Rhetoric And Poetics In Antiquity:

Rhetoric and Poetics in Antiquity Jeffrey Walker, 2000-07-13 This book offers a counter traditional account of the history of both rhetoric and poetics In reply to traditional rhetorical histories which view rhetoric primarily as an art of practical civic oratory the book argues in four extended essays that epideictic poetic eloquence was central even fundamental to the rhetorical tradition in antiquity In essence Jeffrey Walker s study accomplishes what in the world of rhetoric studies amounts to a revolution he demonstrates that in antiquity rhetoric and poetry could not be viewed separately Rhetoric and Poetics in Antiquity Jeffrey Walker, 2000 This book offers a counter traditional account of the history of both rhetoric and poetics In reply to traditional rhetorical histories which view rhetoric as an art of practical civic oratory the book argues in four extended essays that epideictic poetic eloquence was central even fundamental to the rhetorical tradition in antiquity In essence Walker s study accomplishes what in the world of rhetoric studies amounts to a revolution he demonstrates that in antiquity rhetoric and poetry could not be viewed separately The Genuine Teachers of This Art Jeffrey Walker, 2012-12-07 Genuine Teachers of This Art examines the techn or handbook tradition which it controversially suggests began with Isocrates as the central tradition in ancient rhetoric and a potential model for contemporary rhetoric From this innovative perspective Jeffrey Walker offers reconsiderations of rhetorical theories and schoolroom practices from early to late antiquity as the true aim of the philosophical rhetoric of Isocrates and as the distinctive expression of what Cicero called the genuine teachers of this art Walker makes a case for considering rhetoric not as an Aristotelian critical theoretical discipline but as an Isocratean pedagogical discipline in which the art of rhetoric is neither an art of producing critical theory nor even an art of producing speeches and texts but an art of producing speakers and writers He grounds his study in pedagogical theses mined from revealing against the grain readings of Cicero Isocrates and Dionysius of Halicarnassus Walker also locates supporting examples from a host of other sources including Aelius Theon Aphthonius the Rhetoric to Alexander the Rhetoric to Herennius Quintilian Hermogenes Hermagoras Lucian Libanius Apsines the Anonymous Seguerianus and fragments of ancient student writing preserved in papyri Walker s epilogue considers the relevance of the ancient techn tradition for the modern discipline of rhetoric arguing that rhetoric is defined foremost by its pedagogical enterprise Ancient Rhetoric and Poetic Charles Sears Baldwin, 1959 Ancient Rhetoric and Poetic Charles Sears Baldwin, 1924 Ancient Rhetorics and Digital Networks Michele Kennerly, Damien Smith Pfister, 2018-02-13 An examination of two seemingly incongruous areas of study ancient rhetoric and digitally networked communication Theorizing Histories of Rhetoric Michelle Ballif, 2013-02-25 During the decades of the 1980s and 1990s historians of rhetoric composition and communication vociferously theorized historiographical motivations and methodologies for writing histories in their fields After this fertile period of rich contested and impassioned theorization scholars busily undertook the composition of numerous historical works complicating master narratives and recovering silenced voices and rhetorical practices Yet though historians in these fields have gone about the business of writing histories the discussion of theorization has been quiet In this welcome volume fifteen scholars consider once again the theory of historiography asking difficult questions about the purposes and methodologies of writing histories of rhetoric broadly defined and questioning what it means what it should mean what it could mean to write histories of rhetoric composition and communication The topics addressed include the privileging of the literary and the textual over material artifacts as prime sources of evidence in the study of classical rhetoric the use of rhetorical hermeneutics as a methodology for interpreting past practices the investigation of feminist methodologies that do not fit into the dominant modes of feminist historiographical work and the examination of archives with a queer eye to better construct nondiscriminatory narratives Contributors also explore the value of approaching historiography through the lenses of jazz improvisation and complexity theory and the historiographical method of writing the future in ways that refigure our relationships to time and to ourselves Consistently thoughtful and carefully argued these essays successfully revive the discussion of historiography in rhetoric inspiring fresh avenues of exploration in the field
