Richer Futures Fashioning A New Po:

Richer Futures Ken Worpole, 2020-09-10 In every area of life traditional centralized party politics has been failing and the seeds of a new form of political life are being sown This is true in housing health education consumption and transport where public policy is attracting increasing criticism In an age of social alienation and urban despondency Richer Futures is a timely response to the growing interest in community based self help action It introduces new forms of communication and decision making and sets out a programme for a sustainable politics Contributions from some of the best known thinkers and writers on contemporary urban cultural and social policy and campaigns in Britain today pay tribute to the ideas and industrious activities of the influential writer and commentator Colin Ward This uplifting collection of essays looks forward to a new politics of self management and environmentally aware and sustainable lifestyles Ken Worpole has written a number of books on urban and cultural policy and a series of influential reports for Comedia Demos and the Department of the Environment Originally published in 1999 Resourcing an Agroecological Urbanism Chiara Tornaghi, Michiel Dehaene, 2021-03-07 Foregrounding an innovative and radical perspective on food planning this book makes the case for an agroecological urbanism in which food is a key component in the reinvention of new and just social arrangements and ecological practices Building on state of the art and participatory research on farming urbanism food policy and advocacy in the field of food system transformation this book changes the way food planning has been conceptualised to date and invites the reader to fully embrace the transformative potential of an agroecological perspective Bringing in dialogue from both the rural and urban the producer and consumer this book challenges conventional approaches that see them as separate spheres whose problems can only be solved by a reconnection Instead it argues for moving away from a food in the city approach towards an urbanism perspective in which the economic and spatial processes that currently drive urbanisation will be unpacked and dissected and new strategies for changing those processes into more equal and just ones are put forward Drawing on the nascent field of urban political agroecology this text brings together i theoretical re conceptualisations of urbanism in relation to food planning and the emergence of new agrarian questions ii critical analysis of experimental methodologies and performing arts for public dialogue reflexivity and food sovereignty research iii experiences of resourceful land management including urban land use and land tenure change and iv theoretical and practical exploration of post capitalist economics that bring consumers and producers together to make the case for an agroecological urbanism Aimed at advanced students and academics in agroecology sustainable food planning urban geography urban planning and critical food studies this book will also be of interest to professionals and activists working with food systems in both the Global North and the Global South Community Development in Theory and Practice Gary Craig, Keith Popple, Mae Shaw, 2008 Since its establishment in 1966 the Community Development Journal has maintained its position as the leading international journal for practitioners academics and policy makers across the world To celebrate its fortieth anniversary the CDJ s

Editorial Board commissioned three highly experienced members two of them former editors to bring together a representative sample of the best writing from the Journal The thirty chapters in this volume including an entirely new introductory contextual essay are drawn from every corner of the world demonstrating the richness and diversity of community development theory and practice Despite this diversity the changing foci of community development and the varying contexts in which it is practised the chapters all reflect the commitment of community development theorists and practitioners to engage critically with the key values of social justice equality fairness participatory development and respect for difference This book will become a key text for those concerned with implementing these values in practice

Fashioning the Future in Roman Greece Estelle Strazdins, 2023-01-10 Fashioning the Future in Roman Greece Memory Monuments Texts uses literature inscriptions art and architecture to explore the relationship of elite Greeks of the Roman imperial period to time This wide ranging work challenges conventional thinking about the temporal positioning of imperial Greece and the so called Second Sophistic which holds that it was obsessed above all with the Classical past Instead the volume establishes that imperial Greek temporality was far more complex than scholarship has previously allowed by detailing how contemporary cultural output used the past to position itself within tradition but was crafted to speak to the future At the same time the book emphasizes the value of interdisciplinary analysis in any explication of elite culture in Roman Greece since abundant extant evidence reveals its purveyors were often responsible for the production of both literature and material culture Strazdins shows how these two modes of cultural production in the hands of elites such as Herodes Atticus Arrian Aelius Aristides Lucian Dio Chrysostom Polemon Pausanias and Philostratus exhibit a shared rhetoric oriented towards posterity and informed by a heightened awareness of the fragility of cultural and personal memory over large spans of time The book thus provides a sophisticated analysis of the tensions anxieties and opportunities that attend the fashioning of commemorative strategies against the background of the Second Sophistic and the Roman empire and details the consequences of embroilment with futurity on our understanding of the cultural and political concerns of elite imperial Greeks

