Rewards Of Wonder Poems Of Cotswold France London:

Rewards of Wonder Ivor Gurney, 2000 In September 1922 poet and composer Ivor Gurney 1890 1937 was certified insane and committed to a mental asylum where he remained until his death This text begun in 1921 and completed in 1924 was the first of several volumes of poetry written in the City of London Mental Hospital The central theme of this collection is moments of epiphany and landscapes include his native shire London and the Western Front Gurney arranged these poems into a unified volume and the book offers insights into Gurney's illness and his sanity rooted in memory and a sense of England It is published as part of Carcanet's Ivor Gurney programme A Companion to British Literature, Volume 4 Robert DeMaria, Jr., Heesok Chang, Samantha Zacher, 2013-12-13 A Companion to British Literature Victorian and Twentieth Century Literature 1837 2000 Handbook of British Literature and Culture of the First World War Ralf Schneider, Jane Potter, 2021-09-20 The First World War has given rise to a multifaceted cultural production like no other historical event This handbook surveys British literature and film about the war from 1914 until today The continuing interest in World War I highlights the interdependence of war experience the imaginative re-creation of that experience in writing and individual as well as collective memory In the first part of the handbook the major genres of war writing and film are addressed including of course poetry and the novel but also the short story furthermore it is shown how our conception of the Great War is broadened when looked at from the perspective of gender studies and post colonial criticism The chapters in the second part present close readings of important contributions to the literary and filmic representation of World War I in Great Britain All in all the contributions demonstrate how the opposing forces of focusing and canon formation on the one hand and broadening and revision of the canon on the other have characterised British literature and culture of the First World War

Ivor Gurney & Marion Scott Pamela Blevins, 2008 This dual biography of Ivor Gurney and Marion Scott tells the dramatic story of two geniuses who met at the Royal College of Music in 1911 and formed an unlikely partnership that illuminated and enriched the musical and literary worlds in which they moved Gurney's poetry and songs have taken their place as part of the inheritance of England Scott Gurney's strongest advocate emerges from his shadow for the first time Her own remarkable achievements as a pioneering music critic musicologist advocate of contemporary music and women musicians place her among the most influential and respected women of her generation Based on original research this is the first biography of Gurney since 1978 and the only biography of Scott It offers new in depth perspectives on Gurney's attempts to create music and poetry while struggling to overcome the bipolar illness that eventually derailed his genius and restores Marion Scott's rightful place in music history Dweller in Shadows Kate Kennedy, 2023-07-11 The first comprehensive biography of an extraordinary English poet and composer whose life was haunted by fighting in the First World War and later confinement in a mental asylum Ivor Gurney 1890 1937 wrote some of the most anthologized poems of the First World War and composed some of the greatest works in the English song repertoire such as Sleep Yet his life was shadowed by the trauma of the war and mental illness and he spent his last fifteen years confined to a mental asylum In Dweller in Shadows Kate Kennedy presents the first comprehensive biography of this extraordinary and misunderstood artist A promising student at the Royal College of Music Gurney enlisted as a private with the Gloucestershire regiment in 1915 and spent two years in the trenches of the Western Front Wounded in the arm and subsequently gassed during the Battle of Passchendaele Gurney was recovering in hospital when his first collection of poems Severn and Somme was published Despite episodes of depression he resumed his music studies after the war until he was committed to an asylum in 1922 At times believing he was Shakespeare and that the machines under the floor were torturing him he nevertheless continued to write and compose leaving behind a vast body of unpublished work when he died of tuberculosis Drawing on extensive archival research and spanning literary criticism history psychiatry and musicology this compelling narrative sets Gurney's life and work against the backdrop of the war and his institutionalisation probing the links between madness suffering and creativity Facing death in the trenches Gurney hoped that history might not forget me quite This definitive account of his life and work helps ensure that he will indeed be remembered The Poetry of Clare, Hopkins, Thomas, and Gurney Andrew Hodgson, 2019-12-31 This book attends to four poets John Clare Gerard Manley Hopkins Edward Thomas and Ivor Gurney whose poems are remarkable for their personal directness and distinctiveness It shows how their writing conveys a potentially individual quality of feeling perception and experience each poet responds with unusual commitment to the Romantic idea of art as personal expression The book looks closely at the vitality and intricacy of the poets language the personal candour of their subject matter and their sense obdurate but persuasive of their own strangeness As it traces the tact and imagination with which each of the four writers realises the possibilities of individualism in lyric it affirms the vibrancy of their contributions to nineteenth and twentieth century poetry Forgotten Lunatics of the Great War Peter Barham, 2007-01-01 This is a poignant sometimes ribald history of the rank and file servicemen who were psychiatric casualties of World War One The Oxford Handbook of British and Irish War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2007-02-22 The Handbook ranges widely and in depth across 20th century war poetry incorporating detailed discussions of some of the key poets of the period It is an essential resource for scholars of particular poets and for those interested in wider debates Contributors include some of the most important international poetry critics of our time Collected Poems Ivor Gurney, 2004 P J Kavanagh's 1982 edition of the Collected Poems established Ivor Gurney 1890-1937 as one of the most original poets of the early twentieth century His experiences in the First World War his love of his native Gloucestershire countryside were sources of a unique poetic voice Vigorous lyrical and passionate In this new substantially revised edition Gurney can be enjoyed in his entirety by a new generation of readers The poems have been re-ordered to take into account new work on Gurney the texts corrected from the archive and editorial material substantially revised while retaining P J Kavanagh's extensive original introduction Modern English War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2006-07-20 Tim Kendall's study offers the fullest account to date of a tradition of modern English war poetry Stretching from the Boer War to the present day it focuses on many of the twentieth century s finest poets combatants and non combatants alike and considers how they address the ethical challenges of making art out of violence Poetry we are often told makes nothing happen But war makes poetry happen the war poet cannot regret and must exalt at even the most appalling experiences Modern English War Poetry not only assesses the problematic relationship between war and its poets it also encourages an urgent reconsideration of the modern poetry canon and the too often marginalised position of war poetry within it The aesthetic and ethical values on which canonical judgements have been based are carefully scrutinized via a detailed analysis of individual poets The poets discussed include Thomas Hardy Rudyard Kipling Wilfred Owen Charlotte Mew Edward Thomas Ivor Gurney W H Auden Keith Douglas Ted Hughes and Geoffrey Hill

