Rhetoric Discovery And Change:

Rhetoric Richard Emerson Young, Alton L. Becker, Kenneth Lee Pike, 1970 Invention in Rhetoric and Composition Janice M. Lauer, 2004 Invention in Rhetoric and Composition examines issues that have surrounded historical and contemporary theories and pedagogies of rhetorical invention citing a wide array of positions on these issues in both primary rhetorical texts and secondary interpretations. It presents theoretical disagreements over the nature, purpose, and epistemology of invention and pedagogical debates over such issues as the relative importance of art, talent, imitation, and practice in teaching discourse. After a discussion of treatments of invention from the Sophists to the nineteenth century, Invention in Rhetoric and Composition introduces a range of early twentieth-century multidisciplinary theories and calls for invention's awakening in the field of English studies. It then showcases inventional theories and pedagogies that have emerged in the field of Rhetoric and Composition over the last four decades, including the ensuing research critiques and implementations of this inventional work. As a reference guide, the text offers a glossary of terms, an annotated bibliography of selected texts, and an extensive bibliography. Janice M. Lauer is Professor of English Emerita at Purdue University, where she was the Reece McGee Distinguished Professor of English. In 1998, she received the College Composition and Communication Conference's Exemplar Award. Her publications include Four Worlds of Writing: Inquiry and Action in Context, Composition Research: Empirical Designs and New Perspectives on Rhetorical Invention, as well as essays on rhetorical invention, disciplinarity, writing as inquiry, composition pedagogy, historical rhetoric, and empirical research. Rhetoric in Detail Barbara Johnstone, Christopher Eisenhart, 2008 The eleven studies in this volume illustrate and advance the synthesis of discourse analysis with rhetorical studies. Rhetoric in Detail shows how a variety of techniques from discourse analysis can be useful in studying such concerns as agency, legitimation, controversy, and style, and how concepts from rhetoric, including genre and figuration, can enrich the work of discourse analysts. The authors' research sites range from government commissions, political speeches, newspaper reports, and letters to interviews and conversations in beauty salons and online. Methodological overviews interspersed throughout survey critical discourse analysis, interactional sociolinguistics, grounded theory, computer-aided corpus analysis, narrative analysis, and participant observation, and provide suggestions for further reading. Rhetoric in Detail is an invaluable source for rhetoricians looking for systematic, grounded ways of approaching new, more vernacular sites for rhetorical discourse and for discourse analysts interested in seeing what they can learn from the tradition and practice of rhetorical analysis. Rhetoric and Composition Steven Lynn, 2010-09-30 Rhetoric and composition is an academic discipline that informs all other fields in teaching students how to communicate their ideas and construct their arguments. It has grown dramatically to become a cornerstone of many undergraduate courses and curricula, and it is a particularly dynamic field for scholarly research. This book offers an accessible introduction to teaching and studying rhetoric and composition. By combining the history of rhetoric, explorations of its underlying theories, and a survey of current research with practical examples and advice Steven Lynn offers a solid foundation for further study in the field Readers will find useful information on how students have been taught to invent and organize materials to express themselves correctly and effectively and how the ancient study of memory and delivery illuminates discourse and pedagogy today This concise book thus provides a starting point for learning about the discipline that engages writing thinking and argument

Women and Rhetoric between the Wars Ann George, M. Elizabeth Weiser, Janet Zepernick, 2013-02-25 In Women and Rhetoric between the Wars editors Ann George M Elizabeth Weiser and Janet Zepernick have gathered together insightful essays from major scholars on women whose practices and theories helped shape the field of modern rhetoric Examining the period between World War I and World War II this volume sheds light on the forgotten rhetorical work done by the women of that time It also goes beyond recovery to develop new methodologies for future research in the field Collected within are analyses of familiar figures such as Jane Addams Amelia Earhart Helen Keller and Bessie Smith as well as explorations of less well known yet nevertheless influential women such as Zitkala a Jovita Gonz lez and Florence Sabin Contributors evaluate the forces in the civic entertainment and academic scenes that influenced the rhetorical praxis of these women Each essay presents examples of women s rhetoric that move us away from the waves model toward a more accurate understanding of women s multiple diverse rhetorical interventions in public discourse The collection thus creates a new understanding of historiography the rise of modern rhetorical theory and the role of women professionals after suffrage From celebrities to scientists suffragettes to academics the dynamic women of this volume speak eloquently to the field of rhetoric studies today

Landmark Essays on Aristotelian Rhetoric Richard L. Enos, Lois P. Agnew, 2020-11-25 There is little doubt that Aristotle s Rhetoric has made a major impact on rhetoric and composition studies This impact has not only been chronicled throughout the history of rhetoric but has more recently been contested as contemporary rhetoricians reexamine Aristotelian rhetoric and its potential for facilitating contemporary oral and written expression This volume contains the full text of Father William Grimaldi s monograph studies in the philosophy of Aristotle s Rhetoric The eight essays presented here are divided into three rubrics history and philosophical orientation theoretical perspectives and historical impact This collection provides teachers and students with major works on Aristotelian rhetoric that are difficult to acquire and offers readers an opportunity to become active participants in today s deliberations about the merits of Aristotelian rhetoric for contemporary teaching and research

Rhetoric, Through Everyday Things Scot Barnett, Casey Boyle, 2016-09-06 Rhetoric Through Everyday Things is the first book length collection of essays that explore the vibrant materiality of everyday objects in rhetorical theory practice and writing It examines how things such as food bicycles and typewriters can influence history and sociality

The Contemporary Reception of Classical Rhetoric Kathleen E. Welch, 2013-11-05 Responding to the reassertion of orality in the twentieth century in the form of electronic media such as the telegraph film video computers and television this unique volume traces the roots of classical rhetoric in the modern world Welch begins by changing the current view of classical rhetoric by reinterpreting the existing texts into fluid language contexts a change that requires relinquishing the formulaic tradition acquiring an awareness of translation issues and constructing a classical rhetoric beginning with the Fifth Century B C She continues with a discussion of the adaptability of this material to new language situations including political cultural and linguistic change providing it with much of its power as well as its longevity The book concludes that classical rhetoric can readily address any situation since it focuses not only on critical stances toward discourse that already exists but also presents elaborate theories for the production of new discourse

Modern Dogma and the Rhetoric of Assent Wayne C. Booth, 1974-10-15 When should I change my mind What can I believe and what must I doubt In this new philosophy of good reasons Wayne C Booth exposes five dogmas of modernism that have too often inhibited efforts to answer these questions Modern dogmas teach that you cannot reason about values and that the job of thought is to doubt whatever can be doubted and they leave those who accept them crippled in their efforts to think and talk together about whatever concerns them most They have willed upon us a befouled rhetorical climate in which people are driven to two self destructive extremes defenders of reason becoming confined to ever narrower notions of logical or experimental proof and defenders of values becoming more and more irresponsible in trying to defend the heart the gut or the gonads Booth traces the consequences of modernist assumptions through a wide range of inquiry and action in politics art music literature and in personal efforts to find identity or a self In casting doubt on systematic doubt the author finds that the dogmas are being questioned in almost every modern discipline Suggesting that they be replaced with a rhetoric of systematic assent Booth discovers a vast neglected reservoir of good reasons many of them known to classical students of rhetoric some still to be explored These good reasons are here restored to intellectual respectability suggesting the possibility of widespread new inquiry in all fields into the question When should I change my mind