How Change Happens Roman Krznaric, 2007 The author argues that current development thinking uses only a narrow range of approaches to change and the result is that most development strategies are limited excessively reformist and insensitive to underlying power and inequality and largely ignore environmental issues that confront our societies and planet

A British Anarchist Tradition Carissa Honeywell, 2011-05-12 A British Anarchist Tradition focuses on three contemporary British theorists and practitioners Herbert Read Colin Ward and Alex Comfort and looks at their interrelation commonality and collective influence on British radical thought The book aims to foster a greater understanding of anarchism as an intellectual response to 20th century developments and its impact on political thought and movements For the first time the work of these three writers is presented as a tradition highlighting the consistency of their themes and concerns To do so the book shows how they addressed the problems faced by modern British society with clear lines of political literary and intellectual traditions linking them. It also focuses on their contribution to the development of anarchist conceptions of freedom in the twentieth century. A British Anarchist Tradition identifies an area of anarchism that deserves greater critical scholarly attention. Its unique and thorough research will make it a valuable resource for anyone interested in contemporary anarchist thought, political theory and political movements.

Art, Community and Environment Glen Coutts, Timo Jokela, 2008. Art Community and Environment investigates wide ranging issues raised by the interaction between art practice, community participation and the environment, both natural and urban. This volume brings together a distinguished group of contributors from the United States, Australia and Europe to examine topics such as urban art, community participation, local empowerment and the problem of ownership. Featuring rich illustrations and informative case studies from around the world, Art Community and Environment addresses the growing interest in this fascinating discipline.

Grüne Philosophie Roger Scruton, 2013-11-25. Der Umweltschutz liegt herkömmlich im Hoheitsgebiet der politischen Linken. Die Bedrohung der Natur ist ihr zufolge dem internationalen Kapitalismus, dem Konsumverhalten und der unbegrenzten Ausbeutung natürlicher Ressourcen zuzuschreiben. Roger Scruton entblößt dieses Grundverständnis als gefährlichen Trugschluss, der in sich zerstörerisch auf die Ökosysteme wirkt, von denen unsere Zukunft abhängt. Der konservative Denker würdigt traditionelle Prinzipien als offensichtlichste und wirksamste Mittel, den Erhalt unseres Planeten zu sichern. Lokalismus und Bürgerverantwortung schlagen dabei die Bemühungen schwerfälliger Nichtregierungsorganisationen und internationaler Komitees. Die Zukunft ist mitnichten gesichert, aber Roger Scruton beweist mit dieser gedankenreichen Schrift, dass ein Fortbestand des Ökosystems Erde möglich ist.

Social Anarchism, 1999. Beyond Schooling David H. Hargreaves, 2019-04-11. Provocative and engagingly written, Beyond Schooling offers a challenging perspective on state schooling in England and the unrelenting increase in centralisation from the late 1960s until the present day. Exploring how the education of our children and young people should be recaptured from the state as the country moves into a precarious future, this book argues that any fundamental reconsideration of schooling has much to learn from an anarchist analysis. It introduces readers unfamiliar with anarchism to the main themes of this political philosophy and practice and their relationship to the political left and right. It shows how an anarchist perspective on education raises deep issues about the community and the use of power, questions the notions of full-time schooling and age grading alongside conventional conceptions of the teaching profession and the potential educational role of parents as work declines or disappears. In its original reflections on the state of contemporary schooling and the paths to future reform, Beyond Schooling is a must-read for anyone seeking a new vision for the future of education and schooling.