A History of World War One Poetry Jane Potter, 2023-01-12 Situating First World War poetry in a truly global context this book reaches beyond the British soldier poet canon A History of World War One Poetry examines popular and literary ephemeral and enduring poems that the cataclysm of 1914 1918 inspired Across Europe poets wrestled with the same problem how to represent a global conflict dominated by modern technology involving millions of combatants and countless civilians For literary scholars this has meant discovering and engaging with the work of men and women writing in other languages on other fronts and from different national perspectives Poems are presented in their original languages and in English translations some for the very first time while a Coda reflects on the study and significance of First World War poetry in the wake of the Centenary A History of World War One Poetry offers a new perspective on the literary and human experience of 1914 1918

Poems Ivor Gurney, 1954

Anthem for Doomed Youth Jon Stallworthy, 2002 In time of war and national calamity numbers of people seldom seen in church will suddenly turn to religion for consolation and inspiration and perhaps more surprisingly just as many turn to poetry Never was the phenomenon more clearly marked than in that war we still know as The Great War Hundreds of those now referred to as the war poets saw their work in print between 1914 and 1918 others including some of the best were not published until afterwards That rather unsatisfactory label includes very different kinds of writers Owen and Sassoon with their poems of passionate indignation are a far cry from Edward Thomas s bleak and oblique rural ruminations But true Poets as Wilfred Owen wrote must be truthful and Jon Stallworthy has gathered here some of the most moving and unforgettable poetry born out of the horror of the trenches He has written brief but telling accounts of the lives and work of twelve of the most powerful of those poets who experienced and wrote about the worst war the world has ever known Featured are Rupert Brooke Julian Grenfell Charles Hamilton Sorley Francis Ledwidge Siegfried Sassoon Robert Graves Wilfred Owen Edmund Blunden Edward Thomas Ivor Gurney Isaac Rosenberg David Jones Illustrated with haunting images photos and paintings
