Rewriting Resemblance in Medieval French Romance Paul Vincent Rockwell, 1995 First published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company "Por le soie amisté", 2021-11-01 These essays are a tribute to one of North America's most distinguished scholars of Old French literature Norris J Lacy Dealing with a wide range of medieval works they reflect the honorand's own scholarly interests in medieval narrative and its reception in later periods Together the contributions are witness not only to the esteem in which Norris Lacy is held by the profession but also to the collegial spirit of the international community of medievalists French Arthurian Romance: Le chevalier as deus espees Paul Vincent Rockwell, 2006 First modern critical edition of an important Arthurian romance with facing translation Poet Heroines in Medieval French Narrative B. Findley, 2012-11-29 Examining French literature from the medieval period Findley revises our understanding of medieval literary composition as a largely masculine activity suggesting instead that writing is seen in these texts as problematically gendered and often feminizing The Object and the Cause in the Vulgate Cycle Miranda Griffin, 2005 The thirteenth century French Vulgate Cycle is the earliest vernacular text to trace the Arthurian world from the beginning of the Holy Grail at Christ's crucifixion to the death of the kingdom and its king In this study one of the first to treat the Cycle's five texts as a unified work Miranda Griffin explores notions of chronology and causality within the Cycle as the text seeks to explain the origins of Arthurian characters objects and motifs Informed by psychoanalytical theory her reading focuses especially on the construction within the Cycle of three privileged objects of desire the book the body and the Grail which Griffin argues function as focal points for the anxieties concerning origins voiced by the Cycle's characters and critics This original approach opens up new avenues of research which go directly to the heart of many concerns about this important text Old French Narrative Cycles Luke Sunderland, 2010 This is a study of four colossal medieval works the Cycle de Guillaume d'Orange the Vulgate Cycle the Prose Tristan and the Roman de Renart that are normally considered separately By placing them side by side for analysis Luke Sunderland is able to argue for an aesthetic of cyclicity that cuts across genre He combines detailed readings of the narrative infrastructure of each cycle with attention to the shifts and transformations that come with successive acts of rewriting Book Jacket "De Sens Rassis" Keith Busby, Logan E. Whalen, Bernard Guidot, 2005 These articles are mainly concerned with medieval French literature particularly those areas in which the honorand of the volume Rupert T Pickens has distinguished himself Old French Arthurian romance Marie de France chanson de geste later poetry including Villon and the Occitan troubadour lyric Among the contributors are some of the most significant scholars from the U S A Canada France Switzerland and the U K working in Old French studies today The volume will be of interest to specialists in Old French Occitan and medieval literature generally Some of the articles deal with relatively unknown works and all are informed by current developments in medieval literary studies The Arthur of the French, 2020-10-15 This major reference work is the fourth volume in the series Arthurian
