Rhetoric And Representation In Nonfiction Film:

Rhetoric and Representation in Nonfiction Film Carl R. Plantinga, 1997 Rhetoric and Representation in Nonfiction Film examines the basic theoretical issues that ground any in depth study of non fiction film and video Exploring the legitimacy of the distinction between fiction and nonfiction Carl Plantinga here characterises nonfiction film in a new way He surveys the functions of moving images in visual communication and shows how nonfiction discourse presents information through structural and stylistic analysis among other topics The author also examines several fundamental philosophical issues that are at the heart of nonfiction representation and communication including the nature and functions of objectivity reflexivity and truth telling Rhetoric and Representation in Nonfiction Film takes a critical realist perspective on these issues and offers an alternative to the dominant post modernist and post structuralist theories of non fiction film Shakespeare in the Cinema Stephen M. Buhler, 2012-02-01 Offering a comprehensive look at the strategies that filmmakers have employed in adapting Shakespeare s plays to the cinema this book investigates what the task of Shakespearean adaptation reveals about film in general and focuses on patterns and approaches shared by various cinematic works Buhler provides concise histories of each general strategy which include non illusionistic cinema documentary interpretations mass market productions transgressive and transnational cinema and approaches that see film as either distinct from the stage or as an extension of theatrical traditions The book spans more than a century of film starting with the 1899 King John and extending through Michael Hoffman s A Midsummer Night s Dream Julie Taymor s Titus and later releases Moving Viewers Carl Plantinga, 2009-04-08 Everyone knows the thrill of being transported by a film but what is it that makes movie watching such a compelling emotional experience In Moving Viewers Carl Plantinga explores this question and the implications of its answer for aesthetics the psychology of spectatorship and the place of movies in culture Through an in depth discussion of mainstream Hollywood films Plantinga investigates what he terms the paradox of negative emotion and the function of mainstream narratives as ritualistic fantasies He describes the sensual nature of the movies and shows how film emotions are often elicited for rhetorical purposes He uses cognitive science and philosophical aesthetics to demonstrate why cinema may deliver a similar emotional charge for diverse audiences Utopias in Nonfiction Film Simon Spiegel, 2022-01-11 Comprehensive and thorough Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new direction in its surprise application to documentary that has the potential to shake up the field Jane Gaines Columbia University USA Spiegel has introduced a new sub genre to utopian studies the documentary film The book covers an impressive range of films making the book one of the few truly international and comparative works in utopian studies Lyman Tower Sargent University of Missouri St Louis USA Simon Spiegel s magisterial overview of utopian documentaries and nonfiction films is a treasure trove of information and unearths many forgotten and half forgotten films providing perceptive discussions of sidelined movies that deserve his and our critical scrutiny Eckart Voigts University of Braunschweig Institute of Technology Germany This book is the first major study on utopias in nonfiction film Since the publication of Thomas More's Utopia more than 500 years ago countless books have been written which describe a better world But in film positive utopias seem to be nonexistent So far research has focused almost exclusively on dystopias since positive outlooks seem to run contrary to the media's requirement Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new approach starting from the insight that literary utopias are first and foremost meant as a reaction to the ills of the present and not as entertaining stories it looks at documentary and propaganda films an area which so far has been completely ignored by research Combining insights from documentary research and utopian studies a vast and very diverse corpus of films is analysed Among them are Zionist propaganda films cinematic city utopias socialist films of the future as well as web videos produced by the Islamist terrorist group ISIS

Nordic Film Cultures and Cinemas of Elsewhere

Anna Westerstahl Stenport, 2019-09-27 Nordic Film Cultures and Cinemas of Elsewhere introduces a new concept to Nordic film studies as well as to other small national transnational and world cinema traditions Examining overlooked elsewheres the book presents Nordic cinemas as international cosmopolitan diasporic and geographically dispersed from their beginnings in the early silent period to their present 21st century dynamics Exploring both canonical works by directors like Ingmar Bergman and Lars von Trier as well as a wide range of unknown or overlooked narratives of movement synthesis and resistance the book offers a new model of inquiry into a multi varied Scandinavian cultural lineage and into small nation and pan regional world cinemas

