Rich And Poor In Renaissance Venice:

Rich and Poor in Renaissance Venice Brian S. Pullan,1971 Rich and Poor in Renaissance Venice ... Catholic St. to 1620 Brian S. Pullan,1971 Tintoretto Tom Nichols,2015-10-01 Jacopo Tintoretto 1518 94 is an ambiguous figure in the history of art His radically unorthodox paintings are not readily classifiable and although he was a Venetian by birth his standing as a member of the Venetian school is constantly contested But he was also a formidable maverick abandoning the humanist narratives and sensuous color palette typical of the great Venetian master Titian in favor of a renewed concentration on core Christian subjects painted in a rough and abbreviated chiaroscuro style This generously illustrated book offers an extensive analysis of Tintoretto s greatest paintings charting his life and work in the context of Venetian art and the culture of the Cinquecento Tom Nichols shows that Tintoretto was an extraordinarily innovative artist who created a new manner of painting which for all of its originality and sophistication was still able to appeal to the shared emotions of the widest possible audience This compact pocket edition features sixteen additional illustrations and a new afterword by the author and it will continue to be one of the definitive treatments of this once grossly overlooked master Charity and Economy in the Orphanages of Early Modern Augsburg Thomas Max Safley,2023-08-21 This book examines the complex interrelationship between charity confession and capital in the orphanages of the Free Imperial City of Augsburg To provide the best care at the least cost the administrators of these traditionally non capitalistic organizations engaged in a wide variety of capitalistic practices in capital commodity and labor markets Their market orientated practices inspired bourgeois virtues that included the assessments of long term risk and reward the avoidance of excess and waste and the practice of obedience persistence and industry Under the pressures of confessional tension efficiency slowly evolved into a more complex notion of utility that placed the needs of the orphanages over the dictates of economy and the divisions of religion The product of monumental original research this book offers a substantial revision of current historical scholarship on poor relief social discipline organization building and the advent of capitalism A forthcoming volume will pursue these issues through a close study of the fortunes and fates of 8 000 Augsburg orphans These studies make required reading for advanced students of early modern Europe Singlewomen in the European Past, 1250-1800 Judith M. Bennett,Amy M. Froide,2013-02-01 When we think about the European past we tend to imagine villages towns and cities populated by conventional families married couples and their children Although most people did marry and pass many of their adult years in the company of a spouse this vision of a preindustrial Europe shaped by heterosexual marriage deceptively hides the well established fact that in some times and places as many as twenty five percent of women and men remained single throughout their lives Despite the significant number of never married lay women in medieval and early modern Europe the study of their role and position in that society has been largely neglected Singlewomen in the European Past opens up this group for further investigation It is not only the first book to highlight the important minority of women who never married but also the first to address the critical matter of differences among women from the perspective of marital status Essays by leading scholars among them Maryanne Kowaleski Margaret Hunt Ruth Mazo Karras Susan Mosher Stuard Roberta Krueger and Merry Wiesner deal with topics including the sexual and emotional relationships of singlewomen the economic issues and employment opportunities facing them the differences between the lives of widows and singlewomen the conflation of singlewomen and prostitutes and the problem of female slavery The chapters both illustrate the roles open to the singlewoman in the thirteenth through eighteenth centuries and raise new perspectives about the experiences of singlewomen in earlier times

The City and the Senses Dr Alexander Cowan, Dr Jill Steward, 2013-06-28 How do we experience a city in terms of the senses What are the inter relations between human experience and behaviour in urban space This volume examines these questions in the context of European urban culture between the fifteenth and twentieth centuries exploring the institutions and ideologies relating to the range of sensual experience and its interpretation Spanning pre industrial and modern cities in Britain France Germany and the United States it enables the reader to establish major contrasts and continuities in what is still an evolving urban experience Divided into sections corresponding to the five senses noise vision taste touch and smell each sections allows for comparisons which act as reminders that the experience of the city was a multi sensual one and that these experiences were as much intellectual as physical in their nature The Oxford Handbook of the Ancien Régime William Doyle, 2012 An exploration of current scholarly thinking about the wide and surprisingly complex range of historical problems associated with the study of Ancien Régime Europe

Mediterranean Urban Culture, 1400-1700 Alexander Cowan, 2000 Was there a distinctive Mediterranean urban culture in the early modern period This collection demonstrates both the range of collective urban experience in the Mediterranean and the complexity of the nature of urban culture at that time

The European Crisis of the 1590s Peter Clark, 2025-05-01 First published in 1985 The European Crisis of the 1590s now with a new preface by Peter Clark on the current literature on crisis and catastrophe investigates in depth for the first time the origin and scale of the critical problems of the 1590s and their impact on European society Among the contributors are many leading scholars working on European history during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The book is divided into two parts The first analyses the particular mesh of difficulties in different areas of Europe covering all the major countries England France Germany the Netherlands Spain and Italy The second part discusses more general issues such as the impact of war and the role of the state From a systematic comparative examination of one period of acute difficulty and upheaval we gain valuable insights into the general nature of the economic and social crises which recurred in the early modern era Important and vivid light is also shed on the long term social economic and institutional changes affecting European countries c 1550 c 1650 General findings are emphasised in the editorial introduction and in the wide ranging conclusion by J H Elliott which offers a powerful evaluation of the historical significance of the 1590s This volume will be essential reading for academics students and others interested in the economic social and political history of Britain and continental Europe during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It will also be valuable for all those working in the new field of crisis and catastrophe A Companion to Venetian History, 1400-1797, 2013-07-11 The field of Venetian studies has experienced a significant expansion in recent years and the Companion to Venetian History 1400 1797 provides a single volume overview of the most recent developments It is organized thematically and covers a range of topics including political culture economy religion gender art literature music and the environment Each chapter provides a broad but comprehensive historical and historiographical overview of the current state and future directions of research The Companion to Venetian History 1400 1797 represents a new point of reference for the next generation of students of early modern Venetian studies as well as more broadly for scholars working on all aspects of the early modern world Contributors are Alfredo Viggiano Benjamin Arbel Michael Knapton Claudio Povolo Luciano Pezzolo Anna Bellavitis Anne Schutte Guido Ruggiero Benjamin Ravid Silvana Seidel Menchi Cecilia Cristellon David D Andrea Elisabeth Crouzet Pavan Wolfgang Wolters Dulcia Meijers Massimo Favilla Ruggero Rugolo Deborah Howard Linda Carroll Jonathan Glixon Paul Grendler Edward Muir William Eamon Edoardo Demo Margaret King Mario Infelise Margaret Rosenthal and Ronnie Ferguson
