Rhetorics Of Welfare Uncertainty Choice And Voluntary Associations:

Rhetorics of Welfare Kevin M.. Brown,Susan Kenny,Bryan Stanley Turner,2000 Rhetorics of Welfare K. Brown,S. Kenny,B. Turner,J. Prince,2000-04-19 The book explores comparatively the role of non profit organizations in conditions of social and economic change The focus of the study is an investigation of the proposition that non profit organizations provide sites and processes for enhancing active citizenship invigorating the public sphere and extending political participation The study explores the economic constraints on voluntary associations and argues that they can function as schools of democracy This book is the first national study of the third sector in Australia but its conclusions have a general relevance to deregulated welfare societies in Europe and North America

Faith-based Organisations and Exclusion in European Cities Justin Beaumont,Paul J. Cloke,2012 This timely book explores the role played by faith based organisations FBOs which are growing in importance in the provision of social services in the European context

Citizenship in Nordic Welfare States Bjørn Hvinden,Håkan Johansson,2007-06-11 This book offers an innovative analysis of the ways in which the relationship between citizens and welfare states social citizenship becomes more dynamic and multifaceted as a result of Europeanization and individualization Written by interdisciplinary contributors from politics sociology law and philosophy it examines the transformation of social citizenship through a series of illuminating case studies comparing Nordic countries and other European nations Dealing with the following areas of national and European welfare policy legislation and practice activation reforms linking income maintenance and employment promotion scope for participation of marginal groups in deliberation and decision making impact of human rights legislation for welfare and legal protection against discrimination and social barriers to equal market participation coordination of social security systems to facilitate cross border mobility in Europe pension reform efforts to make pension systems sustainable Citizenship in Nordic Welfare States will be of interest to students and researchers of social policy comparative welfare social law political science sociology and European studies

Landscapes of Voluntarism Christine Milligan,David Conradson,2011 The appeal of voluntary action as a solution to growing welfare needs in advanced capitalist countries raises important questions about the social impacts and spatial equity of such provision For the first time these issues are addressed within a single book exploring the complex relationship between voluntary action society and space

The Rise and Fall of Citizenship Bryan S. Turner,2023-10-13 The Rise and Fall of Citizenship brings together many of Turner s publications on the topic of citizenship and includes three new chapters reflecting upon conceptions of citizenship today The collection begins with a newly written overview of the rise of social citizenship with particular reference to the UK and the US from 1945 to the 1980s which charts the experiences of the Baby Boomers that benefited from the creation of welfare states post war reconstruction and the commitment to full employment The core chapters are based on previously published articles primarily from Taylor Francis Citizenship Studies journal These chapters examine and critique various sociological and political theories of citizenship and social rights as expounded in the works of R H Tawney J M Keynes T H Marshall Ralf Dahrendorf Judith Shklar Peter Townsend Bernard Crick and Jürgen Habermas among others Later chapters bring the concept of citizenship up to date Since the 1980s the UK and the US have been radically altered by neoliberal economic policies involving the deindustrialization of capitalism and an emphasis on financial institutions which have given rise to new patterns of inequality and changing labour markets In describing where we are now Turner argues that new forms of employment instability and uncertainty are captured by the idea of the precariat and that citizens now experience their social world as if they were denizens Turner also considers the impact of demographic changes and increased immigration widely opposed by populist parties on conceptions of citizenship Migration and membership are also examined with reference to issues of dual citizenship permanent residence and citizenship for cash The final chapter considers the ongoing relevance of the ancient law of hospitality positing how the migrant can be considered as an asset rather than a threat This wide ranging and thought provoking collection will be of interest to scholars and students in the humanities and social sciences with a focus on citizenship and rights

Third Sector Organisations and Organising Wendy Earles, Robyn Lynn, 2012-08 Over the past few decades there has been considerable transformation of the organisational arrangements for public service provision and advocacy across most Western democracies not least in Australia Waves of ideologically driven reforms have reshaped organisations ways of organising and systems particularly those in the third sector Each wave has produced specific synergies and contradictions that contribute to the need for further reshaping As artefacts local organisations ways of organising and systems hold historic meaning that can guide practitioners as they seek to understand past change transverse existing landscapes question the utility and soundness of current meaning and seek to create new landscapes that respond to different value sets The studies present here were undertaken by the authors over two decades in partnership with local practitioners to respond to their expressed need for new maps and compasses to understand and transverse the rapidly changing organisational landscapes in which they practice The authors draw on practitioners lived experiences of micro change in particular sites to construct synthesised stories develop organisational typologies articulate principles and logics of organising and construct paradigmatic maps

Making Volunteers Nina Eliasoph, 2011-02-28 An inside look at how community service organizations really work Volunteering improves inner character builds community cures poverty and prevents crime We've all heard this kind of empowerment talk from nonprofit and government sponsored civic programs But what do these programs really accomplish In Making Volunteers Nina Eliasoph offers an in depth humorous wrenching and at times uplifting look inside youth and adult civic programs She reveals an urgent need for policy reforms in order to improve these organizations and shows that while volunteers learn important lessons they are not always the lessons that empowerment programs aim to teach With short term funding and a dizzy mix of mandates from multiple sponsors community programs develop a complex web of intimacy governance and civic life Eliasoph describes the at risk youth served by such programs the college bound volunteers who hope to feel selfless inspiration and plump up their resumes and what happens when the two groups are expected to bond instantly through short term projects She looks at adult plug in volunteers who working in after school programs and limited by time hope to become like beloved aunts to youth Eliasoph indicates that adult volunteers can provide grassroots support but they can also undermine the family like warmth created by paid organizers Exploring contradictions between the democratic rhetoric of empowerment programs and the bureaucratic hurdles that volunteers learn to navigate the book demonstrates that empowerment projects work best with less precarious funding more careful planning and mandatory training reflection and long term commitments from volunteers Based on participant research inside civic and community organizations Making Volunteers illustrates what these programs can and cannot achieve and how to make them more effective
