Sicilienne Org:

Charles Koechlin (1867-1950) Robert Orledge, 1989 In 1942 Wilfrid Mellers classed Koechlin among the select number of contemporary composers who really matter yet it is only in the 1980s that Koechlin has begun to achieve the recognition he deserves as a composer of breadth vision and powerful originality a pioneer of polytonality and a master orchestrator who was greatly admired by contemporaries such as Faure Debussy Satie and Milhaud Lavishly illustrated with photographic and musical examples this book provides the first comprehensive evaluation of Koechlin's life and works As well as concentrating on major symphonic works like Koechlin's Jungle Book cycle it also discusses his attraction to the early sound film and the music inspired by such stars as Lilian Harvey Marlene Dietrich and Charlie Chaplin in the 1930s Koechlin's career provides a fascinating study of the triumph of integrity and independence over almost overwhelming odds and is rich and varied output offers a veritable treasure trove for performers scholars and enthusiasts alike Organ Music in Print Thomas R.

Nardone, 1975 The Amateur Flautist Hugh Evans, 2014-10-28 Many people learn the flute Most give it up as an adult because they cannot easily find anyone to play with and a lack of practice makes it less enjoyable to play This book is aimed at helping such people The first chapter diagnoses why most amateur flautists give up playing and sets out a number of remedies The most important is finding other musicians with whom to play whether in an orchestra or more importantly in chamber groups The author explores how you might set about finding players for chamber music and how you might set about finding the music itself The second chapter gives guidance about the music for all the principal combinations of chamber groups which involve the flute The most significant ones are flute and piano two to four flutes trio sonatas with another melody instrument and piano and the wind quartet The author describes the principal works for each of these groups which are fun and manageable for amateurs rather than listing everything that is available Listed are the significant works that are available for free on the internet The third chapter suggests a short practice regime to counteract the deficiencies in the playing of most amateur flautists which are poor tone and tuning Practicing half an hour a few times a week should do the trick Music in Print Annual Supplement, 1979 As vidas dos Trovadores Medievais Marcella Lopes

Locating the Mediterranean Carl Rommel,Joseph John Viscomi,2022-07-06 Until today anthropological studies of locality have taken primary interest in local subjects leading local lives in local communities Through a shift of conceptual emphasis from locality to location the present volume departs from previous preoccupations with identity and belonging Instead Locating the Mediterranean brings together ethnographic examinations of processes that make locations and render them meaningful In doing so it stimulates debates on the interplay between location and region making in history as well as anthropology The volume's deeply empirical contributions illustrate how historical material legal religious economic political and social connections and separations shape the experience of being located in the geographical space commonly known as the Mediterranean region Drawing from research in Melilla Lampedusa Istanbul Nefpaktos Lepanto Tunisia Beirut Marseille and elsewhere the volume articulates location through the overlapping and incorporation of multiple social and historical processes Individual contributions are linked by the pursuit to rethink the conceptual frames deployed to study the Mediterranean region Together the volume's chapters challenge strict geopolitical renderings of Europe the Middle East and North Africa and suggest how the Mediterranean can function as a meaningful anthropological and historical category if the notion of location is reinvigorated and conceptualised anew

Unbounding Europe Ilaria Giglioli,2025-09-15 At a time of global border fortification and rising nationalisms Unbounding Europe analyzes the potential of Mediterranean borderlands to offer alternative models of belonging Drawing on ethnographic and archival research Ilaria Giglioli writes about relations between Sicilians and Tunisians and how they negotiate relationships of proximity and difference in multiple arenas of life She argues that histories of marginalization within the nation state do not automatically make borderlands inclusive for migrants Understanding the interplay of different degrees of marginality is key to identify how solidarity movements can emerge and be effective Giglioli argues that depoliticized celebrations of cross Mediterranean coexistence ignore longstanding inequalities and reinforce symbolic hierarchies between Sicilians and Tunisians She stresses that recognizing and addressing these inequalities is key to developing a transformative politics of solidarity Rather than idealize intermediate border spaces or subjects Unbounding Europe asserts that it is more effective to reconstruct histories of material and symbolic boundary drawing to demonstrate the contingency and mutability of borders