The Philosophy of Documentary Film David LaRocca, 2016-12-20 The spirit that founded the volume and guided its development is radically inter and transdisciplinary Dispatches have arrived from anthropology communications English film studies including theory history criticism literary studies including theory history criticism media and screen studies cognitive cultural studies narratology philosophy poetics politics and political theory and as a special aspect of the volume theorist filmmakers make their thoughts known as well Consequently the critical reflections gathered here are decidedly pluralistic and heterogeneous inviting not bracketing or partitioning the dynamism and diversity of the arts humanities social sciences and even natural sciences in so far as we are biological beings who are trying to track our cognitive and perceptual understanding of a nonbiological thing namely film whether celluloid based or in digital form these disciplines so habitually cordoned off from one another are brought together into a shared conversation about a common object and domain of investigation This book will be of interest to theorists and practitioners of nonfiction film to emerging and established scholars contributing to the secondary literature and to those who are intrigued by the kinds of questions and claims that seem native to nonfiction film and who may wish to explore some critical responses to them written in engaging language

What Is Non-fiction Cinema? Trevor Ponech, 2021-11-28 Trevor Ponech has written a serious and pathbreaking study of how to define non fiction cinema Working from the position that no cinematic representation is wholly factual Ponech argues that what determines whether a film is fiction or non fiction is the filmmakers intention Persuasively defending this unique position the author provides a philosophically rigorous analysis of the communicative practices of filmmakers In What Is Non Fiction Cinema Trevor Ponech has written a serious and pathbreaking study of how to define non fiction cinema Working from the position that no cinematic representation is wholly factual Ponech argues that what determines whether a film is fiction or non fiction is the filmmakers intention Persuasively defending this unique position the author provides a philosophically rigorous analysis of the communicative practices of filmmakers In making his case Ponech cogently presents the other major theoretical positions regarding documentary cinema and shows why each is incomplete The result is a cutting edge philosophical inquiry into purposiveness in film

Cognitive Theory and Documentary Film Catalin Brylla,Mette Kramer,2018-08-21 This groundbreaking edited collection is the first major study to explore the intersection between cognitive theory and documentary film studies focusing on a variety of formats such as first person wildlife animated and slow TV documentary as well as docudrama and web videos Documentaries play an increasingly significant role in informing our cognitive and emotional understanding of today s mass mediated society and this collection seeks to illuminate their production exhibition and reception Taking an interdisciplinary approach the essays draw on the latest research in film studies the neurosciences cultural studies cognitive psychology social psychology and the philosophy of mind With a foreword by documentary studies pioneer Bill Nichols and contributions from both theorists and practitioners this volume firmly demonstrates that cognitive theory represents a valuable tool not only for film scholars but also for filmmakers and practice led researchers

The Cinema of Errol Morris David Resha,2015-04-08 The Cinema of Errol Morris offers close analyses of the director s films from box office successes like The Thin Blue Line and The Fog of War to Morris s early works like Vernon Florida and controversial films like Standard Operating Procedure Film scholar David Resha s reappraisal of Morris s films allows us to rethink the traditional distinction between stylistically conservative documentaries which are closely invested in evidence and reality and stylistically adventurous films which artfully call to question such claims of nonfiction and truth According to Resha Errol Morris does not fit neatly in this division of the documentary tradition Rather his experiments with documentary conventions constitute another way to investigate reality in particular to examine the ways in which his subjects understand and misunderstand themselves and the world around them Seen within the nonfiction tradition an Errol Morris documentary is a flexible form of lively engaging storytelling and shrewd cutting in depth reportage Hardcover is un jacketed

Japanese Cinema in the Digital Age Mitsuyo Wada-Marciano,2012-05-31 Digital technology has transformed cinema s production distribution and consumption patterns and pushed contemporary cinema toward increasingly global markets In the case of Japanese cinema a once moribund industry has been revitalized as regional genres such as anime and Japanese horror now challenge Hollywood s preeminence in global cinema In her rigorous investigations of J horror personal documentary anime and ethnic cinema Mitsuyo Wada Marciano deliberates on the role of the transnational in bringing to the mainstream what were formerly marginal B movie genres She argues persuasively that convergence culture which these films represent constitutes Japan s response to the variegated flows of global economics and culture With its timely analysis of new modes of production emerging from the struggles of Japanese filmmakers and animators to finance and market their work in a post studio era this book holds critical implications for the future of other national cinemas fighting to remain viable in a global marketplace As academics in film and media studies prepare a wholesale shift toward a transnational perspective of film Wada Marciano cautions against jettisoning the entire national cinema paradigm Discussing the technological advances and the new cinematic flows of consumption she demonstrates that while contemporary Japanese film on the one hand expresses the transnational as an object of desire i e a form of total cosmopolitanism on the other hand that desire is indeed inseparable from Japan s national identity Drawing on a substantial number of interviews with auteur directors such as Kore eda Hirokazu Kurosawa Kiyoshi and Kawase Naomi and incisive analysis of select film texts this compelling original work challenges the presumption that Hollywood is the only authentically global cinema
