Rewind To Yesterday:

The Man at the Window Sam Chase, 2025-10-07 He thought he was just watching the neighbors Until the footage showed someone watching him Cal Becker has spent two years hiding in his late mother's house avoiding the world that destroyed his podcasting career His only human contact comes through his window documenting the perfect couple across the street with obsessive precision Mark and Elyse Whitaker wave every morning at 7 13 AM They jog for exactly twelve minutes They never miss garbage day Until the night Cal sees them digging a hole in their backyard at 2 47 AM By morning the hole is gone The surveillance footage is corrupted And Cal begins to suspect that the quiet suburban street he's been documenting might be documenting him back What follows is a descent into a world where nothing is what it seems where the line between observer and observed becomes terrifyingly blurred and where the past has teeth sharp enough to destroy the present Armed with his father's old tape recorder and a growing certainty that analog truth is the only truth you can trust Cal uncovers a conspiracy that reaches deeper than surveillance more personal than paranoia and more devastating than anything he covered in his podcasting days But the most chilling discovery isn't what the cameras captured it's the realization that some windows reflect more than they reveal and some watchers have been watching longer than you know A masterful psychological thriller that explores guilt isolation and the dangerous power of narrative Perfect for fans of Tana French Gillian Flynn and anyone who's ever wondered what their neighbors are really doing behind closed doors Unputdownable A masterclass in paranoid suspense that will make you question everything you think you know about surveillance memory and truth itself The most unsettling thriller I've read this year Cal Becker is an unforgettable narrator who will haunt you long after the final page Join Sam's newsletter at www.samchaseauthor.com Language and Television Series

A.H. Carim, 2013-11-22 Prelude Though I was tagged a failure everyone saw my little reactions as hysterical The few times I responded to the callousness of people I was being melodramatic and when I didn't I was being myself the fool I would have expected to be the apple of my dad's eye considering he claimed he loved my mum so much till he found out she was a cheat but what was my crime in my mum's unfaithfulness I barely knew her The only crime I committed for being abused trampled on humiliated almost abandoned and so on in Oxford Dictionary's strongest negative terms was being my mother's child I am a failure today because Mrs Funmi Jaxson brought me to life While a lot of ladies wore designer lipsticks compact powders mascaras amongst so many others as daily make up I was forced to permanently be teary eyed while wearing my snotty nose Well I guess I got my own make up for free Even my sense of humour could not stop the emotions from flowing excessively while others laughed and I cried for hours wondering how I missed the jokes I guess when the joke is on you it's not so funny anyway I couldn't help but wonder what made a lot of people smile and look content when they looked into the mirror For me I saw absolutely nothing The strongest people in life are those we stand tall despite the hurdles in their lives Truth is success doesn't only come with a price it has determination glued to it they are intertwined Failure isn't failing at what you do it's accepting the title failure wallowing in it and making it a comfort zone Turns out that disbelieving in the power of our dreams and failing to pursue them with a passion is the worst form of failure Failures are often stepping stones to success Then it becomes our choice to either learn from them and develop ourselves or make choices that will break us further Imagine life as an adventure we have to stumble fearlessly into with more than a flicker of hope Most successful people today didn't make it easily They fell dusted themselves up and tried again more than a couple of times The trick is fixing your gaze on the prize and not the present circumstances If you know where you are heading failure won't set you back Life never promised anyone perfection It only promised to give us a chance which will eventually allow us to make decisions that will reshape who we are negatively or positively Miss Carim 2013 Let yesterday be a tool to help shape your today when preparing for tomorrow Miss Carim 2013
