board including among others Nancy Kassebaum Baker David Boren John Brademas Ellen Condliffe Lagemann David Gergen and Lee Hamilton will guide the vision of the project which includes future volumes on the press and the three branches of government Each essay in The Institutions of American Democracy addresses essential questions for policymakers educators and anyone committed to public education What role should public education play in a democracy How has that role changed through American history Have the schools lost sight of their responsibility to teach civics and citizenship How are current debates about education shaping the future of this democratic institution Among the contributors are William Galston Director of the Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy at the University of Maryland Clarence Stone Professor in the Department of Government and Politics at the University of Maryland College Park and editor of Changing Urban Education and Regime Politics Governing Atlanta 1946 1988 University Press of Kansas 1998 Susan Moore Johnson Pforzheimer Professor of Education in Learning and Teaching Harvard University Michael Johanek Executive Director of K 12 Professional Development College Board Kathy Simon co executive director of the Coalition for Essential Schools and author of Moral Questions in the Classroom Yale University Press 2001 and Jennifer Hochschild Professor of Government and Professor of Afro American Studies at Harvard University and author of Facing Up to the American Dream Race Class and the Soul of the Nation Princeton University Press 1995 Politics, Markets, and America's Schools John E. Chubb, Terry M. Moe, 2011-09-01 During the 1980s widespread dissatisfaction with America's schools gave rise to a powerful movement for educational change and the nation's political institutions responded with aggressive reforms Chubb and Moe argue that these reforms are destined to fail because they do not get to the root of the problem The fundamental causes of poor academic performance they claim are not to be found in the schools but rather in the institutions of direct democratic control by which the schools have traditionally been governed Reformers fail to solve the problem when the institutions ARE the problem The authors recommend a new system of public education built around parent student choice and school competition that would promote school autonomy thus providing a firm foundation for genuine school improvement and superior student achievement
