Berg, 2014-05-01 Irony as used here is a rhetorical and literary device for revealing what is hidden behind what is seen It thus offers the reader a superior understanding by means of the distinction between reality and its shadow The book provides a history of different definitions of irony from Aristophanes to Booth discusses the constitutive formal elements of irony and the functions of irony then studies particular aspects of the Matthean Passion Narrative that require the reader to recognize a deeper truth beneath the surface of the narrative The Postmodern Bible George Aichele, Fred W. Burnett, Robert M. Fowler, David Job ling, Tina Pippin, Wilhelm Wuellner, Bible and Culture Collective, 1995-01-01 The burgeoning use of modern literary theory and cultural criticism in recent biblical studies has led to stimulating but often bewildering new readings of the Bible This book argued from a perspective shaped by postmodernism is at once an accessible guide to and an engagement with various methods theories and critical practices transforming biblical scholarship today Written by a collective of cutting edge scholars with each page the work of multiple hands The Postmodern Bible deliberately breaks with the individualist model of authorship that has traditionally dominated scholarship in the humanities and is itself an illustration of the postmodern transformation of biblical studies for which it argues The book introduces illustrates and critiques seven prominent strategies of reading Several of these interpretive strategies rhetorical criticism structuralism and narratology reader response criticism and feminist criticism have been instrumental in the transformation of biblical studies up to now Many feminist and womanist criticism ideological criticism poststructuralism and psychoanalytic criticism hold promise for the continued transformation of these studies in the future Focusing on readings from both the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament this volume illuminates the current multidisciplinary debates emerging from postmodernism by exposing the still highly contested epistemological political and ethical positions in the field of biblical studies

Rebirth of Rhetoric Richard Andrews, 2012-05-16 Rebirth of Rhetoric brings together contributions from several fields to provide a forum in which a unifying theory for language and literature studies can be debated The book does not aim to resurrect classical Renaissance rhetoric but to remake it within a contemporary context The context of texts both spoken and written is one of the main emphases of this collection whether it is the ideology informing the text or the way in which a text is transformed by its audience The book also aims to present a range of practical approaches to the study of texts of all kinds literary televisual film and photography It also argues the case for developments in the Arts and Humanities which will bring together people working in Education Linguistics Composition Literature and Cultural Studies
